

Index

A

- Absolutely important (AI), 48
- Absolutely unimportant (AU), 48
- Academic performance, 164
- Affect, 178, 179
- Affect attunement, 179
- Affect systems
 - affect-affect relationships, 24
 - attitude, 29, 30
 - and beliefs, 22, 23, 29
 - causality, 24
 - confidence, 30
 - efficacy, 30
 - emotions, 30
 - enjoyment, 30
 - goals, 30
 - group-efficacy, 31
 - high anxiety, 24
 - low self-efficacy, 24
 - metaphoric, 24
 - methodology
 - data, 27
 - participants, 26
 - thinking classroom framework, 25–26
 - negative test experience, 24
 - quasi-logical, 24
 - variables, 23, 31
- Affective variables, 163
- Algebra, 138, 142, 143
- Alternative-focused thinking (AFT)
 - vs. VFT, 57, 58
- Analysis of cases
 - engagement and imagination, 134
 - goals, 135
 - old-fashioned and traditional, 134
 - reform mathematics teaching, 134
 - reform-oriented, 135
 - shared repertoire, 134
- Apprenticeship and Workplace (A&W), 28
- Assigning and grading homework, 153, 156, 157
- Attachment Theory (AT), 174
 - child's and the adult's regulatory capacities, 177
 - emotion regulation, 177, 178
 - insecure, 176
 - integration, 176–178
 - mother–child relationship, 175
 - quality, 176
 - secure, 176
 - symbiotic connection, 175
 - types, 176
- Attitudes, 163
 - students (see Students' attitudes and beliefs)
 - teacher (see Teachers' attitudes and beliefs)
- Attributional beliefs
 - attribution, 96, 97
 - attributional indicators, 97, 98
 - causal dimensions, 91
 - causes of success and failure, 90
 - classification scheme, 91
 - coding system, 95
 - coding-rules, 99
 - data, 94, 95
 - dimensionality, 91
 - direct causal attributions, 95
 - effort and perseverance due to internal attribution, 98

- Attributional beliefs (cont.)
 indirect indicators, 99
 internal attributions, 91
 Kloosterman's category (K21), 90
 learned helplessness, 91
 problem solving, 89, 90
 QCA, 94
 research questions, 94
 self-efficacy, 92, 93, 100
 self-evaluation, 96, 97
 self-instruction, 97, 98
 self-monitoring, 96–98
 self-regulation, 93, 94
 students' attributions and their achievement, 91
 task-strategy, 96, 97
 verbalization categories, 91, 92, 95, 96
 Zimmerman's process model, 95
- Attribution-in-action, 98
- Attuned mathematics teacher analogy, 179
 AT, 179
 authentic interactions, 181
 characteristics, 180
 psychological view, 181
 student's relationship with mathematics, 180
- Australian Curriculum:Mathematics (AC:M), 161, 162
- Authenticity, 45
- B
- Bartlett's test of sphericity (BTS), 49
- Base model, 237, 239–242
- Basic needs, 117, 123
- Belief systems
 central and primary, 23
 framework, 22
 Green's notion, 22
 Green's idea, 22
 metaphoric, 22, 23
 primary and centrally, 23
 psychologically strength, 22
 quasi-logical cause-and-effect
 relationships, 23
 quasi-logical relations, 22
 teacher's, 23
- Beliefs, 163, 164, 199, 200, 208, 209, 235
 as myths, 3–4
 attributional (see attributional beliefs)
 bearers of, 2, 3
 BI, 80
- blank spots, 4
 calculus teaching, 225
 conceptualizations, 90
 constructivist, 106, 111
 continuous professional development of
 teachers, 6, 7
 curriculum, 222
 definitions, 1, 80
 differentiation, 3
 and elements, 2
 and goals, 222, 223
 inferior, 3
 investigation, 221
 and knowledge, 2
 metaphors, 2
 objects, 2
 personal subjective theories, 2
 practice, 6
 in problem solving, 90
 process, 106
 psychological perspective, 138
 research, 1, 6
 scale, 106
 school, 4–6
 self-reflection, 7
 of students, 3–6
 of teachers, 3–6
 teachers' professionalization, 222
 teaching goals, visualisation, 138, 139 terminology and orientation, 3
 toolbox, 106
 transmissive, 106, 109
 types, 79
 upper secondary school (see Upper secondary school)
 visualisation, 139 (see also Visualisation,
 in mathematics domains)
- Beliefs indications (BI), 80, 82, 84
- Bloom's Taxonomy of Educational Objectives, 44
- Body of knowledge, 2
- C
- Calculation routines, 227
- Calculus, 137, 141, 143, 144, 218, 222, 223, 225, 230
 courses, 228
 instruction, 227
 interview, 227
 teaching, 225, 227
 technology, 226

