

Index

3M UK PLC 32

A

ABB 32, 152–3
accountability and rational model 101–2
Acer UK Ltd 153
analysis, causal 93–4
Anglian Water PLC 27
Asea Brown Boveri (ABB)
32, 152–3
authority 52–3, 57, 58, 59–60, 61
see also hierarchy

B

Barnevik, Percy 152, 153
Boeing Co. 151
Branson, Richard 152
business change
effects of 7–9
resistance to 16–17
significant drivers 5–7, 144 business ethics, concern for 7 business paradigm, new 7–8 business schools, development programmes 149–50

C

capable politicians 86–92
case studies 111–17, 121–6, 129–34
change management 135, 136
conceptual understanding 79–85, 95
establishing worthwhile causes 135–7
interpersonal skills 92–5, 96
key capabilities 95–6
managing upwards 137–8
networking 138–9
personal development 96–7
reading others 94–5, 96
case studies
capable politicians 111–17, 121–6, 129–34
destructive politician 117–21, 124–6
disempowered manager 126–9, 132–4
rational manager 107–11, 115–17
Cash Co. 29
causal analysis 93–4
causes, worthwhile see worthwhile causes

challenge, productive 93–4, 96 change see business change
 change management
 capable politicians 135, 136
 rational model 10–12, 135
Confronting Company Politics 14 constructive politicians see
 capable politicians
 constructive politics see
 organisational politics corporate goals 35–6

D

decision-making 22, 31–2
 democratic ideals 71–3
 democratisation 74–6, 143–4, 148–51
 democratisation process
 employees
 empowerment 144–5, 147
 legislation 146
 rewards 146, 147
 as voluntary members 145 and individual action 151–7 knowledge management 144, 147
 and legitimate politics 146–8, 151–5
 permeable boundaries 145–6
 segment specialisation 145 destructive politician, case study 117–21, 124–6
 development, personal 96–7 development programmes, business schools 149–50
 disempowered manager, case
 study 126–9, 132–4
 drivers of change 5–7, 144

E

education, management 148–51
 embedded power 61–2
 employees
 democratisation process
 empowerment 144–5, 147
 legislation 146
 rewards 146, 147
 as voluntary members 145
 ethics, business 7
 expertise as power 55–6, 58, 59 external networking 139

F

Fayol, Henri 99
 formal authority see authority

G

Geus, Arie de 27
 Ghoshal, Sumantra ix
 globalisation, impact of 6–7 goals, corporate 35–6
 good practice, pockets of 74, 84–5, 95, 136
 government politics and organisational politics 16, 17, 74–6
 Grove, Andy 152

H

Hale, Colin 100
 Handy, Charles 145
 hard rewards 54, 59, 61–2
 hierarchy x, 40, 47
 decision-making 31–2
 dysfunctional impact 32–3
 management 30–4, 52–3, 57, 58, 59–60

hot groups 74, 136
 human resource management, ethos 36–9, 40

I

ideals, democratic 71–3
 in-house management training 149 information as power source 53, 58, 59, 61–2
 innovation, drive for 6
 Intel Corporation (UK) Ltd 152 internal networking 138–9 interpersonal skills 92–5, 96

J

John Lewis Partnership 146
 just causes and self-interest 20, 21

K

knowledge
 of business environment 91–2, 96
 organisational 88–9, 90, 95–6
 of stakeholders 89, 95
 knowledge management,
 democratisation process
 144, 147

L

Law, Andy 154 legitimate politics and democratisation process 146–8, 151–5
 legitimate power see authority Living Company, The 27
 lobbying 18–19, 83–4

