

---

Index

A

- Academic socialization, 270, 271, 276–278
- Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT)
  - cognitive fusion, 328
  - mindfulness skills, 331
  - parent stress, 329
  - parental flexibility, 327
  - psychological flexibility, 328
  - RFT, 328
  - rule-governed behavior, 328
  - SSTP, 331
  - TBI, 328, 330
- Acculturation, 477, 484
- Acculturation gaps, 484
- ACEs, see Adverse childhood experiences (ACEs)
- Adolescence
  - aging parent's role, 655
  - antisocial behavior, 633
  - authoritative parenting, 637
  - autonomy
    - authoritarian parenting, 646
    - children leaving home, 646
    - prefrontal cortex, 645
    - problem-solving, 644, 645
    - pro-social behavior, 645
    - self-regulation, 644, 645
    - social and emotional competence, 644
  - behavior problems, 634
  - behavioral control, 635
  - cognitive and moral education, 648
  - cognitive development, 638, 639
  - competencies, 636
  - demographic trends, 635, 648
  - developmental psychology, 636
  - developmental transitions, 638
  - disability, 648
  - encouraging appropriate behavior, 642
  - evolutionary and psychodynamic theories, 637
  - family risk, 633
  - inappropriate behavior, 642
  - intervention, strengths and limitations, 647
  - maladaptive behavior, 643
  - non-cooperation behavior, 643
  - parenting variables, 634, 635
  - peer group, 635
  - peer relationships, 639, 640
  - poor parental monitoring, 634
  - protective factors, 633
  - psychological control, 635
  - puberty, 637, 638
  - risk factors, 633
  - rule setting, 642
  - self-regulatory approach, 637
  - social learning models, 637
  - societal changes, 647
  - stress, 636
  - verbal control, 643
- Adult Attachment Interview (AAI), 55, 59
- Adverse childhood events (ACEs), 300
- Adverse childhood experiences (ACEs), 15
- Adverse environments and stress
  - child maltreatment, 32
  - child-rearing effects, 35
  - genetic factors, 33
  - hormones, 35
  - HRV, 34
  - maltreatment, 34
  - neural activity, 33, 34
  - RSA, 34
  - vagal tone, 34
- Affect valuation, 480
- After Deployment Adaptive Parenting Tools (ADAPT), 527
- Aggressive behavior, 75
- Aging, 677, 678
- Albert Bandura's social cognitive theory, 610–611
- Alerting, 183–184
- American Pediatric Association, 291
- American Psychological Association, 704
- Antecedents of Agreeableness, 344
- Antenatal depression, 571
- Anterior cingulate (ACC), 188
- Anterior Cingulate Cortex (ACC), 221
- Antidiscrimination laws, 551
- Antisocial behavior, 633, 700–702, 705
  - children, 76
  - coercive social systems, 71
  - family factors, 70
  - operant learning, 71

