

Index

A

- Aesthetics
 - community engagement project, 112
 - creativity, 110
 - vs. experiences, 107
 - production, 107
- Aforementioned themes, 3
- The Apartheid Archive Project, 183–187
- Archives
 - Apartheid Archive Project, 183–187
 - participatory research, 179–181
 - refiguring, 190, 191
- Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD) approach, 46
- Asset mapping
 - assortment, 46
 - characteristics, 45
 - community development, 46
 - community-embedded knowledge, 47
 - community research, 46
 - participatory principles, 46
 - participatory research approach, 45, 47
 - person-in context, 54–55
 - principles, 47
 - social needs, 47
 - strengths and resources, 46
 - tangible and intangible resources, 46

C

- Co-construction, 55–56
- Co-learning, 55–56
- Collaboration, 91

- Community
 - and agency, 62
 - building, 85, 86
 - participants, 48
 - project context, 48
 - reflections, 49–56
 - SCRATCHMAPS community, 48–49
 - development, 61
 - dozen community, 65
 - local members, 68
 - mapping workshops, 67
 - meetings, 67
 - members, 64
 - setting, 15–17
 - storylines, 150, 151
- Community arts and cultural development (CACD)
 - building blocks, 96
 - community celebration, 99–100
 - creative process, 97–99
 - educational contexts, 92
 - human action, 92
 - laying foundations, 95, 96
 - liberation paradigm, 91–94
 - research and practice, 92
 - soundscape development, 97
- Community Arts Network (CAN), 91
- Community Assessment Project (CAP), 46
- Community based participatory action research (CBPAR), 77, 83, 85, 86
- Community-based participatory research (CBPR), 7, 46, 166

- Community celebration
 - CAN's relationships, 99
 - creative components, 100
 - healing journey, 99
 - Narogin Stories, 100, 101
 - Noongar community, 99
 - principles for practice, 101, 102
- Community-engaged method, 4, 137–143
 - character and enactment, 134
 - The Engaging Youth Project (see The Engaging Youth Project)
 - film-making, 136
 - liberatory, 133
 - multimodal nature, 134
 - self-determination, 133
- Community Health Assets Mapping for Partnerships (CHAMP) method, 46
- Community radio
 - apartheid racial categories, 34
 - audience responsiveness, 38
 - constituencies, 33
 - cow-giving ceremony, 38
 - cultural identity, 34
 - educational material, 38
 - educational messages, 37
 - education-entertainment, 34
 - edutainment, 34, 35
 - fictional groups, 37
 - grassroots organizations, 37
 - leadership positions, 38
 - listener groups, 38
 - mother-to-child transmission, 34
 - plethora, 33
 - political and social change, 33
 - preexisting narrative, 37
 - program reach, 38
 - Radio LaBenevolencia's edutainment, 37
 - social change, 33, 34
 - stakeholders, 38
- Conflict
 - critical action, 36
 - edutainment media, 36
 - intervention, 36
 - psychological theory, 36
 - violence and promotion, 36
 - violent civil war, 36
- Conscientization, 119, 129, 130
- Consciousness, 129, 130
- Constructive storytelling
 - amicable resolution, 157
 - audio recordings, 153
 - buffer zone, 158
 - community, 150, 151, 156
 - community leaders, 157
 - conflation, 159
 - cornerstones, 149
 - dialogue and struggle, 157
 - digital, 149, 150
 - elaboration, 159
 - final common pathway, 148
 - foundational values, 160
 - group consensus, 160
 - group processes, 156
 - growth-promoting/growth-limiting, 149
 - hope and change, 153–156
 - individual stories, 157
 - as methodology, 151–153
 - model of best practices, 161
 - mutual recognition, 149, 153
 - navigating, 158
 - notion of development, 159
 - P1 and P2's stories, 156
 - partial (re)resolution, 161
 - participants' stories, 156
 - political ideologies, 158
 - rightful home, 160
 - screenwriting, 157
 - shared laughter, 161
 - shared meaning, 159
 - thinking patterns, 149
 - types, 148
 - unity in political organisations, 158
 - workshop space, 157, 161
- Cow-giving ceremony, 38
- Creative life writing
 - child's life, 14
 - comfort zone, 14
 - community-based participatory research, 5
 - community setting, 15–17
 - conventional autobiography, 6
 - exercises, 8
 - fictional and poetic techniques, 7
 - group dynamics, 14
 - hegemonic claims, 7
 - imagination impacts, 6
 - imaginative space(s), 6, 8
 - individual child/adult, 14
 - maternal presence, 15
 - migratory communities, 5
 - narratives, 9
 - personal development, 7
 - personal freedom, 5
 - personal memories, 6
 - poems list, 8
 - poetic and fictional exercises, 8
 - preoccupation, 14
 - racial politics, 6
 - research process, 7

