

Index

- age, risk tolerance and, 171, 172, 175
- agency conflicts, 50, 72
- American International Group (AIG), 3, 94
- appropriateness requirements, 5–6, 218, 222–6
- assessment tools, 5–6
 - see also* questionnaires
- Association of Payments Clearing Systems (APACS), 40
- asymmetric information, 34, 35, 50
- attributional style, 200–1
- Authority for the Financial Markets (AFM), 251
- automatic stabilizers, 39

- balance sheet indicators, 99–106
- bank bailouts, 44–5
- Banker Trust, 25
- Bank for International Settlements (BIS), 20
- Banking Act (1866), 2
- Banking Codes, 40
- banking crisis
 - see also* global financial crisis
 - regulatory changes and, 9
- Bank of America, 24
- Bank of England, 138
- bank risk, 3, 94–106
- bank runs, 34, 44
- banks
 - boards of directors of, 49–70
 - corporate governance of, 2, 33–48
 - cross-border strategies of, 8–27
 - global strategies of, 13–27
 - regulation of, 39–41
 - sources of risks for, 37–9
- Basel I, 20, 36
- Basel II, 36
- Basel III, 35, 45
- behavioural portfolio theory, 158
- behavioural school of
 - internationalization, 11–12
 - biased risk tolerance (BR), 159–60, 163, 167–73
- blockholders, 51
- board of directors
 - CEO as chairman of, 49, 53, 58, 62, 69
 - composition of, and compensation, 2, 49–70
 - independence of, 53
- bonds, Co-Co, 34–5, 45
- British banks
 - board composition and compensation, 59–68
 - governance of, 2, 33–48
- British pound, 291
- brokers, 242n11
- buy-side traders, 259

- capital requirements, 35, 36, 38, 45
- cash equity markets, 272
- Cassa di Compensazione e Garanzia (CC&G), 257, 258, 262–3, 271
- CDS spreads, 94–106
- central banks, 39, 122, 283
- Central Counterparty Austria (CCPA), 256
- central counterparties (CCPs), 6, 246–55
 - business and main strategies of, 255–64
 - cash equity markets and, 272
 - interoperability of, 252–5, 273
 - new-entrant, 272–3
 - risk management of, 259–60
 - vertically integrated, 261–3
- central counterparty clearing, 246
- chairman of the board
 - CEO as, 49, 53, 58, 62, 69
 - compensation of, 2–3, 55–8, 64–6, 69–70
 - experience level of, 54–5, 58–62, 68–9