- Anxiety
- CBT, 80
  - child's development, 319
  - impairment, 77
  - overprotective parenting, 79
  - parent-only treatments, 80
  - parents education, 80–81
  - psychopathology, 77
  - respondent learning, 77, 78
  - vicarious learning, 78
- Anxiety and depression, 713
- Anxiety Disorder Interview Schedule (ADIS), 814
- Anxiety symptoms, 572
- Anxious-ambivalent attachment, 51
- At-home parents, 514
- Attachment
- adult psychopathology, 36
  - anxious and dismissive, 36
  - anxious-ambivalent, 51
  - AQS, 53
  - avoidant, 51
  - behavioral assessment, 54
  - cortisol, 31
  - definition, 48
  - developmental consequences
    - insecure attachment, 52, 53
    - internalizing and externalizing behavior, 53
    - peer social competence, 52
    - securely attached, 52
    - self-confidence, 52
  - disorganized/disoriented, 52
  - EEG, 36
  - ERP, 31
  - familiarity/preference, 50
  - genetic, 60
  - goal directed partnership, 50
  - hormones, 37
  - HPA axis, 31
  - hyperactivation/hypoactivation, 36
  - hyper-arousal, 31
  - insecure, 30, 31, 50
  - interaction quality
    - disorganized attachment, 58
    - insecure attachment, 58
    - relationship, 57
    - secure attachment, 58
  - maintenance of proximity, 49
  - molecular genetic methods, 30
  - orientation and signals
    - limited discrimination of figure, 49
    - one/more discrimination of figure, 49
  - oxytocin, 37
  - and parental sensitivity measures, 59
  - parent-child relationship, 51
  - psychophysiological and neural activity, 31
  - relationships, 50
  - representations, 57
  - romantic partnerships, 36
  - secure, 50
  - security, 30, 36
  - social emotional responding, 36
  - Strange Situation Procedure, 53
  - Strange Situation task, 318
  - women, 37
- Attachment and Biobehavioral Catch-up (ABC), 232
- Attachment Q-Set (AQS), 53
- Attachment styles
  - insecure, 13
  - secure, 12
- Attachment theory, 448, 451
- Attachment-based theory, 716
- Attention, 556
- Attention and control of emotion, 188
- Attention deficit hyperactivity disorders (ADHD), 132, 252, 314, 315, 715, 745
- Attention network test (ANT), 181, 182
- Attributions
  - child behavior, 398
  - event-dependent, 403–405
  - negative relational schemas, 402
  - parental, 402
- Attuned parenting, 445
- Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS), 660
- Australian Early Development Census (AEDC)
  - cognitive and language development, 617
  - communication, 617–618
  - emotional development, 616–617
  - physical health and well-being, 615
  - social development, 615–616
- Australian Government: Australian Institute of Family Studies, 2010, 499
- Australian Institute of Health and Welfare (AIHW), 678
- Australian Longitudinal Survey of Australian Children (LSAC), 560
- Australian Temperament Project (ATP), 341, 344, 633
- Authoritarian parenting, 4
- Authoritative parenting, 4, 317, 318, 480, 658
- Autism, 632
- Autism Diagnostic Observation Schedule-Generic score, 815
- Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), 314
- Autonomic nervous system (ANS), 29
- Autonomy
  - ages, 640
  - children leaving home, 646
  - political/economic considerations, 640
  - prefrontal cortex, 645
  - problem-solving, 644, 645
  - pro-social behavior, 645
  - self-regulation, 638, 644, 645
  - social and emotional competence, 644
- Aversive behavior, 72
- Avoidant attached children, 51
- B
- Baby Triple P—Positive Parenting Program, 576, 577
- Bandura's social cognitive theory, 292
- Behar Preschool Behavior Questionnaire, 813
- Behavior management, 325

- Behavioral control, 635
- Beliefs
- dysfunctional, 402
  - emotions, 402
  - peer victimization, 402
  - self-reports, 401
- BELLE/VIP program, 211
- Biculturalism, 477
- Big data, 462
- Bilingualism, 179–180
- Biobehavioral reactivity, 297
- Bioecological model, 28, 444
- Biographical approach, 690
- Biopsychological theory, 39
- Bipolar affective disorder
- A&E staff, 374
  - CPNs, 373
  - hypomanic and major depressive, 373
- Bipolar disorder, 379, 380
- Brain development, 17, 18, 632, 638, 641, 644, 647
- Bridgett's model, 230
- Bronfenbrenner's ecological model, 609–610
- Bronfenbrenner's ecological systems theory, 202
- Bronfenbrenner's model, 339
- Bronfenbrenner's social ecological model, 292
- Buddhism, 480
- Building words and sentences
- attention and self-regulation, 181–189
  - bilingualism, 179–180
  - brain imaging data, 185
  - cuing task, 185
  - decoding skills, 181
  - language, 179
  - neuroimaging techniques, 180
  - professional class parents, 179
  - reading, 180–181
  - sensory, 184
  - sentences, 179
  - speech, 180
  - vocabulary, 181
- Bullying, 243, 244, 247, 252
- C
- Callous-unemotional (CU) traits, 746
- Candidate gene methods, 28
- CANparent trial, 558
- Caregivers
- categories, 688
  - defined, 680
  - dementia, 681
  - NYUCI, 688
  - REACH, 689
  - Seattle Protocols, 689
- Caregiving
- eldercare requirements, 683
  - emotional strain and guilt, 682
  - health outcomes, 681
  - leisure, 683
  - meta-analyses and meta-syntheses, 681
  - motivation and influence, 681
  - psychological distress, 682
  - sandwich caregivers, 682
  - social support, 683
  - stressors and coping mechanisms, 681
  - supervision/surveillance, 683
  - young adults, 682
  - young onset dementia, 683
- Caregiving behaviors, 395
- Caregiving relationships, 690
- Catechol-O-methyltransferase gene (COMT), 33
- Central nervous system, 192
- Centre for Community Child Health, 779
- Cerebral palsy (CP), 315
- Changes in parenting tasks
- control, 590–593
  - parenting goals and toddler development, 588
  - physical care and safety
    - motor development, 589–590
    - nutrition, 589  - power-based strategies, 590
  - socialization, 593–595
  - teaching-based strategies, 591
- Chicago School of Sociologists, 535, 538
- Child
- age and gender effects, 381
  - behavioral and emotional adaptations, 378
  - fathers and partners, 386
  - mental health difficulties, 377
  - protection, 388
  - top-down self-regulatory process, 376
  - well-being, 384
- Child abuse, 445
- Child adjustment, 526
- Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS), 778, 814
- Child Behavior Checklist, 813
- Child development
- brain development, 17, 18
  - Bronfenbrenner's ecological model, 609–610
  - child advocate, 6
  - children's behavioral and socio-emotional development, 536
  - chronosystem, 537
  - clinical observations, 297
  - collective socialization model, 538
  - communities and systems, 535
  - community characteristics, 543–544
  - community factors, 536
  - contagion theory, 538
  - contextual factors, 544
  - contextual frameworks, 535
  - correlational studies, 298
  - eco-bio-developmental model, 538
  - ecological level, 538
  - education support, 7
  - emotional care, 5
  - environmental factors, 544
  - environments/ecological systems, 536
  - Erik Erikson theory, 611–612