- residue of displacement, 5
- safe-enough holding space, 14
- salon/barbershop community, 7
- sense of self, 11, 12
- spelling/grammar, 8
- story-making, 5
- television series, 5
- theory and practice, 7
- workshop, 7
- Critical community psychology
 - audience-centered model, 124
 - biomedical model's approach, 120
 - conscientization, 121
 - gaze animation, 125–127
 - gaze construction, 121–123
 - human behavior, 120
 - interiority and exteriority, 120
 - participatory research framework, 124
 - people and social determinants, 119
 - psychic realities, 120
 - psychological life, 120
 - qualitative interviewing, 124
 - rational-empirical problem-solving, 120
 - second-wave feminism, 124
 - silencing, 125
 - social context, 119
 - sociopolitical and historic circumstances, 125
 - strategies, 123
- D
- Decolonial lens, 181–183
- Decolonising participatory methods
 - fostering public mobilisation, 192, 193
 - insurgent citizenry, 193, 194
 - inter-communal spaces, 191, 192
 - reclaiming, 189, 190
 - refiguring, 190, 191
- Digital mapping
 - knowledge co-creation, 68
 - maker map, 64
- Digital storytelling, 149, 150
- E
- Ecopsychology
 - CBPAR framework, 77
 - cross-disciplinary scholarship, 77
 - liberatory community Psychology, 78–79
 - wilderness, 79–82
- Education, 73
- Education-entertainment, 34
- Edutainment, 34, 35
- Emancipatory engagements, 1
- Embroideries
 - art-form, 107
 - artistic expression, 107
 - Black African women, 108
 - categories and labels, 114
 - community engagement project, 112
 - critical bifocality, 114
 - epistemological possibilities, 107
 - exclusion/inclusion, 114
 - graphic depiction, 113
 - history, 108, 109
 - making, 111, 112
 - meaning-making, 108
 - personal artistic expression, 114
 - representation, 113
 - safe and comfortable spaces, 112
 - self-expression, 114
 - sketching/writing, 112
 - in South Africa, 112
 - structural violence, 114
 - survival, 114
 - “tell a story”, 113
 - visual method, 109–112
- The Engaging Youth Project
 - aims, 138
 - background, 137
 - characteristics, 137
 - dissemination, 142, 143
 - ethical issues, 138, 139
 - methodological standardisation, 137
 - participant-led film-making, 137
 - procedure, 139–142
 - reflexivity, 143
- Epistemic agency, 171, 175–177
- Epistemic correction, 167, 168, 172, 176, 177
- Epistemological rejuvenation, 179–181
- F
- The Footscray Maker Lab, 65
- G
- Gaze construction, 121–123
- Generative-disruptive community
 - engagement, 3
- Geographic information systems (GIS), 46
- Global knowledge, 68, 69
- Governmentality, 20, 22, 26, 27, 29
- Group processes, 151, 156, 157
- H
- Human rights and transformation, 52–54

I

Insurgent citizenry, 193, 194
 Inter-communal spaces, 191, 192
 International Religious Health Assets
 Programme (IRHAP), 48
 Intutshuko, 112

K

Key performance indicators (KPIs), 19
 Knowledge
 academic systems, 62 balance and control, 65
 binary relationship, 61
 co-creation, 63, 67 community members, 65
 decontextualized opinion, 63 digital map, 66
 epistemic violence, 62
 epistemological awareness, 62 face-to-face teaching, 61 imbalance and inequality, 62 learning and teaching, 62
 M3, 65
 maker movement, 65 middle-class professionals, 66 one-on-one conversation, 66 paradigms and epistemologies, 61
 participation, 63, 64
 people and processes, 67, 68
 politics of knowledge, 63 positive intention, 61
 positivist and realist paradigms, 63
 pre-industrial crafts, 66 scientific epistemology, 62 socio-economic groups, 65 subculture, 65
 sustainability, 66
 Knowledge production and challenges, 114
 predetermined and structured ways, 110 storytelling, 107

L

The Labour Day War project, 123, 124
 Liberation
 CACD, 91–94
 community well-being, 103
 psychologies, 92
 Liberatory, 108
 community psychology, 78–79
 practice, 9, 10
 praxis, 171–173

M

The Maribyrnong Maker Map (M3), 65
 Mass media, 35
 Memory, 187–189
 Multi-country Photovoice Project community engaged research, 170 implemented, 170 knowledge-making, 171
 liberatory praxis, 170–173
 photo exhibition, 170
 photographic exhibition, 170
 South Africa, 171
 youth voice, 170
 Multimodality community audiences, 144 community issues, 144 languages, 133, 134
 liberatory, 138
 Multiple modes of consciousness, 120, 129, 130
Musekeweya portrays, 37

N

Narratives, 187–189
 community-based participatory research, 5
 life, 6
 self-conceptions, 5
 tradition and culture, 11
 The Narrogin Stories project, 94
 Neo-liberal academy, 22
 NGO Radio LaBenevolencija Humanitarian
 Tools, 36
 Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 33

O

Oral history historical silences, 124
 participants, 124, 126
 public sphere, 124
 qualitative interviewing, 124 relationships, 125
 residents' experience, 127
 sociopolitical and historic circumstances, 125
 rational empirical problem solving, 120
 Tivoli Garden's community, 130

P

Participant-led film-making, 3, 134, 135
 Participation, 63, 64
 knowledge, 72–74
 method, 49, 133, 134
 research, 179–181

