References

References

Bell, Peter (1998a) Early Bricks and Brickwork in South Australia. Department for Environment, Heritage and Aboriginal Affairs, City of Adelaide, Adelaide.

Birmingham, Judy (1973a) Recent archaeology of Flinders Island. Australian Natural History 17(10):328–331.

References

References

Chan, Henry, Ann Curthoys and Nora Chiang (eds.) (2001), The Overseas Chinese in Australasia: History, Settlement and Interactions. National Taiwan University and Australian National University, Canberra.

Crook, Penny, Laila Ellmoos, and Tim Murray (2003b) Assessment of Historical and Archaeological Resources of the Paddy’s Market Site, Darling Harbour, Sydney, Volume 1 of the Archaeology of the Modern City Series, Historic Houses Trust of New South Wales, Sydney.

References

Dickens, Charles (1852b) Off to the diggings! Household Words 121:405–410.

References

References

Frederick, Ursula (1999) At the centre of it all: constructing contact through the rock art of Watarrka National Park, central Australia. Archaeology in Oceania 34:132–144.

References

Harrison, Rodney (2002b) Australia’s iron age: Aboriginal post-contact metal artefacts from Old Lamboo Station, Southeast Kimberley, Western Australia. Australasian Historical Archaeology 20:67–76.
Harrison, Rodney (2002c) Nowadays with glass: regional variation in Aboriginal bottle glass artefacts from Western Australia. Archaeology in Oceania 35:34–47.

Hirst, John (1975) Distance in Australia—was it a tyrant? Historical Studies 16:435–447.
Howard, John (1973 [1777]) Prisons and Lazarettos. Patterson Smith, Montclair, NJ.
References 381

Jackman, Greg (1995) “No good is to be found in the granite”: aspects of the social maintenance of mining concepts on Blue Tier tin-field, Tasmania. Australasian Historical Archaeology 13: 49–58.

References

Jung, Silvano (2005) Archaeological investigations of the World War Two Catalina flying boat wreck sites in East Arm, Darwin Harbour: an appraisal of results. In: Patricia Bourke, Sally...
References

association with the National Trust of Australia (New South Wales) and the Australian Society for Historical Archaeology, Sydney.

Kostoglou, Parry and Justin McCarthy (1991) Whaling and Sealing Sites in South Australia. Australian Institute for Maritime Archaeology Special Publication No. 6, Fremantle, Western Australia.

References

Lindsay, Patrick (2007) Fromelles, the Story of Australia’s Darkest Day: The Search for our Fallen Heroes of World War One. Hardie Grant Books, Melbourne.

Marsden, Susan (1993) What’s wrong with the twentieth century? Why has it been ignored by archaeologists? Australasian Historical Archaeology 11:142–144.

Morgan, Peter (1991) Glass Bottles from the William Salthouse. Unpublished BA (Honours) dissertation, Archaeology Department, La Trobe University, Melbourne.

Mrozowski, Stephen, Grace Ziesing and Mary Beaudry (1996) Living on the Boott: Historical Archaeology at the Boott Mills Boardinghouses, Lowell, Massachusetts. University of Massachusetts Press, Amherst, MA.

Quirk, Kate (2008b) The Victorians in ‘Paradise’: gentility as social strategy in the archaeology of colonial Australia. Ph.D. dissertation, Department of Anthropology, University of Queensland, Brisbane.

References

Scholes, Paul A. (1979) Bendigo Pottery. Lowden, Kilmore, VIC.

Sluga, Glenda (1988) Bonegilla: A Place of No Hope. Melbourne University History Monograph No. 5, University of Melbourne.

Wace, Nigel and Bessie Lovett (1973) Yankee Maritime Activities and the Early History of Australia. Research School of Pacific Studies Aids to Research Series, No. A/2, Australian National University, Canberra.

Index

Note: The letters ‘f’ and ‘t’ following the locators refer to figures and tables respectively.

A Aboriginal dispossession and survival Aboriginal experiences, 57–67
approaches, 44–49
colonisation model, 48
community archaeology, 48
“consent-based archaeology,” 48
location map of Aboriginal archaeological places, 45f post-contact archaeology, 47
Wybalenna, 45–46
growth of post-contact archaeology, 44 methods, 51–56
Aboriginal/non-Aboriginal places, distinctions between, 52 bartering, 54
cultural exchange, 54 European objects, 53
glass artefacts, 52
metal objects, 53
museum collections of objects, 55
oral histories, 55
petroglyphs, 55
photographs/portraits of Aboriginal people, 56–57
pictographs, 55
processes of creolisation, 55
rock art, 55
native title, 49–51
1998 amendments, 50
doctrine of terra nullius, 49
Miriwung-Gajerrong case, 50
Native Title Act (1993), 49
prehistoric and historical archaeologies, 51
Aboriginal experiences
ancient trajectories, 57–58
exchange networks, 58 Macassans and British, 58 social obligations, 58 spread of exotic diseases, 57 fringe camps, 65–67
Australian Aborigines’ League, 65
lack of material remains, 66
NSW Land Rights Act, 66
recycle/reuse, 67
killing times, 58–60
evidence of Aboriginal occupation, 59
retouched glass, 59
“The Black War,” 59
land exploitation by Europeans, 56 missions, 60–62
access denied to traditional country, 60 botanical survey of plants, 61
Ebenezer Mission near Dimboola, 60 ground penetrating radar and magnetometer surveys, 61 micro-topographic survey, 61
oral history and GIS, 61
Wotjobaluk Native Title Claimant Group, 61 station times, 62–65
European pastoralists/Arabana people, cooperation between, 63 fringe camp, 63 insiders/outiders, 63 metal artefacts, 63
outstation buildings, 62
physical remains, 65
Stolen Generations, 65
1855 Act to Regulate the Execution of Criminals, 343

Adventure Bay, Tasmania, 102, 105–106

Aerated waters, 268, 296, 301

Alice Springs, 118f, 132, 148f, 168, 227f

Allen, Jim, 44, 52, 308–310

Afghan Cameleers, 240–242

Islam, 241

“bush mosques,” 242

concept of qibla, 242

halal (lawful) measures, 242

Muslim settlers, 240–242

Pathans or Baluchis, 240

American Civil War, 145, 304

“Anzac spirit,” 11

Armidale, NSW, 311

Assigned servants, Lake Innes, New South Wales, 31–35, 32f evidence from Home Farm, 33 quarters for household servants, 33

quarters for stable staff, 31–32 ramifications of convict system in New South Wales, 34–35

