

Index

- acid reflux, 21–2
- adolescence
 - food consumption choices in, 52–66
 - see also* teenagers
- adult-child relations
 - around food, 6–8
 - changing, 37–8
 - see also* mother-child relations
- advertising, see food advertising
- agency
 - babies', 13, 17, 18, 26–8
 - of immigrant children, 140–1
- anthropology, of food, 3
- babies
 - agency of, 13, 17, 18, 26–8
 - with colic, 21, 22
 - current views of, 14
 - feeding of, 6
 - hunger of, 26–8
 - labeling of, by mothers, 6
 - mothers' constructions of behavior of, 22–3, 26–8
 - overweight, 22–3
 - self-regulation by, 20–1
 - weight gain of, 15
 - see also* infant feeding
- Barbie image, 76–8, 81
- border spaces, 132
- breast-feeding, 15–17, 24–5
- childhood, social construction of, 3, 14
- child identities, 38–9
 - family food and, 42–3, 46–9
 - food consumption choices and, 53–4
 - food practices and, 1–3
 - formation of, 70
 - generational relations and, 4–6
 - social construction of, 75–81
- child obesity, 1, 172–88
 - measuring children and, 182–4
 - media and, 10, 172–4
 - in Norway, 185–8
 - Norwegian welfare state and, 174–6
 - parental responsibility for, 172–3, 180
 - reasons for, 177–9
 - responsibility for, 178–81
 - school meals and, 181–2
 - TV advertising and, 176–7, 184–8
- childrearing practices, social construction of, 13
- children
 - changing images of, 184–5
 - consumer culture and, 114–16
 - as consumers, 71
 - control of, over food choices, 135–6
 - cooking by, 107–9
 - in family hierarchy, 107–9
 - family meals and, 36
 - feeding of, 114–16
 - food advertising and, 193–210
 - food choices of, 71–2
 - as food consumers, 4
 - food negotiations with, 117–24
 - food preferences of, 42–4, 115–16, 158–9
 - immigrant, and food, 130–43
 - leisure activities of, 38
 - lunchbox pictures of, 69–91
 - measuring and weighing of, 182–4
 - participation of, in family life, 97–8
 - perceptions of fathers' role by, 94–110
 - pester power of, 194
 - relational identities of, 37
 - relationship between food and, 1–4
 - in residential care, 149–69

- children – continued
 as social actors, 18, 152
 subjectivities of, 112–27
see also teenagers
- children's food, 6–8, 43, 113
 as cultural construction, 7 generational identities and, 56–8
- colic, 21, 22
- collective meals, 9
- consumer culture, 112–16, 124–5
- cooking
 by children, 107–9
 of family food, 44–6
 by fathers, 94–110
 hybrid, 136–7
 passing on traditional, 137–8
- cross-cultural studies, 3
- cultural contexts
 of food, 6–7
 of infant feeding, 14–17
 of mothering, 14–17
- culture
 consumer, 112–16, 124–5
 food and eating practices and, 3 material, 72
- day-care institutions, food consumption practices in, 9
- diabetes, 15, 16, 19, 28
- dietary restrictions, 42–3
- dinner
 proper, 39–42
see also family meals
- domestic activities
 of children, 107–9
 men and, 95–7
- eating practices
 childhood identities and, 1–3
 culture and, 3
 families and, 35–50
 gendered and generational responsibilities for, 104–7
 habitus and, 54–5
 institutional, 8–10
 relationship building and, 138–9
 social class and, 54–5
 study of, 3–4
see also food consumption
- economy of gratitude, 102–3
- Education Act, 72
- enjoyment, vs. health concerns, 195–210
- families
 breakdown of, 35
 changing nature of, 94–7
 concept of, 36–7
 'doing family', 37, 49, 95
 food practices of, 35–50
 gender roles within, 95–7
 immigrant, 130–43
 middle-class, 55–6
 social construction of, 37
- family food
 absence of, 46–9
 child identities and, 42–3
 cooking of, 44–6
 fathers' role in, 94–110
 identification and, 46–9
 refusal of, 47
see also family meals
- family hierarchy, 7–8, 107–9
- family life, 37
 children's participation in,
 97–8
 patterns of, 37–8
- family meals, 7, 35
 absence of, 46–9
 child identities and, 42–3
 cooking of, 44–6
 fathers' provisioning of, 98–104
 proper, 39–42
 socialisation and, 138–9
- family membership, through food sharing, 45–6
- family values, food choices and,
 54–5
- fast food, 7, 8
 pizza, 57–8
 teenager consumption of, 52–66
see also junk food
- fathers
 changing nature of, 95–7
 as expert chefs, 103–4
 food provision and, 98–104
 food-related decisions and,
 104–7

