

Index

A

- Acculturation, 135
- Acculturation knowledge, 60. See also
 - Crystallized intelligence
- Active interviewing, 23, 24
 - with Hispanic older adult second language learners, 27–28
- Adaptive strategies, significance of, 112
- Adult ESL learners, 136
 - and language socialization, 138–139
 - L2 pedagogy for, 141
 - teaching strategies, 146
- Advocacy, 145
- Affect
 - and language learning, 88
 - and language socialization, 89–90
- Affective alignments, 89
 - between ESL students and their teachers, 94–97
 - among older language learners, 90–94
- Affective behaviors, 99
- Affective care, 100
- Affective positioning, 135
- Affective stances, 87
 - negative stances, 89
- Affiliative kin work, 111–113
 - adaptive strategies, significance of, 112
 - classroom bonds, 112
 - development of self-confidence, 112
 - intergenerational affiliation, 113
 - refashioning communication style, 113–114
- Affiliative laughter, 92, 99
- Age and language capitalization, 129–132.
 - See also* Language capitalization
- Age factor, 18
 - procedural memory, 19
- Age-related conceptions, 47
- Age-related excuses, 98
- Aging
 - and applied linguistics, 72–74
 - and language learning, 11
 - and procedural memory, 6
- Aging Hispanic population
 - cultural and linguistic diversity, 5
 - DREAM Act, 6
 - Great Recession, 6
 - implications for various issues, 5
 - major demographic changes, 7
- Aging immigrants, 32
 - in culture and family, 37–39
- Aging in place, 70
 - ESL classes as safe zone, 81–83
- Ally work, 127–128
- American English, pragmatic rules, 53
- Applied linguistics, and aging, 72–74
 - biopsychosocial consequence, 74
 - painful self-disclosure, 73
 - sociolinguistics of aging, 73
 - supportive talk, 73
 - unflattering characteristics, 74
- Artfully agenic, 8
- Awareness of ageist discourses, 141–142

B

- Basic questions, articulating, 49–50
- Biopsychosocial consequences, 74
- Building bonding, 90–91

C

- Camaraderie, 143
- Case study
 - Hispanic immigrant communities, 21
 - interviewing strategy, 23–27. See also
 - Interviewing strategy
 - language socialization, 21
 - mixed methods approach, 20
 - post-puberty learners, 19
- Chomsky, Noam, 55

- Classroom exercises, 95 overcoming negative self-stereotypes, 97–101. See also Negative self-stereotypes, overcoming as positive group, 119
- Cognition, research in SLA and, 55–56
- Cognitive aptitude, 48
- Cognitive slowing, 47
- Communication domains, 107–108
 experiences in classroom, 108
 learners' ability, 107
- Communicative gap, managing, 105
- Concept of affective filter, 88
- Congruent alignments, 89, 90, 92
- Creative interviewing, 26
- Critical period hypothesis, 6, 19, 55–56
- Cross-cultural communication issues, 74
- Crystallized intelligence, 60–62
 life experience, 61
 in SLA, 62
- Cultural and linguistic diversity, 5
- Cultural factors, 43
 communicative bond, 43
 ethnic minorities, 43
 self-as-learner identity, 44
- D
- Declarative knowledge, 18
- Deficit-model, 64–65
- Do-support declarative clause, 51, 59
- DREAM Act, 6
- E
- Elder immigrants, 2
- Elder speech, 141–142
- Elderspeak, overcoming, 111–113
 adaptive strategies, significance of, 112
 classroom bonds, 112
 development of self-confidence, 112
 intergenerational affiliation, 113
 refashioning communication style, 113–114
- Embedded questions, 52
- Emotional health, 135
- Emotional synchrony, 89
- Emotions, among older language learners
 affiliative laughter, 92
 argumentative support, 93 emotional bonding with learners, 96 feelings of anxiety, 92 fractal recursivity, 92 frustration, 94 negative affective stances, 91 social and emotional feedback, 95 between teachers and students, 95
- English as second language (ESL) program family literacy program, 22
 language resocialization, 13
 language socialization, 8 positive affective positions, 12
 speech competence, 21 statistics, 6
 work-based classes, 7
- Exit events, 33
- F
- Familism, 37
 alternative family arrangements, 38 positive effects of, 38
- Family alliances
 adults' self-perceptions, 115
 English-dominant society, 114
 sociolinguistic perspective, 115
- Family language socialization, 108–110 age-based distribution of power, 109 conserving immigrants' mother tongue, 109 cultural and communicative gap, 110 intergenerational language effect, 109 language gaps, 110
 pressures of acculturation, 108 raising bilingual children, 110
- Family literacy program, 22, 23, 47
- Family network, 105
 bilingualism, 106
- Filial obligations, 138
- Finding place, for old adult learners, 83–84
 ageist attitude, 83
 debunking myths, 84 negative affect, 83
 self-esteem and motivation, 84
- Fluid intelligence, 58–60
 do-support clause, 59 qualitative and quantitative inputs, 60
- Fostering strategies, 98
- G
- Gender
 and language capitalization, 129–132.
See also Language capitalization
 social positioning, 120. See also Social positioning
- Gender identity, 120, 121–123
 immigrant experience, characteristics, 122
 immigrants' self-identity, 123
 self-as-learner identity, 121
- Gender roles, 142
- Gendered labor, 123–125
 informal interactions, 123