Australasia, 5

Australasian Historical Archaeology, 4, 14, 120

The Australasian Institute for Maritime Archaeology (AIMA), 15

Australasian Society for Historical Archaeology (ASHA), 12–13, 15

Australian Aborigine’s League, 65

Australian Agricultural Company, 122

Australian and British identity, 244–247

Australian motifs, 247

Britishness, 245

bushman, 246

Federation house, 247

influence on mining technology, 245

regional traditions of material culture, 245

vernacular architecture, 245

Australian and New Zealand Army Corps (ANZAC), 11

The Australian Archaeological Association (AAA), 15

Australian Archaeology, 4

Australian-born offspring, 6

The Australian Journal of Historical Archaeology, 14

Australians at home, 279–325

beverages, 292–296

soft/hard drinks, 296–301

table settings, 301–306

childhood, 319–322

dress and ornament, 312–316

food, 281–292

health and hygiene, 316–319

money, 323–324

tobacco, 307–312

Australia on world stage, 6–12

abolition or anti-slavery movement, 8

Aboriginal people, 7

American Revolution in 1775, 8

“Australian” ballot (secret ballot), 11

British colonisation, 6

discovery of gold/Australian gold rush, 8–9

Dreaming, 7

Dutch empire, 9

first Australians, arrival of, 7

first model prisons, 10

First World War (1914–1918), 11–12

French Revolution, 9

Treaty of Tordesillas of 1494, 9

Western hegemony, 8

wrecking of merchant ship Sydney Cove, 9

B

Ballarat, Victoria, 149, 150f, 159–160, 163, 168, 192, 218–219, 238

Batavia, 9, 70, 73f, 76, 80, 89, 340–341

Bean’s parsonage, 298, 299, 304–305

Bendigo, Victoria, 149, 150f, 152–153, 157, 159, 159f, 161, 238

Berlin Swirl, 305

Birmingham, Judy, 12–13, 44, 123, 213, 225, 251

Beverages, 292–306

alcohol consumption, 302

beer production, 142–143

beer/wine and porter, 300

champagne-style, 301
Index

coffee, 293
   essence mixed with chicory, 293
colonial breweries, 301
rum, 302
soft/hard drinks, 296–301
   spirit consumption, 300
   in New South Wales, 300
table settings, 301–306
tea, 292
   wares from selected sites dating, 293t
“The Black War,” 59
Bone, 30–31, 39, 60, 78, 90, 100, 108, 109f, 110, 126, 130, 167, 169, 228,
   234–235, 259, 266–267, 271, 275,
   279, 281–284, 286–288, 293–295,
   313, 316, 318, 320, 327, 335–336,
   339, 341–344, 358
Bonegilla, Victoria, 247
Botany Bay, 4, 8–9

Bottles
   alcohol bottles, 297, 299, 299f
   beer and wine bottles, 77, 285, 297
   black glass bottles, 237, 276, 301
champagne bottles, 301
Chinese export porcelain washing water bottle, 79f
Codd bottle, 297, 320
cylindrical glass bottles, 81, 291
dark green bottle glass, 77
Epsom salts bottles, 317
food bottles, 290
ginger beer bottles, 81, 215, 297 gin and whiskey bottles, 182
globular bottles, 318
ink bottles, 167
medicine bottles, 280
pale green bottles, 109
pickle bottles, 292
pressure-flake bottle glass, 53
salad oil bottles, 292
sealed condiment bottles, 292
stoneware bottles, 141, 301
Bowen, Alister, 110, 111f, 141, 229, 231, 235, 237
Boer War, 11, 117
Braidwood, NSW, 150f, 171f, 171, 226
Bricks, 203–209
   blasting/excavating/loading of clay, 206 Brickfields or Brickfield Hill, 203
   brickmakers
   convict, 203
   working conditions of, 209
   brick-making sites, 206–207 clamp kilns, 205 “continuous” kiln, 207 dry press method, 207
excavations
   clay, 203
   710–722 George Street, 204
   Wentworth Street, 204 firing, soft bricks for, 205
First Government House (Bloodsworth), 204 Hoffman kiln, 208
moulding brick, 204–205
Parramatta and Sydney, 204
extruding machine, 207–209 scotch (or updraft) kiln, 206
steam engines, 206
steam-powered machinery, 206
pug mills, 204
“sandstock” brick, 205
with thumbprints and broad arrow mark, 205f Britain, 6, 8–11, 21, 34, 40, 71–72, 76, 79–81, 100, 114, 120, 125, 128, 140, 144,
   146, 186, 189–190, 192–193, 210,
   214, 215, 223, 228, 244, 245–246,
   260, 269, 292, 297, 307, 327,
   329–330, 332, 337, 351, 357
British East India Company, 21
“British Transvaal War”, 136
Bulletin of the Australasian Institute for Maritime Archaeology, 4
Burials, 61, 331–334, 337, 339–346
Burra Charter, 13, 175
Bush as cultural landscape, 119–120
Buttons, 15, 39, 53–54, 111–112, 137, 187, 265, 277, 279–280, 312–315, 339,
   341, 356

C Cadman’s Cottage, Sydney, 309
Canberra, 5f, 12, 92, 118f, 119, 171, 355
Cargoes, 77–81
   Chinese export porcelain washing water bottle, 79f
Clonmel, 77, 81
Eglinton, 77, 80–81
hand-painted Chinese export porcelain, 79 leather footwear, Indian, 78–79 public rations, 77
salvage attempts, 77
Index

Cargoes (cont.)