- fathers – continued
 role of, 7–8, 94–110
 as supply chef, 101–3
 as useless and unwilling chef, 99–101
- food categorization of, 119–21
 children's, 6–8, 43, 56–8, 113
 commensality of, 138–9
 commercialization of, 117–19, 121–5
 compromises over, 121–4
 culture and, 3
 families and, 35–50
 family, 42–9, 94–110
 fast, 7–8, 52–66
 generational relations and, 4–6
 healthy vs. unhealthy, 71–2, 84–9, 119–21
 identity and, 1–3
 immigrant children and, 130–43
 institutional, 8–10
 junk, 7, 8, 119–21, 135–6, 194
 negotiations over, 112–27
 purchase decisions, 105–7
 relationship between children and,
 1–3, 4
 relationship building and, 154–8
 in residential care settings, 149–69
 socialisation dimension of, 154–5
 study of, 3–4
- food advertising
 health and enjoyment dichotomy
 in, 195–210
 for junk food, 194
 obesity and, 10, 173–7, 184–8
 TV, 10, 112–13, 173–7, 184–8
 in women's magazines, 192–210
- food choices, 84–9
- food consumption
 family values and, 54–5
 identity and, 53–4
 integration through, 143–5 outside of home, 4
 in school setting, 70–3
 social contexts of, 58–62
see also eating practices
- food negotiations, mother-child, 117–24
- food practices
 gendered and generational
 responsibilities for, 104–7
 gendered nature of, 95
 in residential care settings,
 151–69
- food provision, by fathers, 98–104
- food rules, 119–21
- foodscape
 concept of, 131–2
 frontiering, 130–43
- food studies, 3
- frontiering foodscapes, 130–43
- gender roles
 changing nature of, 95–7
 food practices and, 104–7
- generational roles
 children's food and, 56–8 family hierarchy and, 107–9 food, identity and, 4–6
 food practices and, 104–7, 109–10
- Glenryck and Puffin Pilchards, 202–5
- habitus, 54–5
- health concerns, food choices and, 71–2
- healthy food, 84–6, 119–21
 vs. enjoyment, 195–210
 stealth provisioning of, 124–6
- hunger, babies', 26–8
- hybrid cooking, 136–7
- I-ams, 132
- identity
 changing, 2
 definition of, 2
 family food and, 46–9
 food consumption choices and,
 53–4
 food practices and, 1–3
 generational, 4–6, 56–8
 immigrant, 130–43
see also child identities
- identity formation, 5
- immigrant children
 agency of, 140–1
 identity and, 131

- immigrant children – continued integration by, 134–5, 141–5 otherness of, 143–5
 poor diet of, 130–1
- immigrant families, integration and food choices by, 130–43
- individualism, 5
- infant feeding
 breast-feeding, 15–17
 cultural contexts of, 14–17
 on demand, 17, 19–26, 29
 difficulties with, 19–22
 establishing routines for, 23–6 initial demands, 19–23
 mother-child relations and, 18–23, 28–9
 mothers' response to cues, 13
 obesity and, 20–1
 opinions on, 15–16
 overfeeding and, 15
 regional variations in, 16–17
 social construction of, 13
 solid food introduction, 16, 30n4
see also babies
- infants, see babies
- institutional food, 8–10
 in day-care institutions, 9
 in residential care settings, 149–69
- intergenerational relations, food,
 identity and, 4–6
- junk food, 7, 8
 advertisements for, 194
 balancing, 119–21
 children's desire for, 135–6
- lunchboxes
 brand images and, 75–81
 scrutiny of food within, 73
- lunchbox pictures, 4, 69–91
 children's approach to, 74–5 social identity work and, 75–81 specific food items in, 81–9
- marketing
 children's exposure to, 1, 112–13
 of food, 117–19, 121–2
see also food advertising
- masculinity, 96
- material culture, 72
- McDonald's, 142–3
- meals collective, 9
 in day-care institutions, 9
 family, 35, 39–49, 98–104, 138–9
 in institutional context, 9–10
 of new mothers, 28
 relationship building and, 138–9
 in residential care settings, 154–8
 school, 70–3, 181–2
- media
 brand characters and, 118
 child obesity and, 10, 172–4
 children's exposure to,
 4, 194
see also food advertising
- men
 domestic role of, 95–7
 family meals and, 35
see also fathers
- middle-class families, 55–6
- middle-class teenagers, food consumption by, 8, 52–66
- modernity, 142–3, 144
- mother-child relations, 15
 food negotiations and, 112–27
 infant feeding and, 18–23, 28–9
- motherhood
 demands of new, 27
 social construction of, 14
- mothering
 baby-centred, 17
 cultural contexts of, 14–17
- mothers, 7–8
 anxieties of new, 21–3 choices of, 14
 construction of infant behavior
 by, 22–3, 26–8
 cooking of family meals by, 44–6 with diabetes, 16, 19, 28
 expectations of, 14–15, 22
 on fathers cooking ability, 100–1, 103–4
 food negotiations and, 117–24

