Acknowledgments The bulk of this paper was written during my summer as a fellow at the Nanotechnology and Society Research Group at Northeastern University in 2011. Funding for this fellowship came from the National Science Foundation (Grant No. SES-0609078). I am particularly grateful to Ronald Sandler, Co-Principal Investigator for the NSRG, for granting me the opportunity to work alongside him and others as a fellow, and for his input on the paper. Thanks also to my fellow fellows: John Basl, Matt Kopec, Noah Levin, Patrick Smith and Valentina Urbanek; to the organizers and audience members of the 2012 annual conference of the Humanities and Technology Association; to my friend and colleague, Peter Jaworski; and to three anonymous reviewers at the Journal of Business Ethics. I would especially like to thank one of these reviewers, whose extremely detailed feedback helped clarify many aspects of my argument.
