

Index

- Allen, D. 17
Areskog, N. H. 64
Atkinson, P. 9
- Banta, D. and Fox, R. 15, 16
Barclay Report (1982) 28
Barnett, R. 10
Barr, H. 7, 27
Barrows, H. S. 68
Barts see St Bartholomew
(London)
Baxter, C. 30
Beattie, A. 10, 18–19
Bernstein, B. 9
Better Services for the Mentally Handicapped (1971) 42
Briggs Report (1972) 42
Brown, T. M. 15
Butler-Sloss Report (1988) 26
- CAIPE see Centre for the Advancement of Interprofessional
Education in Primary Care and Community Care
Calman, K. 29
Caring for People in the Community
(White Paper) (1989) 28
Carpenter, J. 12
Casto, R. M. and Julie, M. C. 101
CCETSW see Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work
Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work (CCETSW) 43, 45, 46, 47, 48, 50, 51, 54
- Centre for the Advancement of Interprofessional Education in Primary Care and Community Care
(CAIPE) 35
Certificate in Social Service
(CSS) 43
Cherasky, M. 35
Child Abuse in Cleveland report (1988) 26
City University (London) 116, 117
Clinical Skills Initiative 146;
advantages/disadvantages 87;
aims 85; and clinical governance 92–5;
discussion/evaluation 91–2;
patient scenario example 88;
programme 86–7;
structure 87–91
clinical/midwifery students joint programme see normal labour
teaching programme
Clyde Report (1992) 4–5
Coit Butler, F. 7
Common Competency
Framework 47, 48–50
computer assisted learning (CAL)
programme 63, 66, 68, 74
Consulting, J. M. 29
Core Competencies see Common Competency Framework
Creating Lifelong Learners 47
Cribb, A. and Bignold, S. 11
- Day, 30
Department of Health
(DOH) 28, 29, 142

- Dienst, E. and Byl, N. 125
- Dingwall, R. and McIntosh, J. 16
- Diploma in Social Care (DipSW) 47
- education, and aims of inter-disciplinarity 10–11;
changes in 2–3;
delivery/evaluation of 12–15;
and employment 8;
and integrated curriculum 9–12; as multi-disciplinary/modular 8–9;
multi-professionalism in 7–15;
professional/higher 7–8, 9
- EMPE see European Network for Development of Multi-professional
Education in Health Sciences
- ENB see English National Board for Nursing, Midwifery and Health Visiting
- English National Board for Nursing, Midwifery and Health Visiting (ENB)
45, 47, 48
- ethics, shared teaching in,
aims/learning outcomes 102–3; arguments for 98;
background 97–8;
classroom availability 107;
collaboration meeting points 106–7; educational strategy 104; evaluation 110;
facilitator availability 107–8;
ideal of 98–101;
intermediate level 102–3,
114–15; junior level 102, 112–14; learning/teaching tools 105–6; management
of student numbers 103;
pilot study 100–1;
progress to date 110;
reality challenges 106–9;
sample case studies/statements 105; seminar format 99;
senior level 103, 115;
staff development 109;
student knowledge base 108–9;
students' evaluation of
sessions 112–15;
and teamwork 99–100
- European Network for Development of Multi-professional
Education in Health
Sciences (EMPE) 35
- Exeter University 34
- facilitators, and burn-out 133;
nurse-facilitators 121–2;
and PBL/reflection
distinction 124;
positive attitude of 132;
profession-specific 121;
value of 124
- Fife College of Health Studies 62
- Frederick, C. 33
- Freeth, D. 146;
and Nicol, M. 13
- Friedson, E. 13
- General Nursing Council 43
- Harden, R. M. 13, 33
- Harvey, L. et al 8
- Hawthorne effect 133
- Headrick, L. et al 16
- 'Health for All by the Year 2000' initiative 2
- health policies, and clinical conflict 5–6; and curbing of freedom/autonomy of clinicians 6; and integration of health/social services 3, 5;

