

Index

A

- Asian expatriates, 64–66
- Association of Business Schools (ABS), 1–2

C

- CA. See Competitive advantage (CA)
- China
 - business managers, 61
 - Indian expatriates, 64–66
- Coaching, 6
 - coach-client relationship, 72
 - communication, 72
 - culture, 69
 - East and West, 76–77
 - environment, 71
 - flexibility, 75–76
 - guru-siṣya* relationship, 70–71, 73
 - Indian context, 76
 - individual identity and culture, 71–72
 - International Coach Federation, 70
 - psychology, theories of, 69
 - role, understanding, 72
 - setting and location, 72
 - spiritual approach, 74
 - trust and credibility, 74
- Collectivism, 5, 59, 64
 - correlation matrix, 46
 - economic globalization, 187
 - globalization, 36–37
 - in Mexico, 15
 - professional/career, 35, 46
 - regression models, 44
 - social/family, 46
 - values of, 33–34
- Competitive advantage (CA)
 - components, 114
 - knowledge acquisition, 114
 - organization, 113
 - predictors, 7
- Confirmatory factor analysis (CFA)
 - competitive advantage scale, 120
 - knowledge management measurement model, 118–119
 - reliability and validity analysis, 118, 120
 - and SRW, 118
- Constructive culture, 149, 193
- Convergence school of thought, 33
- CQ. See Cultural intelligence (CQ)
- Critical issues. See Culture research in India
- Cross-cultural adjustment, 57–58
- Cross-cultural coaching, 189–190
- Cross-cultural training, 157, 162, 164
- Crossvergence, 32–33
- Cultural change, 32, 33, 130, 172
 - crossvergence, 33
 - India (see Cultural shift)
 - schools of thought, 32–33
- Cultural distance. See Cultural similarity/cultural novelty
- Cultural intelligence (CQ), 8
 - authenticity, 158
 - behavioral, 159
 - business, 158
 - cognitive, 159
 - and cross cultural training, 163–164
 - dimensions, 159
 - engagement, 157

- Cultural intelligence (CQ) (cont.)
 influence, 158
 meta-cognitive, 159
 motivational, 159 positive intent, 158
 trust, 157
- Cultural literacy, 7–8, 194–195
- Cultural metaphors, 14–15
- Cultural shift, 55
 correlations, independent variables, 44, 46 crossvergence, work and family values, 32–33
 definition, 32
 “demographic dividend”, 31 distance vs. no distance, 53–54 factor analysis/reliability, 39, 41 globalized cities (tier 1 vs. tier 2), 36–37, 53 hypotheses cross-convergence, values, 33
 globalization, 35, 36
 liberalization policies, 34 “material realm”, 34 professional/career and social/family domain, 34, 35 interactions, 39
 living arrangement/physical distance, 38 mean variances, 44, 45
 MNCs, 37–38
 professional/career vs. social/family domain, 54
 regression models, 44, 46–53
 research methodology, 39, 40
 sample population data analysis, 42
 independent variables, 42, 43
 regional distribution, survey sites, 41–42
- Cultural similarity/novelty adjustment difficulties, 57, 61–62, 188 expatriate adjustment, 58, 60–61
 Indian expatriates, China, 64–66 internationalization, 57 learning and self-motivation strategies, 189 and (un)met expectations, 58, 62–64
 psychic distance paradox, 59–60 unpreparedness, expatriates, 188
- Culture and Organization* journal, 2
- Culture in Indian organizations conceptual model, 3, 4
 cultural shifts, 5 (see also Cultural shift)
 empirical research, 2–3
 international assignments, 5–6 knowledge management (see Knowledge management)
- potential conflicts, 5
 private hospitals (see Organizational culture, Indian private hospitals) religion (see Religion and HRM practices) and talent acquisition (see Talent acquisition)
- Culture research in India
 caste system, 12
 cross-cultural coaching, 189–190
 cultural literacy, 194–195
 description, 185
guru–shishya (teacher–student) relationship, 20
 Indian expatriates, 188–189
 knowledge management culture, 191–193
 multiculturalism, 195–196
 private healthcare hospitals, 193–194
 religion, organizations and HRM, 185–186
 religious and regional celebrations, 17 talent acquisition culture, 190–191
 theoretical framework, 14–15 work week schedules, 19
 Zippies, 187–188
- D
- Demographic dividend, 31
- Divergence school of thought, 33
- Diversity
 management of, 8 management training, 22
 regional, 42
 religious, 17, 19, 24
 work-place, 22
- E
- Economic liberalization, 35
- E-learning module, 165
- Emerging country multinationals (ECMs). See Indian ECMs
- Exploratory factor analysis
 competitive advantage scale, 118 knowledge management scale, 117
 multivariate data reduction technique, 116
- G
- ‘Generation Z’, 5, 32, 187–188
- Global ambition, 6, 7
 exporters, 84
 globalization, 82
 Indian ECMs, 82–83
 player, 82
 regional player, 83–84

