

12 Closing Remarks

Prof. Dr. Arnold Picot,
Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich

Ladies and Gentlemen, let me at the end of this conference thank those who have made this conference possible, especially Josef Lorenz and Jörg Eberspächer and a program committee that has prepared this conference. I think they have done a great job. Thank you very much.

At the same time I would like to say a warm thank you to all the speakers and discussants and to all of you who have come to this conference to Berlin today and discussed with us. I think we were not a very large but a very competent audience. I feel that it was really worth coming here and that we got food for thought which will hopefully be transformed into an action be it in the political scene, in the business scene or in the scientific scene.

This is one of the missions of the Münchner Kreis and I hope that we will live up to that. Thank you very much and I wish everybody a good and safe way home.