- chief executive officer (CEO)
 - as chairman of board, 49, 53, 58, 62, 69
 - compensation of, 2–3, 49–70, 72–92
 - experience level of, 54–5, 58–62, 68–9
- China
 - dollar trap and, 283–5
 - economy of, 295–7
 - emergence of, 8
 - excess savings in, 282–3
 - exchange rate policy of, 6–7, 275–98
 - financial system reforms in, 292–3
 - growth model of, 281–3
 - macroeconomic indicators, 278
 - monetary policies in, 293–5
- Chinese Walls, 47
- Chinese Yuan (CNY), 298n1
- Citicorp, 25
- civil law countries, 50–1
- clearing fees, 259, 264–8
- clearing houses, 246–73
 - business and main strategies of, 255–64
 - characteristics of, 258
 - economy of, 264–8
 - interoperability issue and, 252–5
 - main dimensions of, 270
 - post-trading by, 6
 - regulatory and operational changes affecting, 247–52, 255, 259–4
 - sectoral changes, 268–72
 - tasks performed by, 246
- client information, 5–6
- clients, risk tolerance assessment of, 6
- Code of Conduct for Clearing and Settlement, 249, 250, 252, 260, 264, 267
- Code of Conduct Fundamentals for Credit Rating Agencies, 137, 153
- collateralized debt obligations (CDOs), 35, 36–7, 137
- Combined Code, 42, 44
- commercial banking, 25, 232
 - barriers to internationalization in, 10–11
 - CEO compensation in, 2, 51–70
 - in China, 293, 295
 - regulatory push in, 10–11
 - in UK, 40
- common law countries, 50–1
- communication infrastructures, 8–9
- compensation, 2–3
 - board composition and, 49–70
 - of CEO, 62–8
 - direct, 55–7, 62–5, 67–70
 - equity-linked payments, 62–3
 - executive, during financial crisis, 72–92
 - firms' performance and, 82
 - industry characteristics and, 75
 - pay-for-performance, 62–3
 - variable, 75, 77, 81, 89–91
- competition, in banking sector, 39
- competitive advantage,
 - internationalization and, 9
- conduits, 35–6
- consilience, 167
- consumer credit, 5, 194–214
 - attitudes toward, 198–200, 203–8
 - forms of, 208–9
 - household economic condition and, 206–7
 - interpersonal factors in, 197–8
 - locus of control and, 200–1
 - motivations for using, 207–8
 - personality factors and, 205–6, 212
 - psycho-behavioural factors, 197
 - psychological drivers of, 195–201, 203–13
 - research on, 201–13
- consumer debt, 196, 199–2001
 - see also* household debt
- Contingent Convertible (Co-Co) bonds, 34–5, 45
- continental leaders, 15–17, 22, 23
- contingency theory, 13
- corporate culture, 11
- corporate governance, 2
 - boards of directors and, 49–70
 - of British banks, 33–48
 - compensation and, 49–51, 72–92
- corporate ratings, 136, 140–1
- counterfactual thinking, 161–2, 184
- country-centered players, 16, 17, 21, 22
- covered bonds, 38
- credit default swaps (CDSs), 3, 36, 94–106, 138, 252

- credit rating agencies (CRAs), 3–4, 36, 37, 109–14, 129–30
 - comparison of, 134–54
 - global financial crisis and, 137–9
 - lead-lag analysis, 136, 149–53
 - regulations on, 137–8
 - role of, 134
 - sovereign ratings and, 134–54
- credit rating announcements, 96
- credit ratings
 - changes in, 116–21, 123–30, 134
 - demand for, 109–10
 - distribution of, 116–19
 - factors in, 109, 122–3
 - literature on, 111–13
 - quality of, as indicators, 109–31
 - role of, 3–4
 - table of frequencies of, 114
- credit risk, 37–8, 95–6
- Credit Watch status, 4
- cross-border banking, 1, 8–27, 10–13
- cross-border integration, 14
- cross-border strategies, 24
- Cruickshank Report, 40
- customer profiling, 217–43
 - in financial literature, 219–21
 - in regulatory framework, 222–6
 - socio-demographic variables and, 219–21
- customer relationship management (CRM), 217
- customer segmentation, 217, 219
- debt
 - see also* household debt
 - attitudes toward, 195, 196
 - nature of, 196
- decision making
 - emotions and, 158–9
 - real-life, and risk tolerance indicators, 179–84
 - research on, 161–2
 - under uncertainty, 163, 168
- deposit insurance, 34, 35
- depositors, 50
- Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC), 247
- deregulation, 8, 12
- derivatives, 38–9, 272, 273
- derivatives markets, 6
- descriptive analysis, of
 - questionnaires, 226–33
- Deutsche Bank, 25
- direct compensation, 55–7, 67–70
- diversification, 12
- dollar trap, 275–6, 283–5
- Dutch banks, board composition and compensation, 58–62, 64–8
- Dutch Central Bank (DNB), 251
- Dutch dyke problem, 47
- economic rationality, 197
- economic theory of
 - internationalization, 12–13
- education, risk tolerance and, 173
- Egan-Jones, 136
- emerging market opportunities, 24
- emotions
 - consumer credit and, 199
 - decision making and, 184
 - risk-taking behaviour and, 166–7
 - risk tolerance and, 158–9
- empirical analysis, of questionnaires, 233–7
- empirical psychology, 195
- equity-linked payments, 55, 62–3
- Eurex Clearing AG, 257, 258, 261–2, 269
- euro, 285, 291
- EuroCCP, 248, 263–4, 266, 267
- Euronext, 256–7
- European Association of University Teachers of Banking and Finance Conference, 1
- European capital markets, 6
- European Central Counterparty Limited (EuroCCP), 257, 258
- European clearing houses, 246–73
 - business and main strategies of, 255–64
 - characteristics of, 258
 - economy of, 264–8
 - interoperability issue and, 252–5
 - main dimensions of, 270
 - regulatory and operational changes affecting, 247–52, 255, 259–4
 - sectoral changes, 268–72
- European Code of Conduct for Clearing and Settlement, 250

