

Acknowledgements

The compiler gratefully acknowledges indebtedness to the statistical publications of the US Bureau of Mines, The World Bureau of Metal Statistics, Metallgesellschaft, and the Institute of Geological Sciences in particular. Many other sources, listed at the end of the report, have also been used. The price data are derived mainly from the Metal Bulletin, Metals Week, Industrial Minerals and the Engineering and Mining Journal. Any mistaken interpretations, errors or omissions, are the compiler's sole responsibility. Particular thanks are due to Nobushige Kondo, Julie Markey and Carolyn Evans for their various contributions to the tables and to Lucy Ereira for producing the typescript.
