

UKCPA News

The UKCPA Autumn Symposium will be held from 24th-26th November 2000 in the Hilton Hotel in Blackpool, England. The major elements of the program will be:

Friday 24th November

Bristol-Myers Squibb Lecture: ‘Are the cards stacked for or against Pharmacy in the new NHS?’

Geraint Davies, Locality Director for Hayes & Harlington, Hillingdon Primary Care Trust

Sunday 26th November

1999 Zeneca Pharma Award Lecture: ‘The pharmaceutical care of hypertension in patients in primary care. A study of US experience of service delivery and performance’

Annamarie McGregor, Abbey Chemist, Glasgow, and John McAnaw, University of Strathclyde

During the conference a large number of workshops will be held according to the following scheme:

Target audience	Session 1 Saturday am	Session 2 Saturday pm	Session 3 Sunday am
Theory into Practice All Pharmacists	Pharmaceutical Care: Rheumatology Clinic	Pharmaceutical Care: Heart Failure Clinic	Pharmaceutical Care: Diabetic Clinic
Primary Care Development Senior Pharmacists	Priority Setting in Primary Care	Evolving Pharmaceutical Care Services in Primary Care	National Service Framework Implications for Pharmacy
Standards of Care All Pharmacists	Standards for Practice Secondary Care	Standards for Practice Primary Care	Pharmacist Prescribing- what you can do and how you can do it
Alternative Therapies All Pharmacists	Evidence-based Homeopathy	Evidence-based Herbal Medicine	Evidence-based Aromatherapy
All Pharmacists	Health Promotion	What’s Concordance ?	Problems with written patient information
All Pharmacists	NHS Direct The Pharmacist’s Role	Getting a GRIPP on Practice	Poster Discussion Forum

During the conference there also will be poster sessions and short communications.

Information about this conference can be obtained from:

UKCPA Office Alpha House
Countesthorpe Road
Wigston, Leicestershire LE18 4PJ, UK

Tel: 0116 2776999 Fax: 0116 2776272
e-mail: pkennedy@ukcpa.u-net.com