Sydney Cove, 77
porcelain from, 80
quantity of alcohol on, 77 whole and fragmented animal bones, 78

Casella, Eleanor, 25, 37, 188

Casey, Mary, 4, 12–14, 27, 29, 186, 188, 204,
212, 253, 260–261, 269, 271, 273,
275–277, 281, 284, 291, 313, 315, 332

“Cash,” 324

Casselden Place, Melbourne (Little Lon), 252, 258, 261–262, 264, 267, 277,
280, 282, 286, 292, 315–316, 318,
320, 324

Castlemaine, Victoria, 141, 149–150, 153, 155, 156f, 157–158, 159f, 227f, 232,
235, 245

Cemeteries, 61, 173, 237, 238–239, 242–244, 327–328, 330, 332, 334–340,
344–348

Ceramics, 13, 15, 33, 64, 71, 80–81, 83, 90, 100, 110, 114, 125, 166–167,
172, 187–188, 214, 234–236, 238,
257, 265, 270–272, 274, 276,
279, 290–294, 301–304, 308, 311, 318–319, 344, 358

See also Tablewares, Teawares

Cheyne Beach, WA, 109, 283, 309

Chicory kiln on Phillip Island, 145f

Childhood, 319–322
children at Paradise, 320–321
dolls and toy soldiers, 320 goods and game pieces, 319 schooling, 319
slate pencils and writing slates, 321 teaspoons and tablewares recovered from Moran’s Farm, 322f toys/games and educational equipment, 319

Chinaman’s Point, Victoria, 110, 231

Chinese burials, 238, 344–346
central place/temples, 346
Chinese burner at Maldon Cemetery, 345f gate-markers, 344 principles of feng shui, 173, 237, 239–240, 346
traditional burial, three-stage process, 344

Chinese in Australia
Chinese burial practices, 238, 344–346 discovery of gold, 226 domestic cooking and religious celebration, 239
European antagonism, 228

feng shui principles, 173, 237, 239–240, 345
food, 234–236
alcohol and rice wine consumption, 234
Cooktown’s commercial activity, 235–236
fish consumption, 235 items of cookware, 235 meat, 234 range of Chinese goods, 236 global capitalism and colonialism, 229 health and recreation, 236–237
coins and gambling, 237
opium smoking, herbal medications
for, 237

Immigration Restriction Act of 1901, 228
labour organisation and settlement patterns, 229–233
Chinaman’s Point, 232
Chinese and British ceramics, 233 Chinese landlords and tenants, 232 credit-ticket system, 230
guanxi system, 231
mining or mining-related cultural heritage management projects, 229

“pig ovens,” 239
religious beliefs, 237–240 surviving temples and temple sites, 238
study of acculturation/adaptation/change, 229

Cities, archaeology of changing neighbourhoods, 260–261
gardening and agriculture-related activities, 260
First Government House, 260 creating ground surfaces: filling and levelling, 253–255
Casselden Place in Melbourne, 255f fill deposits, 254
dealing with waste, plumbing and rubbish disposal, 255–256
artefacts from pits, 258
Brisbane municipal dump, 260 changing perceptions of public space, 259–260
glass bottle recycling, 259 “night-soil,” 256
privies and cesspits, 255–258 rubbish collections by councils, 258 stone-lined cesspit, 256f taphonomic processes, 258
tips in Melbourne, 259
wells and cisterns, 254–255
yards, 258
City life, archaeological insights on, 261–263 documentary research, 262 “ethnographies of place,” 262 household archaeology, 262
industrialisation and mass consumption, 263
longue durée, 263
City of Launceston, 73f, 81–82, 84
Clay tobacco pipes, 53, 100, 212, 276, 279, 290, 308, 348
Clonmel, 73f, 77, 81–82
Coal, 215–222
Australian Agricultural Company, 216
Australian Gas Light Company, 217 coal gasification, 217 deposits, 185
gas lighting, 216
in Hunter Valley, 215
Tasmania’s coal industry, 216
Coffee, 293
essence mixed with chicory, 293
Community archaeology, 48, 60
Condiments, 108–109, 199, 288, 290–292
Connah, Graham, 13–14, 17, 25, 31–35, 123–125, 139, 185, 194, 206, 269, 281, 294, 311
Conservatorium of Music, Sydney, 19, 27, 271, 281, 291
Consent-based archaeology, 48
Contact, 2, 4, 12–13, 15, 40, 43–44, 46–59, 62, 67, 71–72, 80, 89, 96, 99, 104, 137, 148, 188, 225–236, 244 Convict archaeology, 23–27 historical archaeology, development in, 25
Convictism, 4
Convict origins assigned servants/Lake Innes/New South Wales, 31–35 Crank Mill, punishment site for male convicts in irons, 20f crime, punishment and penal reform, 19–23 barracks, 21–22
community living, 21
first dedicated convict barracks, 21
flogging of convicts, 19
government work, 19
Hyde Park Barracks, 23f panoptical design of prisons, 21
transportation, 20–21
flogging of convicts, 19
Iron Gangs on Great North Road/New South Wales, 35–37 tourism, 18, 19
trade monopolised by British East India Company, 20–21
transportation, 20–21
women/children, Ross Female Factory and Point Puer, 37–41 World Heritage status for convict sites, 19
Copper, 173–178
Burra Charter, 175
copper triangle towns, 174, 178
Cornish mining methods, 177
dugout dwellings in bank of Burra Creek, 177f location of copper-mining centres, 174f mines and processing plants, 174
non-Conformist chapels, 178
Plan of Burra township, 176f
Coranderrk, Vic, 45f, 56, 60–61
Cornwall, 153, 175, 177, 178, 312
Coultts, Peter, 12, 105
Creole, 225
Crimewar, 307
Currency, 323
D Darwin, Northern Territory, 5f, 18f, 45f, 73f, 148f, 182, 227f, 228

Death cemetery at Stanley in north-western Tasmania, 328f Chinese burials, 344–346
contemporary Aboriginal traditions, 348–349 convicts, 333–334
mass burials, 333
“Murderers Mound,” 334
gravestone inscriptions, 327
Great War, 347–348
mortality and cemeteries, 334–340
old Sydney burial ground, 331–333
  humbler graves, 332
  large burial pits, 332
  memorialization, 332 responses to, 329–330
  commercial funerals, 329
  cremation, 330
  element of good Christian death, 330 mix of churchyard/municipal cemeteries, 330 rural cemeteries, 328 violent death
Batavia, Western Australia, 340–343
Police Garage, Melbourne, 342–343

Diaspora, 225, 229
DMR site, Sydney, 26f, 30, 212, 276, 284
Dolly’s Creek, Victoria, 148, 150f, 162, 164f, 166f, 168, 234