- Career Counselling for Teachers (CCT), 108
 Cartesian plane, 16
 Causal-comparative and correlational research design, 34
 Changes in affect, 21–24, 27, 29
 Character strengths, 167
 coaching program, 167
 definition, 166, 168
 and educational outcomes, 167
 metacognition, 168
 productive disposition, 167, 168
 virtues, 166–168
 Classroom observations, 4
 Cluster analysis, 190, 191
 CODEX, 82
 Coding-guide, 120
 Cognitive constructivist views, 187, 189–192
 Collectivization of the individual, 129
 Communities of practice
 identification/negotiation, 130
 joint enterprise, 129
 learning trajectories, 130
 social theory, 135
 Competence, 117, 123
 Competence of analysing, 183
 cognitive constructivist views, 190
 interdependencies, 188
 representations, 188, 190
 Confidence in learning mathematics
 affective variable, 33
 descriptive statistics, 36, 37
 design, 40
 gender role, 34
 gender-related differences, 33
 inferential statistics, 37–39
 mathematics achievement, 33, 34, 40
 mean differences, 34, 39
 method
 design, 34
 instruments, 35, 36
 sample, 35
 mother's and father's attitudes, 34
 multiple regression analysis, 40
 quantitative study, 40
 self-concept, 34
 SES class, 34
 socio-economic status class, 39
 student characteristics, 39
 Content-focused researchers, 5
 Continuous professional development of teachers, 6, 7
 Correlations, 109–111
 Creative Mathematical founded Reasoning (CMR), 81, 83
 Cronbach's alpha coefficients, 36
- D
- Data analysis
 MOOC forums, 16–19
 valuing from children's perspectives, 48, 49
 Data collection, 200, 201
 Decision-making
 attributes, 61
 classroom setting, 60
 corporate management, 59
 creativity and self-expression, 60
 losses and risks, 60
 minimizing costs, 60
 modeling single- and multiple-attribute utility functions, 60
 negotiation, compromise and consensus, 61
 performance indicators, 60
 utility, 60
 VFT, 60
 Decision-making managerial approach, 56
 Descriptive statistics
 confidence in learning mathematics, 36, 37
 Desires
 mathematical procedure/concept, 13
 motivating, 13, 14, 16–19
 Digital tools, 234, 237
 Direct-transmission views, 187, 189
 Discovery learning, 197, 203, 238
 Domain-specific beliefs, 137
 Dropout
 case study, 120–123
 extrinsic motives, 116
 HIS, 116, 117
 intrinsic motives, 116
 methodology
 analysis, 120
 interviews, 119
 research, 118
 results, 120
 sample, 119
 predictors, 116, 118
 reasons, 117
 STEM-subjects, 115, 116
 subject-change quotas, 115
 Dunnett C analysis, 38

E

Education Research as the Hardest Science of All, 6

Educational design research
 cognitive factor, 70
 creative, 69
 feelings, 71, 72
 implications, 75, 76
 non-cognitive factor, 70
 preschool classes, 70
 problem solving, 69–71
 reflective, 69
 selection of students, 72, 73
 students' evaluations pull out of the bag task, 74, 75
 tower task, 73, 74

Elementary education (K-7), 27

Emotion regulation, 177, 178

Emotions

attributions, 85
 belief, 79
 mathematical task, 84
 and motivations, 85

Empirical myths, 4

Engagement

mathematics MOOC forums (see Massive open online course (MOOC) forums)

Ethnographic approach, 130

Eudaimonic approach, 166

Evaluation methods, 212, 213

Expectation maximization (EM) algorithm, 49

Exposition vs. exploration, 46

Extended forms of learning, 4

F

Fake-news-reality, 3

Feedback, 108, 109, 111

Feelings

educational design research, 71, 72

Fennema–Sherman Mathematics Attitudes Scales, 35

First year after graduation

hands-on things, 132

math lab, 132

reform-inspired textbook, 133

Fractions, 138, 140–143

Free-flowing discussion forums, 12

Frustrating, 121, 122

Functions, 138, 143

Fundamental values and tasks of the school, 80

G

Gender

and mathematics achievement, 34, 36–38
 role of, 34
 types, 37
 variable, 37

Goals, in mathematical domains

as “core categories”, 141

teaching goals, described, 138, 139

understanding, mathematical procedure, 141–143

visualisation, 139 (see also Visualisation)

