About the Author: Wheeler Winston Dixon is the James Ryan Professor of Film Studies, Coordinator of the Film Studies Program, and Professor of English at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. With Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, he is the editor of the book series Quick Takes: Movies and Popular Culture for Rutgers University Press. Dixon's book A Short History of Film (2008, coauthored with Gwendolyn Audrey Foster) was reprinted six times through 2012. A second revised edition was published in 2013; a third revised edition was published in 2018. The book is a required text in universities throughout the world. Dixon's book Black & White Cinema: A Brief History (2015) was featured on Turner Classic Movies as part of the series "Artists in Black and White." Other books by Dixon include A Brief History of Comic Book Movies (coauthored with Richard Graham [Palgrave Macmillan, 2017]) and The Films of Terence Fisher: Hammer Horror and Beyond (Auteur Press/Columbia UP, 2017).