- European Commission (EC), 251–2, 255, 260
- European Commodity Clearing (ECC), 261
- European Energy Exchange (EEX), 261
- European Multilateral Clearing Facility (EMCF), 248, 257, 258, 263, 267, 271, 273
- European sovereign debt crisis, 138–9
- exchange rate policy, of China, 6–7, 275–98
- executive compensation, 2–3, 49–70
 corporate governance and, 79–84 during financial crisis, 72–92
 by industry, 78–9
- expected utility theory, 157
- external locus of control, 201, 205, 210
- extraction theory, 73
- Federal Reporting Council (FRC), 42, 43, 44
- FinaMetrica Risk Profiling System, 165
- financial drivers, of consumer credit, 195–201
- financial experience, risk tolerance and, 174
- financial innovation, 11, 12, 39
- financial intermediaries, MiFID questionnaires used by, 218–43
- financial knowledge, 173, 220
- financial markets, regulatory changes affecting, 9
- financial risk tolerance, 4–5, 157
see also risk tolerance
- financial sector
 executive compensation in, 72–92
 regulation of, 50–1
- financial services, deregulation in, 12
- Financial Services Authority (FSA), 40–1, 251
- financial sophistication, 220–1
- FINRA Rule 2111, 222, 224, 225
- firm concentration, 122–3
- fixed exchange rates, 291
- foreign direct investment (FDI), 283
- French banks, board composition and compensation, 55, 58, 59–62, 64–9
- gender, risk tolerance and, 171, 175
- geographic niche players, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23
- geographic scope, 13
- global economy, 1
- global financial crisis, 34–7, 94, 135, 276
 credit default swaps and, 94–106 credit rating agencies and, 137–9 executive compensation and, 72–92
 sovereign ratings and, 137–9
- globalization, 21, 279
- global luxury niche players, 15, 17, 22, 24
- global shapers, 15, 17, 21, 22, 25
- global strategies, of banks, 13–27
- Gramm Leach Bliley Act, 70
- Greece, 138, 285
- gut feelings, 160
- hedge funds, 35
- Herfindahl Index (HHI), 122
- heuristics, 162
- Hong Kong Bank, 25
- Hong Kong Dollar, 298n1
- household debt, 5
 attitudes toward, 195, 196, 198–200 increase in, 194, 195. see also
 consumer credit
 nature of, 196
 socio-economic variables, 194–5
- HSBC, 25
- human behaviour, predicting, 165–6
- impossible trinity principle, 281
- incentive-compatible remuneration package, 34
- India, emergence of, 8
- information asymmetry, 34, 35, 50
- information technology, 8–9
- ING Group, 24
- institutional investors, executive compensation and, 83–4
- institutional theory, 13
- internal locus of control, 201, 205
- international banking, 1, 8–27
- international challengers, 15–16, 21, 23