Graphing calculator, 240

Group-efficacy, 31

Gymnasium, 201

H

Health-pattern, 107, 108, 110, 112

Hedonic approach, 166

HeuRekAP, 94

Hidden communication, 175

Hidden variables, 1

Hochschul-Informationen-System (HIS), 116, 117

Hypothesis, 123

I

Identity

dual process, 129

ethnographic approach, 130

participatory perspective, 127, 135

teachers, 127

Imitative reasoning (IR), 81, 83

Independent samples t-test, 37

Individual certainty, 105

Individualization of the collective, 129

Inferential statistics

confidence in learning mathematics, 37–39

Inferior beliefs, 3

Information and communication technology (ICT), 45

Innovative methods, 4

Insecure attachment, 176

Instructional practices, 149, 154

Instrumental integration, 223, 224

Instrumental symbiosis, 224

Instrumentalisation, 226

Integration, 176–178

International Positive Education Network (IPEN), 166

J

Japanese Mathematics Course of Study, 56

K

Kaiser–Meyer–Olkin (KMO) measure, 49
Kloosterman’s category (K21), 90

L

Likert scale, 189
Likert-type scoring format, 48

M

Massive open online course (MOOC) forums cognitive and affective, 11
 content-specific approach, 12
 data analysis, 16–19
 engagement, 13
 free-flowing, 12
 identity, 11
 knowledgeably skilful, 11
 MAVI community, 19
 methodology
 network analysis, 14–15
 tasks, participants and context, 14
 social interactions, 12
 students’ identity, 12
 video contents, 12
Mastery-oriented children, 91
Mathematical beliefs, 123, 124
Mathematical problem, 208, 209
Mathematical proficiency
 AC:M, 161, 162
 disposition, 161–163
Mathematical reasoning, 80, 81, 85
Mathematics 1b, 82
Mathematics achievement, 33, 34, 36–40
Mathematics related affect, 139
Mathematics teacher, 217
Mathematics textbooks
 hands-on things, 132
 issues, 128
 old-fashioned and traditional, 132
 paper-and-pencil drills, 128
 practical material, 134
 primary-school, 131
 reform-inspired, 133
Measurement instrument
 computational skills, 238
 discovery learning, 238
 mathematical instruction, 239

 representations, 238
 shifting, 238
 technology, 239
 time, 238

Metacognitive actions, 103

Metaphors, 2

Method-myths, 4

Motivating desires, 13, 14, 16–19

Motivation, 140

 beliefs, 84

 BI, 84, 85

 and emotional belief, 79

 and emotions, 85

 and expectation, 82

Motivational orientations

 extrinsic, 105, 106, 110

 intrinsic, 105, 106, 110, 111

 potential, 106

Multi-attribute utility functions, 59, 65

Multiple regression analysis, 38, 40

N

National school system, 81

Network analysis

 MOOC forums, 14–15

Noticing, 183

Novice mathematics teachers

 analysis of cases, 133, 135

 becoming a teacher, process, 128, 129

 collectivization of the individual, 129

 conceptualize learning, 129

 first year after graduation, 132, 133

 identification/negotiation, 130

 identity formation

 communities of joint enterprise, 129

 communities of practice, 129

 individualization of the collective, 129

 interpretations of concepts, 129

 learning trajectories, 130

 multiple contexts, 129

 schooling prior, 128

 secure jobs, 130

 self-recordings, 130

 teaching and textbooks, 131

 time of graduation, 131, 132

 understandable and multiple contexts, 135

O

One-way ANOVA, 37

Online interactions, see Massive open online course (MOOC) forums

Open classroom instructions, 4 Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 163, 165
 Outside the frame, 131
 Overarching mathematics, 138, 140