- Gendered literacy, 123–125
 negotiating domestic events, 125
 women's work, 124
- Gendered settings, negotiating competence in, 126 building self-confidence, 126 legitimacy aids, 128 machista ideology, 129
 positive socialization, 127
 reflexive positioning, 127
 wanting to learn English, 128
- Great Recession, 6
- H
- Health risks, 136
- Healthy cognitive aging, 65
- Hidden American immigration consensus, 2, 3
- High-frequency structures, 50
- Hispanic immigrants, 3 aging immigrants, language matters for, 4–5 language resocialization, 3 paradox, 3 trajectory of SLA, 4
- I
- Idea of institutional ethnography, 28
- Identity work, 10, 17, 21, 23, 24, 91, 113, 120, 121, 131 and SLA, 139–140
- Idiomatic question, 50
- Immigrant effect, 22
- Immigrant experience, characteristics, 122
- Immigrants' self-conception, 3
- Immigration, 33
 effects of racial discrimination, 35 elder minority language acquisition, 11 fear of deportation, 35 illegal immigrants, 34
 language socialization, 13
- Implicit linguistic competence, 18
- Implicit theory of interviewing, 24
- Impression management, 135
- Inassimilable others, 35
- Information-processing model, 18
- Inner speech development
 English-dominant society, 114
 model of ally-work, 117 participation in social speech, 115
- Institutional disadvantages, 11
- Intelligence
 crystallized intelligence, 60
 fluid intelligence, 58–60
- Interactionalism and environmental factors, 56
- Intergenerational boundaries, 70, 74, 90–91
- Intersections, 35 of aging and immigration, 33 multiple intersection of aging, 33
- Interviewing strategy, 23–27
 active interviewing, 23, 24 challenge of interviewer, 24
 creative interviewing, 26
 implicit theory of interviewing, 24
 interpretive judgments, 25
 social turn, 27
 traditional interviewing, 24
 vessel-of-answers approach, 26
- Investments, literacy program, 72, 79–80 age-related cognitive changes, 80 civic requirements for residency, 79 regaining autonomy, 80
- J
- Judged by others fear, 89
 feeling, 81
- Judgments, interpretative, 25
- K
- Kin work, 113. See also Affiliative kin work
- L
- L1 English-speaking toddlers, 49
- L2 learning, 57
 general perceptions, 48 language aptitude in, 57
 psycholinguistics and neurocognition, 48 role of place in, 137–138 social constructivism in, 71–72
- Language acquisition, 57, 135
- Language attrition, 57, 135
- Language capital, building through place, 43–44
- Language capitalization, 129 insights on transitions, 131, 132 nature of learning, 132 scholarship, 130 social security benefits, 129 suggestions from instructors, 130
- Language learning, 121–123
 and affect, 88
 immigrant experience, characteristics, 122
 immigrants' self-identity, 123
 self-as-learner identity, 121
- Language resocialization, 10, 121
 later life, 8
- Language socialization, 142
 adult ESL learners, 138–139