- Participatory action research (PAR), 7
- Participatory Inquiry into Religious Health Assets, Networks and Agency (PIRHANA), 46
- Peacebuilding, 148, 149, 151
- Photovoice
- CBPR, 166
 - conceptual underpinnings, 165–167
 - epistemic correction, 167, 168
 - hegemonic impulse, 165
 - liberatory potential, 166
 - limitations and constraints, 169
 - marginalised populations, 165
 - methodology, 3
 - project process, 137, 166
 - reflexivity, 166
 - researchers and participants, 166
 - youth voice, 167, 168
- Pluriversal readings
- asset mapping, 2
 - community-based participatory research, 2
 - community engagement, 4
 - emancipatory engagement, 1, 2
 - emancipatory knowledge-making, 2
 - generative-disruptive community engagement, 3
 - knowledge construction, 2
 - liberatory engagement, 2
 - meta-analysis, 3
 - narcissistic researcher, 2
 - peace psychology, 1
 - professional exchanges, 3
 - psychodynamics and cultural studies, 2
 - social transformation, 3
 - tensions and dilemmas, 3
 - transformative process, 2
- Politics of memory, 187–189
- Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 123
- Power dynamics, 50–52
- Practice, 74
- Psychic space, 10, 11
- Psychopolitical transformation, 181–183
- Psychosocial mnemonics, 187–189
- Public housing scheme, 21
- Public mobilisation, 192, 193
- Publishing, 19, 20, 26
- Re-inscription, 19, 22, 24, 25
- Research and Innovation Week (RIW), 170
- Resistance and liberation
- academic manager, 26
 - academic publishing, 19
 - academic writers, 20
 - academic writing, 21
 - allies, 21
 - clarification, 22
 - consequences, 25
 - destructiveness, 26
 - evidence-based policy, 23
 - governmentality, 22, 27
 - handbook apparatus, 20
 - human rights, 27
 - hyperbole, 20
 - indigenous communities, 21
 - indigenous problem, 28
 - interconnected constructed, 27
 - interconnected politico-economic policies, 26
 - inter-textual traces, 26
 - knowledge-projects, 21
 - mental health, 26
 - metropolitan academic writing, 21
 - mirror image, 28
 - multi-method body, 26
 - neo-liberal academic frame, 20
 - philanthropists, 25
 - policy-critical report, 25
 - positioning resistance, 20
 - postdoctoral researcher, 23
 - power-knowledged, 27
 - producers/consumers, 22
 - psychology, 22, 25, 27, 28
 - psychopathological, 24
 - qualitative research, 23
 - reference, 19
 - reinscribed, 19, 25
 - resistance skills, 22
 - scholarship-warranted writing, 24
 - systematic literature reviews, 24
 - unemployment, 23–25
 - verbal versions, 23
 - warranting, 21
 - writing publications, 20
- R
- Rational-empirical process, 3
- Reason's theory of participation, 69–72
- Reconciliation radio soap operas, 39, 40
- Reflexivity, 171, 173–176
- S
- Social justice, 52–54
- Social suffering, 93, 101
- Sociogeny, 127–129
- Sociopolitical economic-policy regime, 24

Soundscapes

- audio-collection, 96
- collective voice, 99
- community, 94, 100
- components, 99
- development, 97
- identified themes, 98
- representation, 98

South Africa, 46, 48, 55

- facilitators, 149
- political society, 157
- violence, 151

Spiritual Capacity and Religious Assets for

Transforming Community Health through Mobilizing Males for Peace and Safety (SCRATCHMAPS), 45

Stories, 187–189

Subjectivation, 26, 28

Sustainable livelihoods approach (SLA), 46

Systematic literature reviews, 24

T

Transformation

- fellow members, 148
- healing power, 148
- peacebuilding, 148
- personal stories, 148
- political actor, 148
- psychopolitical and psychosocial, 181–183
- re-storying lives, 148
- sense of situations, 147
- storytelling, 148

Trust

- community, 100
- laying foundations, 95, 96

Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC), 108, 183

U

Unemployment, 24

Unisa Art Gallery, 170

The Usiko Project, 83–85

V

Violence prevention, 39, 40

Visual methods, 109–111

- analysis and theorising, 115
- cellophane, 115
- comfort zone, 116
- interpretation, 115
- research process, 115

Voice

- African-European identity, 13
- participants, 12
- in relationship, 13
- resonance, 13
- singularity and plurality, 13
- social discourse, 13
- workshops, 12

W

West Kingston Commission of Enquiry
(WKCOE), 126

Wilderness

- in community building,
85, 86
- community organisations, 82
- community's bonding, 81
- conceptualisation of programmes, 80
- decision-making ability, 81
- ecopsychology, 79
- flexible methodology, 81
- processes invoked, 82, 83
- socio-emotional competence, 81
- WEPS, 81

Wilderness experiential programming (WEP),
78, 79, 81, 82

Y

Youth

- development, 82, 83
- and film-making, 135, 136
- participant-led film-making
(see The Engaging Youth Project)
- voice, 168