Domination, 15, 37, 46, 253, 354–355

Dress and ornament, 312–316
  buttons, 313
    fancier black glass buttons, 313 pressed copper-alloy buttons, 313 on whaling sites, 313 clothing, 312
    in nineteenth century, 313
  tools, 313
excavations, 314
  dressmaking pins and thimbles, 313
  McGonnells’ household, 314
  Paradise, 314
  sewing items, 313
  in six terrace houses in Rocks, 314 footwear, 315
  hand made, 312
  leather assemblages, 315 machine-made, 315
jewellery items, 314
  men’s and women’s, 314
  pocket watches and Albert chains, 314 leisure time works for women, 315 needlework embroidery and lace-making, 315 men as tailors, 315
    seamstresses, poor women as, 315 sewing related items, 315
    tools, 315
  sewing tools, 315
    bobbins, 316
    thimbles and needles, 316 Drinks, soft and hard, 296–301 aerated (carbonated) waters or sodas, 296 alcohol-style bottles, 299f per annum disposal rates, 299f
  bottles, 298
    alcohol bottle glass, 297
    bulk purchasing and bottle re-use, combination, 297
  Codd bottle, 297
  comparison of assemblages, 298 dominant artefact category (bottle glass), 297 Hamilton “blob top” or torpedo bottle, 297 life-span of, 297
  re-use, 297
  stoneware ginger beer bottles (stonies), 297
Ginger beer, 296
  Martins at Viewbank, 294
  mineral waters, 296
Paradise households, 298
  Phoenix Cordial Factory, 296
Plastows at Paradise, 294 products, 294
The Drover’s Wife and On Our Selection, 134
“Dummying,” 122
Duncan, Brad, 71, 113–114, 119, 214, 312
Dutch shipwrecks in Western Australia, 4

E
Ebeneezer, Victoria, 45f
Eglinton, 73f, 77, 81, 281, 290, 302–303, 312, 318
Ethnicity, 223–250
creolisation models, 225
diaspora theory, 225
German Lutheran settlers, 226
habitus (individual and group), 224 monolithic views, 224
performance theory, 225 “pidgin” (new language of practices/ideas/objects), 224
post-colonial theory, 224
See also Migration and ethnicity

F

Family
Benjamin Boyd, 105
Byrnes, 29
Davidson, 105
Farrow and Mackay family, 296
George Cribb and Hill, 30, 264
Hassell family, 275, 281
Innes, 31–34, 125–126
Imlay brothers, 105
John Thomas family, 281, 296
Knights, 220
Macarthur, 122, 123f
Moloney/Neylan family, 268
Morans’, 136
Robert Martin family, 269, 271, 294, 319
Reverend Willoughby Bean family, 281, 295
Swiss Family Robinson model, 115
Taczanowski, 248f
Winch family, 301

Faunal remains/bone, 46, 90, 234, 265, 271, 282, 284, 321
Feng Shui, 173, 237, 239–240, 346
First Government House, Sydney, 14, 19, 24–26, 204, 260, 269–270, 304, 308
First World War, 11, 86, 92, 117, 182, 195, 247, 279, 307, 347, 358
Fromelles, 347
Galipoli, 347
Menin Gate memorial, 347
Fish-curing, 110–111
artefacts, 110
Chinese fish-curers, 110 excavation at Chinaman’s Point, 110 reconstruction of fish-curing camp at Chinaman’s Point, 111f Food, 281–292

archaeological bottle analysis, 288
beer and wine bottles, 289
bottle-making technology, 289 “bottle-ohs,” 289
food bottles, 290
minimum number of vessels (MNV), 289
re-use, 289
archaeology of yard, 285 Australian vs. British meat diet, 284 birds, 282
bones of animals and birds, 282 cattle/sheep bones, 286–287
for convicts and military guards, 281 fish/shellfish and bones, 287
grains and pulses, 283
Henry’s No. 1 Mill, 285
ideal foods for people in extractive industries, 282 kangaroo tails, 282
livestock and poultry, 285 Mountain Street slum, Sydney, 285
oysters, 287
pickles/sauces and spices, 288
The Pickwick Papers, 288
pollen and plant parts, 284
Possums/wombats and emus, 282 production of fruit and vegetables, 285 proportion of bones from selected sites, 286f salt meat, 281, 283
stoneware, 290
condiment bottles, 290–291
Eglinton cargo, 290
proliferation of glass bottles, 291 small condiment jar from Casselden Place, 291f squat stoneware jars, 290
tins at home, 284
wooden cask head from William Salthouse, 283f

Forest industries, minor, 200–203 archaeology of industry, 203
burning charcoal, 200
eucalyptus oil, medicinal use, 201–202
Gembrook Forest east of Melbourne
Kurth Kiln in, 200–201, 202f portable charcoal kiln in, 201f gold miners, 200–201 railway sleepers and wood, cutting of, 200 steam distillation, 202
Victoria’s Dandenong Ranges, 200
Footwear/shoes, 73, 78–79, 187–189, 280, 312, 315

Fremantle, WA, 18f, 69

G

See also Market Gardens

Geelong, Victoria, 149, 150f, 192

Gentility, 15, 127, 273–274, 278, 299, 307

German, 6, 11, 86, 128, 137, 13–144, 149, 175, 178, 181, 186, 214, 223, 226, 242–244, 250, 264, 307, 320, 347, 358

Glass

flaked, 52
bottle, 28, 43, 52–53, 66, 73, 77, 81, 100, 109–110, 126, 177, 199, 236, 259, 265, 268, 276, 279, 288–289, 290, 297, 301, 348 pale green, 109, 20
containers, 301–302
tools, 52–53
pressed, 265, 291, 302, 306
buttons, 265, 313–314
stemmed, 302
objects, 52, 303
tablewares, 271, 302t, 303
lamp stands, 237
ink pots, 83
artefacts, 52
windows, 30, 32, 38, 165, 280
chimneys, 167
stemware and tumblers, 32–33

Gold-mining communities, 162–173

Arltunga, 168–170
Chinese miners in south-eastern highlands, NSW, 170–173
credit-ticket system, 170
feng shui, 173
interdependence and co-operation, 173

“Joss” house, spiritual needs, 172
location of Chinese settlements, 171f, 172 satellite camps, 172 street houses, concept of, 172

Dolly’s Creek, 163–168
brass case of mantle clock, 166f broken crockery, 166 building material, 165 cultural trends, 168 dependence on food, 167 Eureka Rebellion, 163 fireplaces at homes, 165
houses, 166
legislative changes, 168 plan of “poor man’s diggings,” 163 portable consumer goods, 165
tableware, diverse patterns, 167
Tea Tree Creek, 163
women and children, 163
shareholding and wage labour, 162