P

Participants, 212
 Pattern of conservation, 107, 110, 112
 Pedagogical content knowledge (PCK), 186
 Personal subjective theories, 2
 Planning for instruction, 154, 157
 Policy-related researchers/practitioners, 5
 Polynomial unit, 28
 Positive education
 character strengths, 166, 167
 IPEN, 166
 mental well-being, 166
 Post-hoc analysis, 38
 Preferential attachment, 15, 17
 Preschool classes, 70–73
 Pre-service teachers, 103–105, 108
 Primary-school
 interview guides, 131
 professional and subject-specific study, 130
 self-recordings, 130
 Swedish Research Council, 130
 teaching, 131
 textbooks, 131
 themes and processes, 131
 Principal component analysis (PCA), 36, 48
 Problem solving
 advantages and disadvantages, 204
 attributional beliefs, 89, 90
 curricula, 199
 discovery learning, 201
 educational design research, 70, 71
 educational psychologists, 199
 immersion, 23
 mathematical understanding, 50
 socially open-ended (see Socially open-ended problem solving) task, 195
 TBTP, 208
 valuing, 48
 Productive disposition
 character strengths, 167, 168
 definition, 162
 OECD, 163
 proficiency, 162
 Professional identity, 103, 104
 Professional knowledge
 multilayer model, 184

and situation observations, 185, 186
 teachers' views, 186, 187
 Proficiency, 162, 163, 165
 See also Mathematical proficiency Pythagora's theorem, 16

Q

Qualitative content analysis (QCA), 94
 Quantitative research methods, 34
 Quasi-logical relations, 22

R

Rapport, 174
 Rasch model, 189
 Reasoning
 types, 83
 Receptive learning, 109, 198, 203
 Reciprocity, 15, 17
 Reflection
 beliefs, 104
 empirical findings, 104
 Likert scale, 106
 moments, 103
 motivational orientations, 104
 retrospective, 103
 self-regulation, 104
 Reflective device, 106, 107
 Reform-inspired textbook, 133
 Reform mathematics teaching, 131, 134
 Relationships
 AT, 174–176
 dual nature, 174
 hidden communication, 174–175
 rapport, 174
 student-teacher, 179
 Reliability analysis, 36, 49
 Remembering, 140, 144
 Representations
 analysis process, 186
 classroom situations, 185, 188
 competence of analysing, 188
 mathematical object, 185
 vignette teacher's reaction, 191
 Rhesus macaque experiments, 175
 Risk-patterns, 107
 Rubicon-model, 223

S

Secondary mathematics teachers, 150
 beliefs
 assigning and grading homework, 153, 156, 157

- mathematics education, 151, 157
 - planning for instruction, 154, 157
 - student's thinking, 152, 153, 157
 - teacher knowledge, 152, 157
 - data analysis, 151
 - data collection, 150
 - Secondary teachers, 141
 - Secondary-tertiary-transition, 118, 122
 - Secure attachment, 176, 178
 - Self-efficacy, 92, 93, 100, 116, 117, 121–123, 164
 - Self-instructions, 91
 - Self-monitoring, 91
 - Self-regulation, 93, 94, 104–107, 112
 - Self-regulatory activities, 99
 - Self-worth orientation, 100
 - Semi-structured interviews, 27, 224
 - Single-attribute utility functions, 59, 64
 - Social cognitive theory, 92
 - Social interactions, 12
 - Social learning environment, 15
 - Social relatedness, 117, 120–123
 - Socially open-ended problem solving
 - decision-making (see Decision-making)
 - experiencing engagement, 65
 - mathematics classroom
 - attributes, 64
 - decision-making, 61
 - hitting the target, 61, 62
 - multi-attribute utility functions, 65
 - objective hierarchy, 63, 64
 - objectives, 62, 63
 - single-attribute utility functions, 64
 - valuing process skills, 62
 - problem provision stage, 60
 - students with opportunities, 60
 - VFT, 57
 - Socio-cultural perspective, 44
 - Socio-economic status (SES) class, 34
 - SPSSwin®, 48
 - Statistical analyses, 240, 241
 - Strategy choice (SC), 81
 - Strategy is implemented (SI), 81
 - Students' abilities, 210
 - Students' attitudes and beliefs, 164
 - meta-analysis, 164
 - PISA 2012, 164, 165
 - self-efficacy, 164
 - Student-teacher relationship
 - affect research, 178
 - AT, 179
 - Student's thinking, 152, 153, 156, 157
 - Swedish Research Council, 130
 - Swedish school system, 72
- T
- Task situations (TS), 81–83
 - Teacher and parent attitude
 - confidence in learning mathematics (see Confidence in learning mathematics)
 - Teachers' attitudes and beliefs
 - AC:M, 165
 - mathematical proficiency, 165
 - PISA 2012, 166
 - primary preservice teachers, 165
 - students' affective and achievement, 165
 - Teacher knowledge, 152, 157
 - Teacher's beliefs
 - assigning and grading homework, 153, 156, 157
 - categories, 149, 154
 - classroom, 234, 235
 - comparative formats, 208
 - data analysis, 151
 - data collection, 150
 - definition, 147, 148
 - disparities, 210
 - mathematics classroom, 234
 - mathematics education, 151, 157
 - planning for instruction, 154, 157
 - and practices, 209, 210
 - secondary mathematics teachers, 150
 - self-report instruments, 207
 - student's thinking, 152, 153, 157
 - teacher knowledge, 148, 152, 157
 - technology, 234, 235
 - Teachers' beliefs on their practice (TBTP), 209
 - construction, 210
 - hypothesis-testing validity, 214, 215
 - reliability, 214
 - Teachers' preferences
 - data analysis, 201, 202
 - Teacher Strategy Document, 155
 - Teachers' views, 184
 - arguments, 199
 - descriptive information on scale, 189
 - in-service teachers, 186
 - PCK, 186
 - perspectives, 199
 - pre-service teachers, 187
 - representations, 186
 - Teaching method, 204, 205
 - Teaching practices
 - analogies, 155
 - beliefs, 149
 - inquiry-based instruction, 149
 - instructional practice, 149
 - procedural skills, 155

