

INDEX

A

Academic capitalism, 18–19, 29–33, 198

Academic marketing expansion of, 14–15

overview, 13–15

research on, 17–20, 241; AAU sample, 20; data analysis, 21;

data collection, 20–21; findings, 21–28; pipelines, 26–28;

processes, 24–26; structures, 22–24

studies on; data and method, 20–21;

discussion and implications, 28–32;

findings, 21–28; pipelines, 26–28;

processes, 24–26; structures, 22–23;

theoretical framework, 18–19

university-industry relations; competitions for students, 17–18;

organizational adaptations, 16;

purpose and research questions, 18;

students and political economy, 16–17;

universities and specialized knowledge, 15

Advertising brochures

creating, 146

decision to enroll and, 147,

151–152

educational brand, 151–152

overview, 145–146

study of; data collection, 148–149;

discussion, 152–155; measures, 149;

results, 150–155; sample, 148

text element of, 146, 150 visual element of, 146, 150

Albania, 82–85, 87–90, 101, 242

Alumni engagement and HEIs implications for practice, 189–190

LGBTQ alumni, 189–190

organizational identification and relationship building, 184

overview, 181–183

philanthropic mirroring, 187–189

philanthropy and identity, 185–186 relationship marketing and marginalized populations, 185

social exchange and relationship management, 183–185

Álvarez-Mendiola, Germán, 37–61

B

Binary system, 69

Blanco Ramirez, Gerardo, 1–12, 239–247

Branding, higher education and Chilean HEIs; differentiation and isomorphism, 44; market segmentation, 44–45; privatization, 43; role of government, 44 competition and, 3–6, 41, 60–61

Flemish HEIs and, 65–69

global competition and position-
taking, 3–6

Hong Kong HEIs and, 166–167

identity and, 6–7, 38–40, 50, 56, 82, 112, 153, 162, 166

Latin America and, 41–43

Mexican HEIs and; characterization of, 60–61; comparative analysis, 56; context and type of institution, 59; differentiation and isomorphism, 48; elite institutions, 49–50; high segment, 56–57;
institutions in intermediate segment, 50–51; intermediate segment, 57; low segment, 58; low segment institutions,
51–52; market segmentation,
48–49; privatization, 47–48;
role of government, 48

motivations for branding, 2–6

overview, 1–2

understanding brands, branding, and marketing, 6–8

websites and, 113–115

Brandscape, 2, 9, 240, 246

Building for economic gain

academic context, 23–24

individual benefits, 24

organizational location, 22

ranking and prestige, 22–23

C

CalTech, 22, 27

Chilean HEIs

branding in; differentiation and isomorphism, 44; market segmentation, 44–45; privatization, 43;
role of government, 44

elite institutions; Universidad del Desarrollo, 45; Universidad Diego Portales, 45–46

intermediate institutions;

Universidad Autónoma de Chile, 46; Universidad Central de Chile, 46

middle-low institutions; Universidad Miguel de Cervantes, 47;
Universidad SEK, 47

Competition

academic marketing and, 14–16, 38

branding and, 3–6, 41, 60–61

competition for students, 17–18

Flemish HEIs and, 63–64, 66, 69, 72

global competition and position-
taking, 3–6

Hong Kong HEIs and, 160–161, 164, 173–174

hubs market and, 198, 200, 203–206, 211, 214–215

Indonesian HEIs and, 145, 155 market segmentation and, 49

Mexican HEIs and, 50, 52, 56

Mozambican HEIs and, 108–113, 115–116, 137–138

privatization and, 41, 43

professional development and, 27

- regulation and, 42
  - student organizations and, 27
  - Western Balkan HEIs and, 82, 100, 103
- Content analysis, 21, 70, 83, 90, 161, 165, 175, 241
- Convergence, 64, 71–72, 74, 76
- Credibility, 9, 216, 225, 227
- Cremonini, Leon, 197–215

- D
- DownThemAll!, 165
- Drezner, Noah D., 181–191

- E
- Entrepreneurship, 14, 16, 19, 21–32, 48–49, 148, 150–154, 198
- Exotericism, 8, 85, 90, 101–102, 242

- F
- Flemish HEIs
  - conceptualizing branding content and style, 65–67; branding content, 67; branding style, 68–69
  - overview, 63–65
  - study on; data analysis, 70–71; data collection, 69–70; discussion, 74–76; findings, 71–74; methodology, 69–71
- Fundraising, 6, 161, 183, 185–187, 190–191

- G
- González-Ledesma, Miguel Alejandro, 37–61

- H
- HEI rankings
  - administrator and student perspectives on, 222–224
  - assessing credibility of, 224–225
  - creating standards for, 233–235
  - data integrity and information, 226–227
  - issues of methodology and stability, 228–230; construct validity, 229–230; data aggregation, 229; missing data, 228; normalization, 228–229; stability, 230; weighting, 229
  - legacy of, 224–225
  - overview, 221–222
  - professional schools and, 230–232; implications of rankings, 232–233; relevant aspects of professional education, 231–232
  - website and publisher legitimacy, 225–226
- Higher Education Institutional (HEI) rankings
  - administrator and student perspectives on, 222–224
  - creating standards for, 233–235
  - credibility of, 225
  - data integrity and information, 226–227
  - legacy of, 224–225
  - methodology and stability, 228–230; construct validity, 229–230; data aggregation, 229; missing data, 228; normalization, 228–230; stability, 230; weighting, 229
  - overview, 221–222
  - professional schools and, 230–233
  - website and publisher legitimacy, 225–226
- Hong Kong HEIs
  - conscious decision to brand, 166–167
  - overview, 159–161