Gold-mining landscapes, 157–162
environments, 160–162
alluvial gold mining, 161 “desolating dredges;” 161 effects of mining, 160
native forests, preservation, 162 timber, 161
townships, 158–160
contrasting town plans, 159f division between diggings and government town, 158

Gold/precious metals, technology alluvial mining, 151–152
dredging, 152
“mullocky ground,” 151
system of working, 152
washing gold, early method, 151 deep lead and reef mining, 153 reef mining, 153
underground mines, 153
water seepage in deep mines, 153 processing, 153–157
cyanide vats for separating gold, 157
cyaniding, 155
Garfield waterwheel near Castlemaine in Victoria, 155, 156f gold-bearing ore, treatment, 153 mercury amalgamation and gravity separation, 155
ore processing with cyanide treatment, 155f roasting, 154
Habitus, 224–225, 273, 306
Harrison, Rodney, 43, 49, 51–54, 53f, 62, 64–65, 187, 284, 351
Health and hygiene, 316–319
cultural diseases, 316 “cure-alls,” compounds, 317 home treatment for wealthy patients, 316 hospitals for the poorest, 316 medicine containers with ailments, matching of, 316 “Mrs Winslow’s Soothing Syrup,” 316 personal hygiene, 317
comb fragments, 317
fragments of medicine bottles, 317
homeopathic medicines, 317 soap dishes and pitchers, 318
toothbrushes, 318
washbasins/ewers/chamber pots, 318
“Pink Pills for Pale People,” 316
Heritage management, 4, 13, 15, 70, 117, 120, 147–148, 175, 229
Historical archaeology in Australia, 12–15
Australasian Society for Historical Archaeology (ASHA), 12
British origins of early figures, 12–13
Burra Charter, 13
choice of sites, 12 Committee for Industrial Archaeology, 12
excavations, initiations of, 12–16
Heritage Acts in Victoria, 13 heritage legislation, 15 Hope Inquiry, 13
post-contact archaeology, 12
Historic Shipwrecks Act, 70
HMAS Sydney, 69, 73f, 86–87
Hobart, Tasmania, 334

- stamp batteries and winding machinery, 154
twelve-head stamp battery, 154f Gold rushes and precious metals archaeology of mining, 148 centres of gold production, 150f
copper, 173–178
gold-mining communities, 162–173
gold-mining landscapes, 157–162
location of major mineral rushes, 148f
tin, 178–182
Great North Road, NSW, 35–37

I
Immigration Restriction Act of 1901, 228, 247
India, 7–9, 21, 70, 72–75, 77–80, 82, 90, 96, 125, 223, 227, 264, 293, 300, 316, 340
Industrial archaeology, 186, 188–189
Australian historical archaeology, 188
clay industries
bricks and pottery, 189
colonial industries (employment), 186
colonial industries (employment), 186
consumer goods
manufacture of, 189
production, 186
efficient manufacturing countries, 186 gendered approaches, 188–189
household goods, 189
manufactured products at home, 189
second-hand goods and market, role of, 189 sewing and dairying industries, women’s domination in, 188 whaling camps and pastoral stations, 189
local industries (leather tanning/timber-cutters), 186 manufacturers industries (finished goods)/enterprises, 186
mills
flour-milling, 189
timber-getting, 189
overseas technology, 188
primary extractive industries, 185 processing industries (raw materials), 186 “queer” archaeology, 188 role of ethnic identity, 188 studies of mass produced artefacts, 187
Industrial Revolution, 3, 186, 189, 218, 252, 264–265
Iron, 218–221
Australian iron industry, 218
Hindmarsh Tiers Furnace, 218 iron ore and fuel, 218
Iron (cont.)

James Rutherford’s blast furnace, 218
“pig-iron,” 218
Ballarat foundries, 218
molten iron, 218
“pig-iron,” 218
iron-smelting complex, 218 Lal Lal Iron Company, 219 blast furnace, 218–219, 219f ironworks, 219f
Phoenix Foundry, 219

Irrawang, NSW, 12

J

K

Kimberley, WA, 45f, 53, 62, 71, 111, 132
Kinchega, NSW, 129

L

Lagoon Bay, Tasmania, 106
Lake Innes, NSW, 25, 31–35, 119, 124–126, 137, 187f, 206, 221, 294, 297, 304, 310–311
Lascars, 82
Lawrence, Susan, 165, 259, 282, 297, 346
Lime, 209–210
-burning, 209 demand for, 210
kilns, 210
D-kiln, 210
in Victoria, 210
at Walkerville, 210
limestone, 210
quicklime, 209
Little Lon project, 14
Longue durée, 263

M

Macassans, 3, 12, 55, 57–58, 71
Manufacturing and processing, 185–222
bricks, 203–209
cal, 215–217
iron, 218–221
lime, 209–210
location of manufacturing sites, 187f minor forest industries, 200–203
pottery, 210–215
steel, 221–222
timber milling, 192–200
water mills, 189–192
Maritime cultural landscapes, 112–114
Brad Duncan, 113
interface between land and sea, 114 of Port Willunga, 113
use of surroundings by groups, 114
winds, hazards to shipping, 113 Maritime infrastructure, 90–93
jetties and wharves, importance of, 93 shipbuilding and maintenance, 91 convict settlement of Port Arthur, 91 dockyard, 91
ships’ graveyards, 91–93
abandoned watercraft, 92
deliberate abandonment, 92 entrance to Port Phillip Bay, 92f
First World War J-Class submarines, 92
Macquarie Harbour, Tasmania, 194
Market gardens, 119, 140–142, 169, 175, 181, 226, 228–229, 232, 256
Medicine bottles, 280, 317
Middle class, 1, 252, 264, 272–275, 286, 294, 299–300, 306, 311, 314, 318, 320, 325, 354
Migration and ethnicity, 223–250
Afghan Cameleers, 240–242
Australian and British identity, 244–247
Chinese in Australia
Index