M

management
 classification 99–100
 problems 1–4
 management education 148–51
 managerial activity,
 redefinition 21–2
 managerial mindsets 26–8 managerial responsibility 100 motivation and political mindset 103–5
 motivation and rational mindset 101–2, 105
 managers
 case studies see case studies and motives 67–8
 political mindset 76–7, 79
 as politicians see capable politicians
 Microsoft Corp. 148
 Mill, John Stuart 71
 mindsets 25–6
 and conceptual
 understanding 79–80
 managerial 26–8
 political see political mindsets
 rational see rational mindsets Mintzberg, Henry 99
 model, rational see rational model
 motivation
 political mindset 103–5
 rational mindset 101–2, 105
 motives
 balanced 86–7, 95
 balancing selfish/selfless 69 and managers 67–8
 political activity 68–9
 stakeholder 94
 Motorola Ltd 12

N

networking 138–9

O

organisational knowledge 88–9, 90, 95–6

organisational politics 13, 14
as ‘missing link’ 4
centrality of 18–19
and government politics 16, 17, 74–6
definition 18
illegitimate x–xi
inevitability 66–7
key capabilities 95–6
negative interpretation 13–14, 16, 17

organisational power 47–8 concealed 62
episodic basis 64–5
independent of awareness 60–2
limits to application 59–60
personal sources 52, 55–7, 62, 65–6
and politics 80–1, 95 problem of definition 50–2
situational sources 52–5, 61–2, 65
see also power

Oticon Ltd 153

P

Perry, Nick 47

personal agenda see self-interest

personal development 96–7
persuasive presentation 92–3, 96

pockets of good practice 74, 84–5, 95, 136

political activity 67

as constructive 44–7

motives 68–9

negative perceptions 24, 25, 43–4

human resource management ethos

36–9, 40

myth of corporate unity

34–6, 37

power of language 39–41

self-delusion 42–3

political mechanisms 83–4, 95

political mindsets 28–30, 69 increasing significance 142 justifiable means 69–70

managers 76–7, 79

self-interest 103

tension with rational mindset 76–7

politicians see capable politicians

politics

definition 50

and democracy 71–3

organisational see

organisational politics

position power 52–3, 57, 58, 59–60, 6

see also hierarchy

positioning 18–19

power

awareness of 66

embedded 61–2

legitimate see authority principled use of 19–20

referent 55, 58, 59, 60, 62

see also organisational

power

power sources

expertise 55–6, 58, 59

information 53, 58, 59, 61–2

social competence 56, 57, 58, 62
presentation, persuasive 92–3, 96 problems, management 1–4 productive challenge 93–4, 96

R

rational manager, case study 107–11, 115–17
rational mindsets 4, 14, 15, 33–4, 69, 70, 87
and capable politicians 84 circularity of thinking 43–4 influence on managerial thinking 9–10
language use 39–41
limitations 28, 30
self-delusion 42–3
tension with political
mindset 76–7
rational model 10, 99–100
accountability 101–2
change management 10–12, 135 contradictions 24
decision-making 22
dominance of 148
influence of 14–16
limitations 28, 30
management education 151
personal interest 19
relationships 81–2
referent power 55, 58, 59, 60, 62
relationships
capable politicians 81–3, 95, 137–9
rational model 81–2
responsibility, managerial see
managerial responsibility

rewards, employee 146, 147 hard 54, 59, 61–2
soft 56
Richer Sounds PLC 31

S

self-identity 42
self-interest 4, 11, 12–13, 17, 24–5
balancing motives 21
and just causes 20, 21
negative views 14
political mindset 103
view as illegitimate 38
Semco 153–4
Semler, Richard 153–4
Shih, Stan 153
skills, interpersonal 92–5, 96
social competence as power 56, 57, 58, 62
soft rewards 56
St Luke's Communications Ltd 154 stakeholder claims 36
stakeholders 74, 89, 143
knowledge of 89, 95
motives 94
stealth 84, 137
Stone, Beverly 14
success as power 56–7

T

teamworking, difficulties of 37–8
technological advances, impact of 5–6
3M UK PLC 32
top-down control see hierarchy Trimble, David 20
trust 82–3

U

Ulster Unionists 20, 21
unity of purpose 35–6

V

Virgin (group of companies)
32, 152

W

Wal-Mart Stores Inc. 148
Willmott, Hugh 37
worthwhile causes 155–6
 establishing 135–7