- press releases and identity, 171–172
- student recruitment material and identity, 169–171
- studies on; conceptual framework, 161–164; data analysis methods, 165–166; data collection, 165; discussion, 172–174; findings, 166–172; methodology, 164–166; sampling, 164–165
- vision and mission statements, 167–169
- I
- Identity
- branding and, 6–7, 38–40, 50, 56, 82, 112, 153, 162, 166
  - definitions of, 163–164
  - fundraising and, 187
  - gender and, 185
  - HEIs and, 82, 108–109, 138
  - identity theory, 184
  - identity-based motivation (IBM)
    - model, 187
  - institutional, 56–57, 61
  - marginalization and, 189
  - philanthropy and, 185–186
  - press releases as, 171–172
  - social identity, 9
  - student recruitment material as, 169–171
  - visual, 167–169
- Industry and markets
- professional development, 27
  - professional relationships, 27–28
  - student organizations, 27
- Institution–industry partnerships, 17, 19, 172
- International Ranking Expert Group (IREG), 222, 224, 233–235
- Internationalization, 3, 37, 41, 50, 56–57, 67, 74, 85, 166, 200, 205, 215
- Ismandoyo, Decky A., 143–155
- L
- Lam, Queenie K.H., 159–176
- Langa, Patrício V., 105–138
- Latin America, branding in
  - degree of privatization, 41
  - differentiation/isomorphism and segmentation, 43
  - public regulation, 42
- M
- Mampaey, Jelle, 63–77
- Marginalization and, 189
- Marketing. See Academic marketing
- Marketization, 2, 63, 202, 204, 206, 211, 213, 215, 245
- McLaughlin, Gerald W., 221–236
- McLaughlin, Jacqueline E., 221–236
- McLaughlin, Joesetta S., 221–236
- Mexican HEIs
- Aliat Universidades (AU), 52
  - branding in; characterization of, 60–61; comparative analysis, 56; context and type of institution, 59; differentiation and isomorphism, 48; elite institutions, 49–50; high segment, 56–57; institutions in intermediate segment, 50–51; intermediate segment, 57; low segment, 58; low segment institutions, 51–52; market segmentation,

- 48–49; privatization, 47–48;
role of government, 48
- Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios
Superiores de Monterrey (Tec), 49–50
- Universidad del Desarrollo
Profesional (UNIDEP), 52
- Universidad del Valle de México (UVM), 50–51
- Universidad Marista (UM), 51
- Mozambican HEIs
overview, 108–111
studies on; branding in higher education, 113; findings and discussion, 136–137; literature review, 111–113; methodology, 117–119, 136; non-verbal and visual elements, 118–119;
theory, 114–115
websites as branding strategies, 113–115
websites' verbal elements, 119
- Musk, Elon, 22
- N
- Ngo, Jenny, 143–155
- O
- Organizational structures
academic context, 23–24
individual benefits, 23–24
organizational location, 22
ranking and prestige, 22–23
- P
- Papadimitriou, Antigoni, 81–103, 239–247
- Philanthropy
identity and, 185–186
philanthropic mirroring, 187–189
Private universities, 25, 44–45, 50, 83, 87, 241–242
- Q
- Qatar, as education hub case study, 207–210; education city, 209–210; Qatar's higher education, 207–209
discussion and implications, 214–215
hubs' effect on national HEI, 213–214
institutional autonomy, 212
overview, 197–198
possible effects of hubs on access patterns, 212
theory of hubs, 198–201
understanding “hub debate”, 201–207
- S
- Saichaie, Kem, 13–33
- Scholarships, 44–47, 49–52, 56–58, 186, 188, 201, 208–210, 212. See also Student aid
- Slovenia, 82
- Social identity, 185, 187, 190–191
- Strategically deployed shifter (SDS), 18, 29
- Student aid, 44–47, 58. See also Scholarships
- Student recruitment material, 169– 171
- Subtle differentiation, 73–77, 242
- Surabaya Indonesia HEIs
advertising brochures, 145–146, 150 decision to enroll, 147–148, 151

 educational brand, 144–145, 151
 overview, 143–144
 studies on; data collection, 148–149; discussion, 152–155; implication and limitation, 155; measures, 149; method, 148–149; regression analysis, 151–152; reliability and validity analysis, 149; results, 149–152; theoretical framework, 144–148

T

Tang, Hayes H.H., 159–176
 Taylor, John, 197–215
 Technical universities, 174, 176, 243
 Training and certifying student entrepreneurs curricular preparation, 24–26 student-faculty interaction, 26

U

Universidad Autónoma de Chile, 46
 Universidad Central de Chile, 46
 Universidad del Desarrollo, 45

Universidad Diego Portales, 45–46
 Universidad Miguel de Cervantes, 45–46
 Universidad SEK, 47
 University of Leuven and Limburg (UCLL), 73

W

Warshaw, Jarrett B., 13–33
 Websites, 113–115, 119
 Western Balkans
   branding and, 81–83
   English homepage analysis, 90, 101
   HEI homepage first view, 85–90
   overview, 81–82
   studies on; discussion and conclusions, 101–103; limitations, 85; main findings, 85; methodology, 83–85

Z

Zavale, Nelson C., 105–138
 Zotero, 165
 Zuckerberg, Mark, 22