food, 234–236
health and recreation, 236–237
labour organisation and settlement patterns, 229–233
religious beliefs, 237–240
location of migration sites, 227f
new Australians: Bonegilla, 247–250
polish and German settlers, 242–244
Minimum Number of Vessels (MNV), 289
Mining alluvial, 151–152, 179
areas, 148
coil, 194, 215–217, 221–222
copper, 153, 174, 174f Cornish mining techniques, 177, 181
gold, 3, 152, 155, 157–162, 182, 189, 218, 274 lead and quartz, 153 Lode, 179, 181
metals, 178
reef, 153
rural, 232, 335
tin, 178
underground, 174
white, 181
Money, 323–324
Chinese coins (cash), 324 coins and currency, 323
copper coins, 323
excavations at Cumberland/Gloucester Streets site, 323 quantity and amounts, 323
copper tokens, 324
“off-site” survey methods, 324
Paymasters’ Bills and Treasury Bills, 323 promissory notes and I.O.U.s (currency), 323 Spanish and Brazilian coins, 323
Spanish silver dollars, 323
Moran’s Farm, SA, 119, 134, 321, 322f
Mortality and cemeteries bush graves, 339–340
Cadia, 334–335
Male mortality, causes, 334 Parramatta Convict Hospital, 336–337
bones of perinates, 336
Randwick Destitute Children’s Asylum Cemetery, Sydney, 337–339
burial, arrangement, 339
cemetery, Protestants/Catholics, 337 coffins, 339 culture of poverty, 337 damaged soil conditions, 339 damns, 339 life of children, 335
“miasmas,” 338
St. Mary’s, Adelaide, 335–336 children, died from infections, 336 installation of concrete rainwater tank, 336f “paupers’ section,” 336
redevelopment, 335
women, causes of mortality, 334
Mrs Lewis’s Boarding House, Sydney, 257, 295
Mulvaney, John, 12–13, 328
Murray River, 72, 85, 140, 243
Murray, Tim, 14, 47, 57, 252, 267, 280, 297, 317
Museum of Sydney, 26

N
Nash Michael, 89
Napoleonic Wars, 9
Native Title, 43, 48–52, 61
Native Title Act (1993), 49, 50
New Australians: Bonegilla, 247–250
“Australian way of life,” 242
Bonegilla Migrant Camp, 248
British immigrants, 249 displaced persons (DPs or “Balts”), 248 refugees, 248
huts and landscapes, 249
Immigration Restriction Act, 247 migration agreements, 249
Second World War, 247 treatment of British migrants, 250
Newcastle, NSW, 18f, 187f
New Zealand, 3, 5, 8–9, 11–12, 60, 96, 97f, 98–99, 101–102, 105, 147, 152, 181, 223, 228, 230, 234–237, 239, 254
Norfolk Island, 20f, 21–22, 22f, 24–26, 97f, 102, 103f, 190, 333
NSW Land Rights Act, 66

O
Old Sydney Burial Ground, 331–333
Opium War, 238
Overland Telegraph Line, 45f, 118f, 227f
Pandora, 70, 73f, 82–84, 88
Paradise, Qld, 158, 273–275, 281, 294–295, 298–300, 311, 314, 320
Parramatta, NSW, 273, 309
Pastoralism and agriculture
  bush as cultural landscape, 119–120
  colonising project, 116 creating rural landscapes, 137–142
  experiment farm, 116
  first farmer, 116
  Goyder’s Line indicating margins of agriculture, 118f growing simple pleasures, 142–146
  beer production, 142
  Chicory kiln on Phillip Island, 145f
  “cultivation of the vine,” 143
  Hop kiln (oast house) at Mossiface, 143f taste for tea, 144
  tobacco and pipe-smoking, 145 traditional trenching technique, 144 “hungry years,” 115
  outback, 127–133
  camel trains, 132
  graves of colonists, 133
  Holowiliena, SA, 128
  mining/pastoralism, 127
  movement of information and commodities, 131 Overland Telegraph in 1872, 127, 131–132
  schematic plan of Mount Wood wool scour, 130 sheep, washing/shearing, 128–129
  water management, 129 wool-scouring, water-intensive process, 129
  selectors, 133–137
  squatters and pastoralists, 120–127
  Swiss Family Robinson model of colonisation, 115
  “yeoman” ideal, 116
Paterson, Alistair, 12, 28–29, 44, 47, 52, 55, 62–63, 107, 117, 187, 341
Pearling, 111–112
  Mother-of-pearl shell, 111
Pearson, Michael, 101, 103, 105, 128–129, 130f, 148, 152, 185, 186, 203, 210
Pearson, Warwick, 188–191
Perth, WA, 5f, 18f, 45f, 102, 118f, 148f, 227f, 301
  “Pig ovens,” 239
Pins, 136, 187, 267, 277, 313–316, 339
Point Puer, Tasmania, 25
Polish and German settlers, 242–244
  German architectural styles, 243
  Hufendorf settlement, 243
  Polish grave markers, 243
  Polish Hill River, 243
  Polish material culture, 243
“Poor man’s diggings,” 149
Port Albert, Victoria, 110, 141, 281
Port Arthur Historic Site Management Authority, 91
Port Essington, NT, 12, 44
Port Jackson (Sydney Harbour), 4
Port Macquarie, NSW, 18f, 22, 31, 124–125
Port Phillip District (Victoria), 10
Post-contact archaeology, 12, 49, 51, 225
Pottery, 210–215
  at Brickfields, 211
  and brickworks, 214
  Port Arthur, 214
  clay tobacco pipes, 212
  commercial, 214 domestic, 211
  Sydney Gazette, 211
  early production, 212
  Elijah Leake, 210
  Government, 212
  James King’s pottery at Irrawang, 213 English pottery techniques, 213
  excavation, 212
  functional earthenwares and stonewares, 214 large industrial Bendigo pottery, 214
  Fowler’s pottery, 215
  Lithgow pottery, 215
  Leak’s, 212
  Limekiln at Walkerville in southern Victoria, 211f Noris Ioannou’s study, 214 pottery stamp of James King, Irrawang, 213f in South Australia, 214 study of DMR site in brickfields, 212
  excavation, 212
  home dairies, 212
  women’s dairying activities, 212
  Surry Hills, Sydney, 212
  Sydney, potters in, 212
  Prince of Wales Hospital site, 337
Q
Quirk, Kate, 273, 294, 314–315