- scale, 104–105
- sourcers, 84
- staff recruitment and selection procedures, 79
- Globalization
 - educated middle class, India, 5
 - expatriate managers, 57
 - Indian organizations, 83
 - and value shifts, 33
 - and young middle-class Indians, 35, 36
- Globalized cities
 - individualism and collectivism, 36–37
 - vs. less globalized cities, 53
 - tier 1 and tier 2 cities, 37
- Guest Engagement Programs*, 165–166
- Guru–shishya* (teacher–disciple) paramparā, 20, 23, 70, 72, 73, 189, 190
- H
- Human resource management (HRM), 1
 - recruitment and selection, 80
 - religious values, India (see Religion and HRM practices)
 - screening and selection techniques, 82
 - talent acquisition, quantitative and qualitative techniques, 87
 - traditional local management selection practices, 80
- I
- India
 - empirical research, 2–3
 - global capitalism, 33
 - history
 - affirmative action programs, 12
 - British rule, 12
 - caste system, 12
 - Muslim monarchs, 11–12
 - religious conflicts, 11–13
 - religious beliefs
 - Christians, 14
 - Hindu religion, 13
 - Islam religion, 13–14
 - Sikhism, 14
 - teaching–learning (see Guru–shishya (teacher–disciple) paramparā)
- Indian culture
 - caste system, 12
 - corporate strategic perspective, 85
 - external standardised HRM routines, 85–86
 - Indian managers, 85
 - learning and education, 20, 23
 - overtime Indian society, 85
 - religious and regional celebrations, 17
- Indian ECMs
 - global
 - ambition, 82–84
 - exporter, 84
 - player, 83
 - sourcer, 84
 - internal recruitment methods, 98
 - quantitative and qualitative data, 101
 - regional player, 83–84
 - substantiative economic reformation, 79
 - traditional external selection method, 99
- Indian expatriates
 - China, 5
 - food, 65
 - music forms, 65
 - cultural similarity (see Cultural similarity/ cultural novelty)
- Indian healthcare, 7, 129, 130. See also Organizational culture, Indian private hospitals
 - funds, 129–130
 - individuals and agencies, 130
 - management structure and practices, 130
 - public sector, 129
- Indianness, 3, 4, 102
- Indian organizations. See Culture in Indian organizations
 - business success, 160
 - class room module, 165
 - cultural factors, 155
 - cultural intelligence (see Cultural intelligence)
 - customer satisfaction, 167
 - customers/clients, 156
 - diversity, 155
 - e-learning module, 165
 - globalization, 156
 - Guest Engagement Programs, 165–166
 - hospitality services, 161
 - language training, 164
 - quality hospitality training, 164–165
 - regression matrix, 164
 - research methodology, 161–162
 - respondents, 163
 - substantiative economic reformation, 79
 - talent acquisition (see Talent acquisition)
- Indian people
 - Christians, 14
 - expatriates in China, 64–66
 - Hindu religion, 13
 - Islam religion, 13–14
 - Sikhism, 14
 - youth, lifestyle transformation, 32

Information Technology Enabled Services (ITES), 32
International Journal of Indian Culture and Business Management, 2

K

Knowledge acquisition (KA), 119, 122–124
 Knowledge approach, 7, 122, 123, 124, 192
 Knowledge management (KM), 7
 CA (see Competitive advantage (CA)) content/face validity, 121
 convergent validity, 121
 culture, 112, 191–193
 discriminant validity, 121–122 economic value, 111
 e-learning, 124
 exploratory factor analysis (see Exploratory factor analysis) generation of scale items, 115–116
 IT-supported knowledge, 115
 knowledge acquisition, 124
 limitations, 125
 literature, 112
 management process, 112–113
 organizations, 111
 reliability, 120–121
 sample and response rate, 116
 SEM (see Structural equation modelling (SEM)) telecommunication organizations, 123
 Knowledge Management Scale (KMS), 115–116
 Knowledge protection (KP), 122–124
 Kurt Lewin's model of change process, 62

L

Learning, Indian organizations, 20, 23
 Liberalization's children. See Zippie

M

Mentoring, Indian organizations, 23
 Moderator, 86, 89, 90, 92, 97, 100
 Multiculturalism, 8
 culture research in India, 195–196
 definition, 173–174
 diversity, 173
 immigrants, 174
 Multinational corporations (MNCs), 37–39

N

Native culture, 53, 174
 Nepotism at workplace, 19–20, 22
 Non-clinical staff, OCTAPACE analysis, 141, 142, 147–148

