

INDEX

A

- Al-Alwani, Taha
 - ideas of, in minority fiqh, 212–213
- Al-Andalus, 25
- Al wala' wal bara*, 221–226

B

- Balkans, 25
- Barlas, Asma, 135–139
- Al-Buti, M. Said, 226–227

C

- Colonialism, 19
- Conversion
 - and identity, 149–151
 - number of, 144–145
 - and social relations, 152–155
 - theories of, 144
 - types of Islam, 146–149
- Cultural Muslims, 34

D

- Dar al harb/dar al kufr*, 221–226
- Demographics of Muslims in the West, 27

E

- European Council for Fatwa and Research (ECFR), 47–50

F

- Federation of Islamic Organisations in Europe (FIOE), 122
- Female religious authority
 - definition of, 121
 - interpretational approaches
 - underpinning, 133–139
 - women inclusive mosques, 122–125
- Fiqh al-aqaliyyat*, see Minority fiqh
- Fiqh Council of North America, 124
- Fundamentalism, see Neo-fundamentalism

G

- Gender consciousness, 121
- Gender jihad, 126–127
- Gülen, Fetullah, see Hizmet Movement (HM)

H

- Hijab*, 68–70
- Hizmet Movement (HM), 43–47
- Home-grown Islamist terrorism
 - definition of, 163–165
 - incidents and profile of, 167–169
- Huntington, Samuel, 9–10

I

- Identity construction, 56–63
 - role of Muslim woman
 - construct, 65–70
 - role of scriptural hermeneutics, 63–65
- Immigration and religion, 53–56
- Institutionalisation of Islam
 - definition of, 100–101
 - development of, 102–103
 - factors facilitating emergence, 233–236
 - processes, 104–110
- Islam councils, 111–112
- Islamic Circle of North America, 124
- Islamic Society of North America (ISNA), 123–124
- Islamism, 21
- Islam-Christian civilisation, 9–10
- Islamophobia
 - causes of, 193–197
 - critiques of, 197–202
 - definitions of, 187–188
 - manifestations and extent
 - of, 189–193
 - origins of, 184–187

J

- Jihadism
 - definition of, 166
- Judeo-Christian civilisation, 9

L

- Legalist Traditionalists, 32

M

- Manji, Irshad, 130–133
- Mattson, Ingrid, 123–124
- Militant extremists, 36, 37
- Minority fiqh
 - critique of, 226–227
 - definition, significance and purposes
 - of, 214–215
 - emergence and history of, 209–212
 - main issues in, 221–226
 - theoretical approaches to, 215–221
- Multiculturalism
 - definition of, 77
 - history of, 78–79
 - integration, 82–89
 - and Islamism, 89–95
 - retreat from, 80–82
- Muslim Arbitration Tribunals (MAT), 113–115
- Muslim Brotherhood, 49
- Muslim Council of Britain (MCB), 123
- Muslims in America, history, 26
- Muslims in Australia, history, 26

N

- Neo-fundamentalism, 19, 20, 36–37
- Nomani, Asra, 128–133

O

- Orientalism, 19

P

- Political Islamists, 34
- Privatisation of Western Muslim identity, 61–62
- Progressive Islam/Muslims/progressive ijtihadis, 37–39

Q

- Al-Qaradawi, 50
- ideas of, in minority fiqh, 213

R

- Radicalisation
 - combating of, 176–177
 - definition, 165–166
 - prisons and Internet, 172–174
 - process, models and stages of, 169–172
 - role of religion, 174–176
- Ramadan, Tariq
 - criticism of minority fiqh, 226–228
 - theory of European/Western Islam, 237–243

S

- Secular Muslims, 34
- Shariatisation, 103

- Slave trade, 26
- Sufis/Sufism, 40

T

- Theological puritans, 34–35, 47–48
- Tibbi, Bassam
 - views on Euro Islam/theory of Western Islam, 243–247
- Türkisch-Islamische Union der Anstalt für Religion (DITIB), 123

V

- Veil, see Hijab

W

- Wadud, Amina
 - gender jihad, 126–127
 - interpretational approach, 133–135
- West
 - definition of, 7

Z

- Zentralrat der Muslime in Deutschland, 123