R
Railways, 84, 131–132, 134, 137, 150, 159f, 174, 190, 193–194, 199–200, 209, 216, 218, 221, 228, 254, 269, 331, 353
“Record stripping” technique, 267
Religion, 6, 47, 223, 226, 238, 243–244, 299, 327, 330, 344
Respectability, 15, 119, 160, 237, 247, 266, 273, 275, 278, 299
Rock art, 55–56
The Rocks, Sydney, 14, 26f, 29–31, 69, 224, 229, 231, 236, 254, 260, 262–263, 265f, 288, 290, 314–315, 323, 331f, 332
“Ruined forest,” 161
Rural landscapes, creating, 137–142
- bush farm in Gippsland mountains in Victoria, 138f
- cheap labour, 139
- clearing land of native vegetation, 137
- control and management of water, 140
- dry-stone construction, 140
- eucalyptus vegetation, 139
- fences, 139
- firing bush, 137
- market gardens and water systems, 140
- patchwork pattern, 137
- post-and-rail fences, 139
- remains of gardens, 142
- ring-barking, 138
- “war against the trees,” 137
- Yong Kit’s garden, 141

S
Scotland, 82, 124, 137, 175, 213
Sealing, 95–101
- Aboriginal/sealer communities, 96
- comparison of hut sites, 100–101
- Lithograph of sealers’ camp in Western Port, Victoria, 98f
- profit in southern waters, 96
- reasons, joining sealing gangs, 97–98
- sites with sealing associations, 99–100
- southern Australia, map, 97f
- strategies, 98–99
- types, elephant seal, 96
- use of shore gangs, 98
Selectors, 133–137
- connections with wider world, 137
- excavation at Moran’s Farm, 136–137
- experiences, 134
- Goyder’s Line of reliable rainfall for agriculture, 135f
- ruins of Kanyaka Homestead in Flinders Ranges, 136f
- Selection Acts, 133
- “systematic colonisation,” 134
- “unlock the land,” 133
Shipbuilding technology, 72–77
Sydney Cove
- excavation of, 72–74
- influence of European and Indian combination, 74
- iron long-shank anchors, 75
- local wood and textiles, 75
- map of shipwrecks, 73f
- planking, 75
- ropes on Sydney Cove, 74–75
- technology of European and Indian combination, 74
- water dredge used to uncover hull timbers on Sydney Cove, 74f Xanthe, 75
- effects of corrosion and rate of decomposition, 76
- hull design, 76
Shipwreck Anthropology, 71
Shipwrecks and maritime trade
- archaeology of shipwrecks, 72–84
- industrial shipping, 84–86
- maritime archaeology in Australia, 70–72
- maritime infrastructure, 90–93
- ships of war, 86–88
- archaeological material with oral testimony of servicemen, integration of 88
HMAS Sydney, 86
- Japanese submarine M24, 87
Kormoran, 86–87
- underwater remains of aircraft, study of, 87
- theorising shipwreck archaeology, 88–90
Shipwrecks, archaeology of, 72–84
cargoes, 77–81
“country trade,” 72
life on board, 81–84
City of Launceston, wreck of, 81–82
Heritage Victoria, artefacts, 82
“Pandora’s Box,” 82
surgical artefacts, Pandora, 83
shipbuilding technology, 72–77
shipwreck, definition, 72
Slums, 263–269
activities of men and women, 266–267 artefacts from neighbourhood, 268 backyards, 266
CuGl, case study, 264 deprivation and hardship, 263
excavated sites at Melbourne, 268
Casselden Place, 268 Little Lon, 268 families in the Rocks, 267 family reconstitution, 268 “gaol town,” 267
Industrial Revolution, 265 inner-city neighbourhoods, 263 label, 264
“record stripping” technique, 267
tenants in 1860s and 1870s, 268
traditional, pre-industrial ways, 265
Smith, Lindsay, 44, 49, 52, 54, 66, 170, 172, 226, 229, 239–240, 345
South African War, 321
Spirit consumption, 300
in New South Wales, 300
Squatters and pastoralists, 120–127
Archibald Clunes Innes, 124
“Australia Felix,” 121
Clarke family at Plover Plains, 126 companies, 122
“dummying,” 122
ey early pastoralists, 121 economic depression of 1840s, 125
Elizabeth Farm homestead at Parramatta, 123f excavation of homestead site, 123 Lake Innes estate, 124
Monaro, 120
Orders-in-Council of 1847, 122 settled districts, 122
Sir John Jamison, 124–125
“sturdy yeoman” farmers, 122
Waste Lands Occupation Act, 122
water supply and drainage system, 125
women, 121
Steel, 221
Broken Hill Proprietary Company (BHP), 222 mass production of, 221
open-hearth (Siemens-Martin) process, 221
5-ton Siemens-Martin open-hearth furnace, 221
“Sterling,” 323
St Mary’s Aldelaide, 335–336
Strangways Springs, SA, 62
Stratigraphy, 66, 251, 268
Submarine, 11, 86–87, 92, 92f Survivor’s camps, 69–70, 72, 82, 88–89
Swan River, WA, 10, 81
Sydney, NSW
Harbour, 4, 11, 30–31, 87, 235, 254, 265f, 287, 331f
old Sydney burial ground, 331–333
Sailor’s Home, 254, 309
Sydney Cove, 9, 26f, 70, 72, 82–88, 73f–74f, 79f, 82, 89–90, 96, 115, 254, 256, 265, 267, 281–282, 304, 318
University, 12–13
T
Table settings, 301–306
American Civil War, 304
archaeological analysis of tableware, 303 ceramic jugs and glass decanters, 301
Eglinton cargo, 302–305
“Anemone,” 305
“Gothic Ruins,” 305 pressed glass objects, 303–304
of Sydney Cove, 304
English ceramic industry, 303
glass tablewares at selected sites, 302
houses, 306
Paradise and Port Albert families, 303, 306 polychrome “famille rose” patterns, 304 transfer-printed patterns, 304
Blue Willow, 304
Tablewares, 64, 80–81, 167, 214, 231, 235, 265–266, 272, 274–276, 290, 294, 302, 303–304, 305t, 320, 322t
Tea, 144, 292
archetypal Australian tea (billy tea), 292 cup and saucer pairs, 292, 295
Mackay family assemblages, 296 services, 295
sites under groups, 295
Bartletts at Paradise, 295
Beans in Gippsland, 296
Cumberland/Gloucester Streets households, 295 at Dolly’s Creek and Cheyne Beach, 295
Martins at Viewbank, 295
Mrs. Lewis’ boarding house, places, 295
Winches at 124 Cumberland Street, 295 social value for high consumption of, 294–295
tablewares from selected sites dating, 293t Turner’s Paddock rubbish tip, 292 wares and its types, 295
Teawares, 79–80, 130, 271, 292–296, 304–305
Timber milling, 192–200
artefacts and overseas goods, 199
Cootharaba Mill near Noosa in Queensland, 193 forest settlements and landscapes, 193
Henry’s No. 1 Mill, 197
in south-west Victoria, 198f horse hauling on log tramline, 195f log bridge on tramline, 196f manual sawing in pits, 194 mill camp, 197–198
ploughing/farming and civilisation, 193
residential space and architecture, 198–199 reuse and recycling, 199
sawmill sites capital costs and labour needs, 197 characteristic features, 195–196 steam-driven sawmills, 194
steam technology, 193 timber-getting, earliest, 194
large pit-sawing complex, 194 Sawpit Gully and Sawpit Creek, 194 timber tramways, development of, 193 tramways, 194–195
forest, characteristics, 195
transportation and mechanical milling, 195 temporary sawmills, 195
timber company, 195
Time lag, 289, 297
Tin, 178–182
alluvial mining, 179, 179f
Bynoe Harbour mine sites, 182
Chinese miners, 181 communal pig roasting ovens, 182 knowledge transfer, 180
“long huts,” 182
Moon Mine, excavations at, 181 tin mining places, Tasmania, 179f tributing, 181
water races and costeans, 181 wooden cradles and ground sluices, 179
Tobacco, 307–312
consumption of cigars, 307–308
costs of, 311
encouragement in military men, 309
excavations at Casselden Place, 311 heavily used and stained clay tobacco pipe, 312f Hyde Park Barracks pipes, 311 moulded white kaolin (pipe clay) smoking pipes, 307
in nineteenth century, 307
part of punishment, 309
pipes, 308
early clay pipe studies, 308 form/stem hole diameter of pipes, 308 Harrington/Binford method, 308
in New South Wales, 309
pipe use by Aboriginal people, 308 role of pipes, 308
smoking, 145
prohibition, 308
smoke in pubs and clubs, 311
snuff and spittoons with chewing tobacco, 307 total number of clay pipe fragments, 310t in United States, 307 use in form of currency, 309 use in women’s, 307
smoked pipes, 307
snuff, 307
Treaty of Tordesillas of 1494, 9
Trenching technique, 144
Twentieth century and beyond aluminium, 358
archaeology of, 352
Car Wars, 353
catalyst for changing sexual values, 353–354 domination of private cars, 354 changes in retailing, 354
computer, 359
cement reinforced with steel, 358–359 digital technologies, 359
feminism, 356
idea of “rubbish,” 357
disposable paper packaging, 357
large-scale water supply and sewage systems, 357 importance of Asian and American imports, 357 manufacturing in Australia, 353 mass human migrations and genocide, 351 material life, 353
modern disturbance or overburden, 352
observatories and telescopes, 355 plastics celluloid, 358
  woollen knitting, 358
rise of automobile, 354
shop awnings, changes in shopping, 354–355 shopping by car, 355
social meanings of material culture, 357
sport, 355–356
suburbanisation, 353 tariff protection/transport links, 353 “unloved modern” heritage, 352
white settlement, changes in Australian culture, 356
woollen knitting, 358