- internationalization
 - barriers to, 10–11
 - behavioural school of, 11–12
 - diversification and, 12
 - economic theory of, 12–13
 - as evolutionary process, 11–12
 - literature on, 10–13
 - process of, 9
 - profit motive and, 12
 - research model for, 13–18
 - RMB, 275–6, 285–92, 297
 - strategies for, 13–27
 - study findings on, 20–5
 - study methodology, 18–20
- International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO), 137
- International Securities Exchange (ISE), 262
- interoperability, of CCPs, 252–5, 273
- interpersonal factors, consumer credit and, 197–8
- Investment Advisors Act (IAA), 242n12
- investment banking, 41
- investors, profiling, 218–43
- Investor Shareholders Committee, 43
- Iowa Gambling Task (IGT), 160–1, 167–8
- Irish Stock Exchange (ISE), 261
- Italian banks
 - board composition and compensation, 58, 64–8
 - executive compensation in, 72–92
- Italy
 - executive compensation in, 3
 - household debt in, 194
- JP Morgan Chase, 24
- latent heterogeneity, 160
- Latin American debt crisis, 36
- LCH.Clearnet, 251, 255–8, 260, 263, 266–7, 269, 271–2
- lead-lag relationships, 136, 149–53
- legal differences, 50–1
- Lehman Brothers, 3, 35–7, 52, 94
- liquidity, 122
- liquidity ratio, 35, 38, 39, 45
- liquidity risk, 38
- liquid reserves, 35
- Lloyds TSB, 23
- loan to income ratios, 37
- locus of control, 195, 200–1, 204–6, 209, 210
- London Clearing House (LCH), 256–7
- London Stock Exchange (LSE), 250–1, 255
- long-term foreign-currency (LT FC) ratings, 142
- long-termism, 46
- macro-prudential supervision, 39–41, 46
- management quality, 122
- margin deposits, 39
- margin requirements, 38
- marital status, risk tolerance and, 171
- Market in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID), 217, 247–8, 268
- Market in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) questionnaires, 217–43
 - descriptive analysis of, 218, 226–33
 - empirical analysis of, 218–19, 233–7
- market pull, internationalization and, 11
- market seeker strategies, 11
- MBNA, 24
- micro-prudential supervision, 39–40, 41, 46
- Monetary Policy Committee (MPC), 45
- Moody's Investors Service, 4, 134–54
- moral hazard, 2, 34, 44–5
- mortgage-backed securities, 35, 36
- multilateral trading facilities (MTFs), 247, 248, 253
- narrow banking, 41
- NASD Rule 2310, 222, 224, 225, 242n10
- non-executive directors (NEDS), 42, 43, 50, 52–3, 55, 58, 68
- novation of contract, 6, 246
- observation, 162
- opportunistic challengers, 16, 17, 22, 23, 26–7

- optimal contracting theory, 83–4
- Options Clearing Corporation (OCC), 262
- Oslo Clearing AS, 256
- over the counter (OTC) derivatives, 38–9, 260–1, 273
- ownership concentration, 51, 81
- personal attitudes, toward consumer credit, 198–200, 203–8
- personal/professional judgment, 162
- population ecology, 13
- post-trading industry, 6, 246–73
- principal-agent problem, 34
- profitability, 122
- profit motive, internationalization and, 12
- proprietary trading, 38
- ProQuest-FinaMetrical Personal Financial Profiling system, 162
- prospect theory, 157–8
- protectionism, 296
- psychic distance, 11–12
- psychological drivers, of consumer credit, 195–201, 203–13
- psychometrically designed scales, 162
- quality of management, 122
- quantitative easing policy, 7, 275, 283–4
- quasi-global players, 14, 17, 21, 22, 25
- questionnaires, 162–3, 217–43
 - client, 5–6
 - descriptive analysis of, 226–33
 - empirical analysis of, 233–7
- rating announcements, 96
- rating outlooks, 4, 134–54
- ratings, see credit ratings
- ratings agencies, see credit rating agencies (CRAs)
- real-life risk (RLR), 160, 179–84
- Recognized Clearing House (RCH), 256
- reduced form models, 95–6
- regulatory policies
 - for banks, 39–46
 - for clearing houses, 247–52, 255
 - for credit rating agencies, 137–8
 - cross-border banking and, 8–10
 - failure of, 36
 - legal differences in, 50–1
 - over-tightening of, 46
 - regulatory push, 10
- remuneration packages, 34, 46, 72–92
see also compensation
- Renminbi (RMB)
 - de-pegging of, 280–1, 297
 - exchange rate of, 277–81, 292–5
 - as international currency, 285–92
 - internationalization of, 7, 275–6, 297
 - US dollar and, 277–81, 283–5
- reserve currencies, 7, 275, 276, 285–8
- retail banking, 41, 47
- retail deposits, 38
- risk
 - credit, 37–8
 - liquidity, 38
 - sources of banking, 37–9
 - sovereign, 135
 - underpricing of, 37
- risk-as-feelings hypothesis, 158, 160, 186
- risk attitude, 157, 221
- risk-averse individuals, 157
- risk capacity, 157, 221
- risk perception, 157–9
- risk-taking behaviour, 4–5, 157–9
 - measurement of, 166–7
 - predicting, 165–6
 - socio-demographic factors in, 163–5
- risk tolerance, 157–90
 - biased, 159–60, 163, 167, 168–73
 - defined, 157, 221
 - evaluation of, 162–3
 - indicators, 168–73, 179–84
 - literature on, 161–7
 - measurement of, 162, 166–7
 - real-life financial choices and, 179–84
 - self-assessment of, 159–60
 - socio-demographic variables and, 160–1, 163–6, 173–8
 - theories about, 157–61
 - unbiased, 160, 168–73, 174, 185
- risk tolerance assessment, 6
- Royal Bank of Scotland, 23