- health policies – continued
 partnership aspect 6–7;
 three-tier strategy 3
- health practice, biographical model 18; biotechnical model 18; communitarian model 18; ecological model 18; relationships
 in 16–19;
 teams/teamworking 15–16
- Hearn, J. 30
- holistic approach 40, 44
- Holm, S. 100, 105
- Horder, J. 27, 76
- hospital closures 42, 43, 44
- Howard, J. and Byl, N. 12
- Hurst, K. 8, 19
- integrated, care 3, 5, 6, 41,
 46, 141–3; curriculum 9
- inter-professional,
 collaboration 12;
 initiatives 35; integration 2;
 practitioner/user effects 31–2;
 relationships 31–2, 102–3
- inter-professional education 15, 26–7, 84; benefits of 139; defined 86; evidence-based agenda 145–6;
 as haphazard/localised activity 139–40;
 initiatives 139; and innovation 143–5; and
 integrated care 141–3;
 multiple stakeholder perspectives 140–1
- inter-professional training
 ward, background 116;
 described 117–18;
 discussion of findings 119–33;
 evaluation of 118–19;
 facilitation 121–2; future development 134–6;
- Hawthorne effect 133; impact on service delivery 131–3; learning/teaching aspects 121–5;
 off-ward learning 123–4;
 problem-based approach 126–7; real life experience 120–1; strengths of pilot scheme 133–4; student learning objectives 124–5;
 student support 122–3;
 team duties 127–9;
 thematic presentation 119–20;
 training ward patients 129–31;
 two-week placement 125
- ‘Investment and Reform for NHS Staff’ (2001) 142
- Jacques, D. 125
- Jay Report* (1979) 42–3
- Johnston, K. 9
- joint evaluation team (JET) 145
- joint training 41–2; application of lessons learned 58–9;
 assessment of programme
 50–1; based on partnership
 50–1; challenges encountered 51–3; common foundation programme (CFP) 45–6, 56;
 competency-based approach 40; evaluation of South Bank programme 55–8; framework of common competencies 47; historical context 42–3; and inter-professional competence 48–50; lessons learned from previous programmes 54–5;
 local demand for 43–4;
 programme evaluation 53–4;
 programmes for 41; rationale for 44–5; structure of programme 45–6; value of integrated/holistic approach 40–1

- King's Fund partnership Trust 101
- knowledge/skills 144, 145; generic/profession-specific 29; sharing of 88–9; wider/varied 58
- labour, midwifery/clinical students programme see normal labour teaching programme
- learning disabilities, joint training for see joint training
- learning disability nurse, qualifications xiv, 43
- Leathard, A. 1, 2
- Leiba, T. 30
- London NHS Trust 117
- London University 116
- Loxley, A. 5, 13, 139
- McGrath, J. 125
- Mackay, L. 16; et al 6, 98
- McKiel, R. E. et al 98, 101
- Marylebone Centre trust 34
- Mason, E. J. and Parascondola, J. 12
- Mazur, H. et al 12
- medical model 54
- Melia, K. 9
- mental disability 30; training for see joint training
- midwifery/clinical students joint programme see normal labour teaching programme
- Miller, C. 140; et al 15, 141
- Millerson, G. 8
- Modernising Social Services* (1998) 41
- Montefiore Hospital (USA) 35
- Moray Institute (Edinburgh) 12
- Morris, P. 42
- multi-professional education, assumptions 29–32; benefits of 36, 61; curriculum co-ordination 63–4, 85; and employment 7–12; and the future 34–6; in health care 12–15; initiatives 34–6; introduction of 61–2; need for 25–6; opportunities for 28–9; and pre-registration courses 27; provision of 36; research/practice tension 27; and seamless service 28, 139; terminology 26–8; theories 32–4
- multi-professionalism, defined 1–2, 20; in education 7–15; introduction of 19; in policy 2–7, 139; in practice 15–19
- National Health Service Executive 28
- National Health Service (NHS) 41, 44, 142, 143
- The New NHS Modern, Dependable* (1997) 6, 29, 41
- normal labour teaching programme, and attitude questionnaire 71–3, 82–3; background 61–4; and clinical skills 68–9; coincidence of timetables 63–4; creation of CAL package 63; delivery of 67–9; evaluation process 70–1; evaluation results 71–4; expansion of 76; implementation 64–71; implications for the future 76; initiative for 64–5, 76–7; and integrated boards 69; keys to success of 75;