Technology, 225–229
 Technology in classrooms, 226
 Technology-related beliefs, 236
 Thinking classroom framework, 25–26
 Three-dimensional meta-theory, 163
 Time of graduation
 old-fashioned and traditional, 132
 outside the frame, 131
 patterned scheme, 132
 reform mathematics teaching, 131
 Transition from School to University,
 117–119, 121, 123
 Transitive relationship, 15
 Transitivity, 17
 Transmissive/constructivist orientations, 104–106

U

Undergraduate mathematics linear algebra, 115, 119
 real analysis, 115, 119
 Understanding concepts, 140, 141, 145
 UN-UNDP, 82
 Upper secondary school
 analytical tools, 80
 BI, 80
 mathematical reasoning, 80, 81, 85
 mathematical tasks, 79
 methods, 81–83
 national school system, 81
 non-routine task, 79, 80
 reasoning, 81
 results of analysis, 83–85
 routine task, 79, 80
 SC, 81
 SI, 81
 TS, 81

V

Value clarification, 65
 Value-clarifying function, 56
 Value-focused thinking (VFT)
 vs. AFT, 57, 58
 applicability, 65
 application, 60
 attributes, 59
 components, 60, 66
 curriculum developers, 56
 educational implementation, 56
 framework, 65
 influences, 58, 59

international agencies, 56
 Japanese Mathematics Course of Study, 56
 management field to mathematics
 classroom, 59–61
 management theory, 56
 multi-attribute utility functions, 59
 objective hierarchy, 59
 objectives, 59
 single-attribute utility functions, 59
 socially open-ended problem solving, 57
 value-clarifying function, 65
 Value-pluralistic society, 55
 Values
 categories, 45–47
 definitions, 44
 equality and equity, 81
 ICT, 45
 identification, 44
 in political texts, 80
 upper secondary school (see Upper
 secondary school)
 VFT (see Value-focused thinking (VFT))
 Valuing from children's perspectives
 autonomy, 50
 and beliefs relationship, 45
 Bloom's Taxonomy of Educational Objectives, 44
 categories, 45–47
 componential structure, 51
 components, 50
 data analysis, 48, 49
 deep affective qualities, 44
 expert teacher, 44
 individual, 44
 learning and teaching, 43
 meaningfulness, 50
 positive attitude, 50
 questionnaire data, 51
 research design
 instrument, 48
 international collaborative research, 47
 methodological validity and reliability, 47
 participants, 48
 quantitative approach, 47
 theoretical and practical information, 47
 research questions, 47
 socio-cultural perspective, 44
 WIFI study researchers, 44
 Valuing process skills, 56, 62, 63, 65
 Varimax rotations, 49
 Vignette-based test instrument, 188
 Virtues, 166, 168

Visualisation, in mathematics domains
as a “belief object”, 139
beliefs, 138
cognitive and affective goal, 140
core categories, 141
definition, 139, 140
‘justifying’/‘communicating’, 140
modelling, 145
qualitative coding method, 141
semi-structured interviews, 141
students use, 144
teachers beliefs, 144
teaching goal, 139

theoretical sampling, 141
for understanding mathematical procedures, 141–144
Vocational students
mathematics education beliefs, 151

W

Weiner’s theory, 90, 91

Z

Zimmerman’s process model, 95