O

OCTAPACE instrument, organizations, 137–140
 description, 135
 doctors, male and female, 141–144 incompatibility and tensions, 136 non-clinical staff, 141, 142, 147–148 nurses and support staff, autonomy, 136, 141, 142 nurses, male and female, 142, 145–146
 Organization(s)
 decision makers, 60 diversity policies, 22
 hierarchy system, 20–21
 and Indian culture business environment, 172
 context of India, 174–175
 description, 171
 employees, different sectors, 177
 institutional forces, 173 love, 179–180
 multiculturalism (see Multiculturalism) multicultural society, 176 national/regional culture, 172
 PSU, 176
 respondents profile, 175
 social identity theory, 178 leaders, 21–23
 in Mexico, 15
 recruitment, 20
 religious and traditional holidays, 17, 18 training and development, 20 vacation policies, 23
 Organizational culture, Indian private hospitals complex organizations, 132 culture definitions, 132
 description, 131
 domains, 133
 early recognition team development, 150 nursing, 150
 OCTAPACE analysis (see OCTAPACE instrument, organizations) organizational effectiveness, 133, 149 research data

- OCTAPACE profile, 135
 - probability sampling, 134
 - quantitative analysis techniques, 134
 - responses from doctors, 135
 - sample size, 135
 - stratified random sampling technique, 134
 - self-actualization, 149
 - technical innovation, 133
- P
- Performance
- Hong Kong expatriates, 61
 - and undermet expectation, 58
- Pluralist study design, 6
- Private healthcare hospitals, 193–194
- Private hospitals, 7. See also Organizational culture, Indian private hospitals
- change initiatives, 130
 - crafting productive organizational culture, 130–131
 - new corporate hospitals, 130
- PSU. See Public sector undertaking (PSU)
- Psychic distance
- Canada, 59–60
 - definition, 60
 - and (un)met expectations, 62–64
- Psychology, 5
- adjustment, 57, 61–62
 - Asian expatriates, 66
- Public sector undertaking (PSU), 176
- R
- Recruitment
- evaluation in, 22
 - external sources, 81–82, 86
 - internal sources, 82
 - personal relationships, 20
- Religion and HRM practices
- Christians, 14
 - conceptual model, 24
 - cultural metaphors, 14–15
 - demographics, 16
 - direct symbols, faith
 - dress code, 17, 19
 - food preferences, 17
 - religious and traditional holidays, 17, 18
 - work schedules, 19
 - Hindu religion, 13
 - indirect symbols, faith
 - attitude, professional development, 20
 - attitude toward leadership, 21–22
 - hierarchy system, organizations, 20–21
 - nepotism at work, 19–20
 - Islam religion, 13–14
 - managers and practice, 22–23
 - primary and secondary sources, gathering information, 15–16
 - religious conflicts, 11–13
 - Sikhism, 14
- S
- Self-actualization, 69, 70, 71, 149, 193
- Social identity theory, 178
- Standardised regression weights (SRW), 118
- Structural equation modelling (SEM)
- description, 122
 - impact of knowledge (IT) approach, 122, 124
 - knowledge management, 122, 123
- Sub-culture, 7, 130, 132, 133, 149, 159, 174, 193
- T
- Talent acquisition
- conceptual and operational frameworks, 80
 - and culture
 - corporate strategic perspective, 85–86
 - hallmarks, countries, 85
 - overtime Indian society, 85
 - demographic data, 102–103
 - dominant cultural themes, 100
 - global ambition, 82–84
 - HRM investigative procedures, 80
 - independent variables
 - recruitment, 81–82
 - selection, 82
 - investigative model, 86
 - methodology and results
 - competitive advantage, 80, 81
 - correlations, variables, 92, 94
 - demographic profile, respondents, 89, 90
 - factor loadings and reliability assessments, 90, 91
 - global exporter, external selection and internal recruitment, 95, 96
 - independent, culture and dependent variables, 95, 96

- Talent acquisition (cont.)
- moderator and interaction effects, 89
 - multicollinearity issues, 89
 - national culture influence, 99
 - paradoxical conclusions, 93, 95
 - patterned beliefs and values, moderating effects, 97
 - procedure, 87–88
 - qualitative measurement, 88–89
 - quantitative measurement, 88
 - recruiting with customary external practices, 97, 98
 - regression analysis, 93, 95
 - respondents and site, 87
 - rotated factor analysis, 92, 93
 - selection and recruitment, 103–104
 - societal values, in work setting, 105
- Talent acquisition culture, 190–191
- The cultural politics of emotion*, 179
- W
- Work and family values, 32–33
- Z
- Zippie, 5, 32, 187–188