

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT TO REFEREES

© Springer Nature Switzerland AG 2018

Dear Reader,

As we reach the final issue of Clinical Drug Investigation for 2018, we wish to reflect on another successful year's achievements, and to thank all those who have contributed their time and effort to guarantee the high quality of our content.

2018 was a successful year for Clinical Drug Investigation. Over 115 articles have been published; the most popular of these, in terms of downloads from SpringerLink, have been:

Raffa, R.B., Pawasauskas, J., Pergolizzi, J.V., et al. Pharmacokinetics of oral and intravenous paracetamol (acetaminophen) when co-administered with intravenous morphine in healthy adult subjects. Clin Drug Investig (2018) 38:259. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40261-017-0610-4>

Nunes, S.L., Forsberg, S., Blomqvist, H., et al. Effect of sedation regimen on weaning from mechanical ventilation in the intensive care unit. Clin Drug Investig (2018) 38:535. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40261-018-0636-2>

Goldsmith, D., Dellanna, F., Schiestl, M., et al. Epoetin biosimilars in the treatment of renal anemia: what have we learned from a decade of European experience? Clin Drug Investig (2018) 38:481. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40261-018-0637-1>

Vieta, E., Montes, J.M. A Review of asenapine in the treatment of bipolar disorder. Clin Drug Investig (2018) 38:87. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40261-017-0592-2>

Hu, Y., Chen, Z., Gong, Y., et al. A review of switching biologic agents in the treatment of moderate-to-severe plaque psoriasis. Clin Drug Investig (2018) 38:191. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40261-017-0603-3>

The quality of articles published in the journal is also reflected in its most recent impact factor (2017 impact factor 1.918).

Other journals in the Adis Premier Journals Portfolio (<http://www.springer.com/gp/adis>) continue to prosper with substantial increases in usage year on year. In addition, this year has seen Applied Health Economics and Health Policy receive its first impact factor.

We thank the authors who have contributed articles to Clinical Drug Investigation over the course of 2018. The skill and dedication of all authors are critical to the continued publication of the journal. The quality of published articles is also testament to the significant efforts of the peer reviewers, whose commitment ensures that the journal's content is held to the highest possible standard.