- Language socialization (cont.)
 and affect, 89–90
 paradigm, 121
 peer-based social control, 20
- Late-life language learning, 17, 135 language aptitude, 57 motivation and expectations, 22
 paucity of research on, 57
- Late-life SLA research, challenges and issues with, 62–64
 compensatory strategies, 63
 functional vs. life experience, 62 overall factors, 63 social turn in SLA, 64
- Latin American immigrant groups, 34
- Legitimate peripheral participation, 128
- Lexicon, 49, 53, 54
- Life transitions, 33
- Linguistic behaviors, 12
- Linguistic caretakers, 12, 106
- Long-term memory, 60–62
 life experience, 61
 in SLA, 62
- Low-wage occupations, 36
- M
- Machista ideology, 129
- Macro-social demarcations, 145
- Memory
 long-term memory, 60
 working memory, 58–60
- Metacognition, 142–143
- Mexican migrants, 36
- Micro-linguistic interactions, 145
- Minority aging familial social exchange, 39–41 micro-processes of, 32 structure of, 34–37 troublesome statistics, 36
- Modern symbolic racism, 3
- Morpho-syntax, 49, 53
- Mother–daughter communication, 111
- Motivation, 72
- Multilingual society, 107–108
 experiences in classroom, 108
 learners' ability, 107
- Multilingual society, 6
- N
- Narrative linkages, 28
- Negative self-stereotypes, overcoming, 97–101
 laughter during corrective feedback, 98–99
- positive aging identities, 97–98 younger and older learners working together, 99–101
- Neighborhood contacts, 41–42
 Cubans migrants, 42
 ethnic enclaves, 42
 immigrant enclaves, 41
 migration experiences, 41
- Neurocognition, 48
- Neurolinguistic research, 48
- Non-monolingual socialization, 42
- Nonsampling errors, 25
- O
- Older adult second language learners, 18–22
 active interviewing, 27–28
 right to speak, 74–79 See also Right to speak
- Oppositional alignments, 89
- Over-accommodative way of speech, 73
- P
- Painful self-disclosures, 90
- Pedagogy, for adult learners, 141
- Phonology, 49, 53, 54
 phonological loop, 54
- Place in L2 learning, 137, 145, 146 classroom as safe zone, 138
 filial obligations, 138
 language interactions, 137 private and public spaces, 137
- Poststructuralist theory, 71
- Pragmatics, 49, 53, 54
- Procedural knowledge, 18
- Psycholinguistics, 48
 linguistic areas researched in, 53–54
- Public language socialization, 114–117
 adults' self-perceptions, 115 concept of allies, 117
 English-dominant society, 114, 115
 minority status, 114
 sociolinguistic perspective, 115
- Q
- Qualitative approach, 135
- Qualitative conceptualization of self, 9
- Qualitative methods
 how-to guidelines, 26 of interviewing, 24, 25. See also Interviewing strategy
 response effects, 25
- Quality-of-life resources, 145
- Question formation in English, 49

