Andorra is governed by the General Council of the Valleys of Andorra and two co-princes, the French president and the Spanish Bishop of Urgel, represented by the Prefect of the Eastern Pyrenees and the Vicar-General of Urgel. There is a very small police force, the Order Service (Servei d'Ordre), formed in 1933; it is concerned with law enforcement, crime prevention, traffic control and the registration of citizens and foreign nationals. Small arms are normally carried on duty.