- normal labour teaching – continued and knowledge questionnaire 71;
 limitations of 74–5;
 midwifery/obstetrics relationship 63; planning of 67; and problem-based learning 68; sample integrated teaching boards 78–81;
 teaching/learning
 methods 65–6
- obstetricians see normal labour
 teaching programme
- occupational therapy (OT)
 students 118, 135
- Ohio Interprofessional Commission 35–6
- Ovretveit, P. et al 1, 31
- Parsell, G. and Bligh, J. 27, 76;
et al 13
- partnerships 7, 41; assessment panel 50–1; authorities/agencies 28; management committee 50;
 as productive 141
- patients 14; and clinical skills initiative 88;
 and inter-professional training
 ward participation 118, 119, 129–31, 134;
 relationship with professionals 31–2
- Peckham Experiment 35
- Peter, E. and Gallop, R. 99–100
- physical disability 30
- physiotherapy (PT)
 students 118, 135
- Pioneer Health Centre
 (London) 35
- Pirrie, A. et al 26, 27, 32
- ‘Placements in Focus’ (2001) 142–3; social work 143
- Platt, L. J. 98
- practitioner relationships 31–2
- pre-/post-registration 3, 61, 85
- primary care groups 41
- problem-based learning (PBL), in inter-professional teaching 65–6, 67–8, 74;
 in training ward 118, 121, 124, 126–7, 135
- professional/user
 relationship 31–2
- Quality Assurance Agency
 (QCA) 143
- Queen Mary and Westfield
 College (QMW)
 (London) 116, 117
- race/ethnicity issues 30–1
- reflective practice 19
- regulation 29
- Rodgers, J. 98
- role-shadowing 129
- St Bartholomew (Bart’s) 116, 117
- St Bartholomew School of Nursing and Midwifery
 (London) 116, 117
- Schon, D. A. 33
- School of Medicine and Dentistry
see University of Dundee
- School of Nursing and Midwifery see University of Dundee
- sex/gender issues 30
- social model 54
- social services, joint training programme see joint training
- Social Services Directorate 28

- South Bank University 34;
 evaluation of programme 55–8; joint training programme 43, 45–53
- Spencer, M. H. 32
- Svensson, R. 16
- Szasz, G. 12, 33
- Tayside College Nursing and Midwifery 62
- teams, teamwork 29, 35–6, 140, 142; duties 127–9;
 and mental handicap 43;
 participants 118; reflection
 sessions 123–4
- The Royal London School of Medicine and Dentistry 116
- Thomas, M. 121
- Tope, R. 2, 13
- Tower Hamlets Health Care
 Trust 117
- University of Bobigny (Paris Nord) 35
- University of Dundee 61, 62;
 Clinical Skills Initiative
 86–95; normal labour
 teaching programme
 61–77; shared teaching in ethics 97–110
- University of East London 117
- University of Limburg (Maastricht) 35
- University of Linköping (Sweden) 34, 35, 117
- University of Westminster 34–5
- user/professional relationship 31–2
- ward placement
see inter-professional training ward
- West, M. 15, 20
- Wicks, D. 18
- Working for Patients, Education and Training* (1989) 28
- ‘Working Together: teamwork’ (1994) 29
- World Health Organisation
 (WHO) 2–3, 26, 100
- zones of practice 33