- Stage 1 questions, 49–50
 - Stage 2 questions, 50
 - Stage 3 questions, 50–51
 - Stage 4 questions, 51
 - Stage 5 questions, 51–52
 - Stage 6 questions, 52–53
- R
- Recommendations
 - advocacy, 145
 - awareness of ageist discourses, 141–142
 - bonding, 143
 - camaraderie, 143
 - gender roles, 142
 - intentional development of social capital, 142
 - language socialization, 142
 - metacognition, 142–143
 - recruiting classmates as interlocutors, 144
 - recruiting interlocutor, 143
 - solidarity, 143
 - trust, 143
 - valuing older adults' contributions and talents, 144–145
 - Refashioning communication style, 113–114
 - Reflexive positioning, 127
 - Response effects, 25
 - Right to speak, 8, 12, 70, 71, 72
 - English-speaking interlocutors, 78
 - ethnocultural enclaves, 74
 - negative stereotypes, 76
 - overdependency on interpretations, 78
 - under-accommodative way of speech, 77
 - Role strain, 108–110
- S
- Safe zone, ESL classes as, 70–71, 81–83
 - emotional bonding, 81
 - imagined identity, 82
 - safe space for language learning, 81
 - transformative space, 82
 - Second language acquisition (SLA), 1, 48, 70
 - in adult L2 learning, 71–72
 - epistemological changes, 70
 - and identity work, 139–140
 - late-life, 47–48
 - question formation in English, 49–51.
 - See also* Question formation in English
 - research in, and cognition, 55–56
 - self-confidence and self-esteem, 20
 - social turn in, 21
 - socio-constructivist approaches, 70
 - Second language acquisition theory, social turn, 11
 - Second-language learner, 31
 - rethinking friendship and family relationships, 32
 - Second language socialization, 11, 42
 - Self-as-learner identity, 10, 44
 - Self-conceptions, 122
 - Self-confidence, 112, 113, 126
 - in SLA, 20
 - Self-criticism, 100
 - Self-disclosure, 73
 - Self-esteem, in SLA, 20
 - Self-handicapping strategies, 73
 - Self-identity
 - risk-taking attitude, 96, 101
 - seeking to minimize errors, 101
 - Self-monitoring, 58
 - Social capital
 - distribution, 135
 - intentional development of, 142
 - Social competence, 107, 121. See also
 - Language capitalization
 - communicative competence, 21
 - negotiating competence, 126–127
 - speech competence, 21
 - Social constructivism. See also Right to speak;
 - Socio-SLA
 - negative stances, 69
 - Social exchange, 39–41
 - age-based expectations, 41
 - English interlocutors, 40
 - environmental changes and limitations, 40
 - pressures of acculturation, 39
 - Social identity, 121
 - Social networks, 41–42
 - Cubans migrants, 42
 - ethnic enclaves, 42
 - immigrant enclaves, 41
 - migration experiences, 41
 - Social positioning, 121–123
 - immigrant experience, characteristics, 122
 - immigrants' self-identity, 123
 - self-as-learner identity, 121
 - Social support systems, 2
 - Social turn, 84
 - Sociolect of English, 137
 - Sociolinguistics of aging, 73
 - Socio-SLA, 71–72
 - poststructuralist theory, 71
 - right to speak, 71
 - traditional cognitive notions, 72

- Solidarity, 143
Spanish-speaking immigrants, 64
Speech community membership, 127–128
Structural factors, 43
 communicative bond, 43
 ethnic minorities, 43
 self-as-learner identity, 44
Subject–verb agreement issues, 59
Supportive talk, 73
Syntactic movement, 59
- T
Traditional interviewing, 24
Transition, 136
Transnational social networks, 34
Truncated multilingualism, 107, 115
Trust, 143
- U
Under-accommodative way of speech, 73, 77
- V
Valuing older adults' contributions and talents, 144–145
Vessel-of-answers approach, 26
Vocabulary knowledge, 54. See also Lexicon
- W
Wh-questions, 51
 inversion in, 52
Women learners, 101
Women's work, 124
 competing life demands, 124
 negotiating domestic events, 125
Working memory, 58–60
- Y
Yes/no question, 50, 51
Young immigrants' acculturation, 36
Younger interlocutors, 73
Younger mentors, 99–100