- Santander, 23
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 137–8, 222
- Securities Exchange Act (SEA), 242n11
- segment scope, 13
- self-confidence, 171–2
- self-esteem, 171, 185
- self-interest, internationalization and, 11
- shadow banking system, 35–7
- short-termism, 44
- single item questions, 162
- SIX x-clear, 251, 255, 257, 258, 262, 266, 267, 269
- skin conductance responses (SCR), 161, 167, 168
- socio-demographic variables
- customer profiling and, 219–21
 - risk tolerance and, 173–8
- socio-economic variables
- household debt decisions and, 194–5
 - risk tolerance and, 160–1, 163–6, 170–3
- solvency, 122
- somatic marker hypothesis (SMH), 158, 167–8
- somatic reactions, 168
- sovereign debt, 138–9
- sovereign ratings, 4, 134–54
- sovereign risk, 135
- Spanish banks
- board composition and compensation, 55, 58, 59–62, 64–9
 - credit ratings of, 110–31
- special investment vehicles (SIVs), 35
- Standard & Poor's (S&P), 4, 134–54
- standardization, 13, 18
- Stewardship Code, 43–4
- structural models, 96
- subprime crisis, 35, 110, 116, 120, 123
- suitability questionnaires, 226–33
- suitability requirements, 5–6, 218, 222–6
- Survey of Consumer Finances (SCF), 162
- tier-one capital, 20–1, 24, 36
- Tobin tax, 44
- “too big to fail” problem, 2, 35, 44–6, 52, 122
- toxic assets, 36
- trade imbalances, 279
- transnational restructurers, 14–15, 17, 21, 22, 24
- UBS, 25
- UK banking, see British banks
- unbiased risk tolerance (UR), 160, 168–74, 185
- uncertainty, 163, 168
- unconscious sleeping factor, 5, 184, 185, 186
- United States
- banking sector in, 41, 55, 58
 - CEO compensation in, 70
 - monetary policies in, 8
 - protectionist policies by, 296
 - quantitative easing policy, 7, 275, 283–4
 - regulatory policies in, 8
- Uppsala international model, 11
- US banks, board composition and compensation, 55, 58–68, 70
- US clearing system, 247
- US dollar, 275–6
- versus Chinese RMB, 277–81, 283–5
 - as reserve currency, 7, 290, 291
 - weakening of, 284
- utility function theory, 186
- value chain activities, geographic configuration of, 13
- variable compensation, 75, 77, 81, 89–91
- Volcker Rule, 38, 41
- Walker Report, 2, 42–6
- wandering mind, 161–2, 184, 185
- Watchlist, 4, 134–54
- Wolpertinger Conference, 1
- worldwide players, 14
- worldwide technology specialists, 15