archaeology of cities
  changing neighbourhoods, 260–261
  creating ground surfaces: filling and levelling, 253–255 dealing with waste: plumbing and rubbish disposal, 255–260 artefact assemblages, 270
excavations ceramics and high-quality goods, 272
  Heritage Victoria, 272
  Martin family at Viewbank, 271 rubbish deposits, 271–272 homes in suburbs, 273–274
archaeology, 274
households, 274
industrialising city, 276–277
landscaping, 269–270
  Viewbank Homestead, 270f middle classes ceramic analysis, 275 concept of habitus, 273
  definition, 272–273
  development of, 275
  families, 272–273
  ideology/material culture/consumption, comparison, 273–274 working/middle class boundary, families at, 275
slums, 263–269
  Plan of the Rocks in Sydney, 265f
  Rear yard of house in Collingwood, 266f

V
Van Diemen’s Land, 5
Victoria (Port Phillip District), 10, 121–122, 126
VOC (Verenigde Oost-indische Compagnie), 70, 89, 340

W
Wakefield, Edward Gibbon (social reformer), 10 Wales assigned servants, Lake Innes, 31–35, 32f ramifications of convict system, 34 repeat offenders: Iron Gangs on the Great North Road, 35–37 water mills, New England tablelands of, 190
Waste Lands Occupation Act, 122
Water-driven flour mills, 185
Water mills, 189–192
  Barwon paper mill, 192
  colonial iron foundries, 192 colonial water-powered mills, 192
  Dight’s Flour Mill, 191 gold mining and flour milling, 189 lowland and upland mills, 192 machinery, 192
  mill stone from Wappan Station, 191
  New England tablelands of New South Wales, 190 over-shot wheels, 191
  ruins of water-driven flour mill, 190
  undershot or breastshot mills, 190
Western Australian Maritime Museum, 70, 81, 88 Whaling
  Aboriginal people in, 104
  Adventure Bay whaling station, 105 archaeological evidence, 104–107 coastline of southern Australia, 104 common layout of features, 105
  huts/cottages, 106
  plan of stone house at Adventure Bay, 106, 106f stone and brick foundation of try works, 108f crewmen, pay and expenditure, 103–104 deep-sea whaling, 101 food on stations, 107–110 cattle and sheep bones, 108 documents, flour or bread, 109
    quantity of identified bones, 109 use of condiments, 109
    hunted for oil, 101
    methods and technologies, 102 migration route of southern right whale, 102 oil extraction, 103
    pelagic whaling, 101
    right whales, 102
    shore whaling, 101
    sperm whales, 102
    whale Digester at Cascades, Norfolk Island, 103
    White granite, 294, 305
  William Salthouse, 282, 283f, 301
  Women and children convicts, Ross Female Factory and Point Puer, Port Arthur, 37–41, 38f adjacent workshops, 40
    children, experiences of, 40 control mechanisms, 38
    Crime Class section of complex, 38
    Gaol cells, 40–41
    juvenile convicts, surveillance and control, 40 juvenile labour, demand for, 40
    lives and work, 37 “offence,” pregnancy out of wedlock, 39
    role of power, 37
    settlement, 40
    solitary cells, archaeological deposits, 38–39 withdrawal of food/interaction as punishment, 39
    women, places of, 38–39
    women within cells, 39
  Wybalenna, Tasmania, 3–4
X
  Xantho, 73f, 75–76
Y
  York Town, Tasmania, 18f, 28–29