- mothers – continued
 food-related decisions and, 105–7
 food responsibility of, 114–16
 immigrant, 130–43
 media battles by, 112–13, 117–18
 nutritional concerns of, 117 passing on of traditional foods by, 137–8 response of, to infant feeding cues, 13
 role of, 7–8
- newborns
 feeding of, 6
 labeling of, by mothers, 6
see also babies
- new man, 96
- Norway
 child obesity in, 185–8
 children's identities in, 184–5 school meals in, 181–2 welfare state, 174–6
- nursing homes, 150
- nutritional concerns, 117
- obesity, 15
 ethnicity and, 130
 infant feeding and, 20–1
 rise in, 35
 in United States, 185–8
see also child obesity
- on-demand infant feeding, 17, 19–26, 29
- packed lunches, 70–1, 73
- parental responsibility, for child obesity, 172–3, 180
- parent-child relations
 changing, 37–8
see also mother-child relations
- parenting, 38
- parents
 relational identities of, 37
see also fathers; mothers
- peers
 fitting in with, 58–62
 influence of, 1
- pester power, 194
- pizza, 57–8
- Playboy icon, 78–81
- power relations, adult-child, 6
- prisons, 150
- protectionist discourses, 10
- proto-conversation, 18
- refugee families, 133–43
- relationship building, food and, 154–8
- residential care settings
 children in, 149–69
 entering, 158–60
 exploring and testing relationships in, 160–4
 food practices and, 151–69
 power relations in, 152–3
 relationship building in, 154–8 research on, 151–2
 sustaining relationships in, 164–8
- school, influence of, in
 food choices, 137
- school meals, 1, 70–3
 child obesity and, 181–2
- semantic provisioning, 115
- shopping
 fathers and, 105–7
 immigrant children and, 143
- smooth spaces, 132–3, 141–2
- social class
 food choices and, 54–5
 lifestyle practices and, 61
- social contexts, of food consumption, 58–62
- social identification, 2, 75–81
- socialisation, 138–9
- social spaces, 132–3, 141–2
- sociology, of food, 3
- soft drinks, 130–1
- solid food introduction, 16, 30n4
- St. Ivel Cheese, 205–8
- striated spaces, 132, 141–2
- Sweden, immigrant families in, 130–43
- Swedish food, 136–7, 139–41
- sweets, 130–1, 136, 195

- sympathy, 115
- synchronisation of tastes, 138–9
- tastes, synchronisation of, 138–9
- teenagers
 - as consumers, 58–9
 - food consumption by
 - middle-class, 8, 52–66
 - opinions of, on fast food, 62–4
 - peer influences on, 59–62
 - working-class, 60–2
- TV advertising
 - ban on, 174
 - child obesity and, 10, 173–4, 176–7, 184–8
 - children's exposure to,
 - 112–13
 - in Norway, 175–6
 - United States, obesity in, 185–8
- vomiting, 21–2
- women
 - family meals and, 35, 39–42
 - in labour force, 95
 - as mothers, 14
- women's magazines, food advertising
 - in, 10, 192–210
- working-class teenagers, 60–2