- Child development (cont.)
- exosystem, 537
  - family environment, 535
  - grandparents, 14
  - housing characteristics
    - chaos, 539
    - crowding, 539
    - home ownership, 540
    - housing quality, 538
    - noise exposure, 539
    - parenting practices, 540
    - residential mobility, 539
  - impact of interventions, 544
  - implications, 536
  - influence behavior, 535
  - intervention research, 300
  - language and communication, 18
  - learn new skills, 319, 325
  - learning, 67
  - life skills and mentoring, 6
  - longitudinal studies, 298–299
  - low-income families, 544
  - macrosystem, 537
  - manage behavior, 325
  - mesosystem, 537
  - microsystem, 537
  - moral and spiritual guidance, 7
  - neighborhoods, 536
  - peer relationships, 19
  - physical care and nurturance, 5
  - physical health, 19
  - physiological markers, 299
  - policy and practice, 545–546
  - providing boundaries and limits, 6
  - providing guidance, 5
  - RCT families, 545
  - reviews and meta-analyses, 299
  - safe and secure environment, 319
  - school playing, 609
  - schooling and academic success, 19
  - social disorganization theory, 538
  - social-emotional, 18
  - social-emotional maturation, 67
  - socialization, 5
  - social support, 13
  - tasks and challenges
    - AEDC (see Australian Early Development Census (AEDC))
    - children with disabilities, 618
    - parenting gifted and talented children, 618
    - transition to formal schooling, 612
  - work-family conflict, 14
- Child development and parenting
- bidirectional influences, 338
  - born criminals and bad breeding, 338
  - child individuality, 339
  - child temperament and personality, 339
  - child's characteristics, 338
  - conceptual development, 338
  - contexts, 339
  - exosystem and macrosystem factors, 339
  - genetics and neural systems, 339
  - maternal deprivation, 338
  - natural progression, 338
  - nature- and nurture-oriented viewpoints, 338
  - noble savage, 338
  - temperamental characteristics, 338
  - transactional model, 338
  - unidirectional process, 337
- Child emotional and behavioral problems, 725
- Child Health Utility Nine Dimensions (CHU9D), 813
- Child individuality
- age, 340
  - bidirectional and interactional processes, 354
  - biological influences, 361–362
  - birth and throughout development, 358
  - child's intense feelings, 357
  - child-focused interventions, 356
  - chronic illness, 354
  - CLK program, 355
  - ecological focus, 360
  - emotion coaching, 356
  - emotionally flooded, 356
  - evidence-based intervention programs, 354
  - gender, 340
  - health management organization, 355
  - individual differences, parenting, 358–359
  - inherited component, 358
  - INSIGHTS, 354
  - macro level, 357
  - mental health conditions, 354
  - mother–child relationship, 357
  - neglect of fathers, 361
  - neurobiology, 358
  - sociocultural background, 357
  - statistical interaction terms, 362
  - taught skills, 357
  - temperament-based prevention and intervention programs, 354
  - temperament-focused interventions, 359–360
  - TIK, 355
  - TOTS, 355
  - Western middle-class samples, 360–361
- Child maltreatment, 518
- cognitive tasks, 34
  - deployment, 519
  - military and community families, 518
- Child maltreatment policies, 556
- Child mental health and wellbeing
- universal parenting programs
    - externalizing behavior problems, 731–733
    - internalizing behavior problems, 733–734
    - study populations and interventions, 717–725
- Child protection system, 556
- Child trauma
- differences, 144
  - limitations, 160
  - parent intervention, 145
  - parenting interventions, 145, 148, 153, 154
  - protective shield, 144–145

- similarities, 144
- Child's language skill, 177
- Child-centered interventions, 384
- Childhood development, 699
- Childhood mortality, 677
- Children
  - cope with deployment, 522
  - deployment, 521
  - emotional and behavioral problems, 522
  - emotional functioning, 521
  - hyperactivity, 523
  - LDC, 523, 524
  - mental health functioning, 522
  - parental separations, 523
  - psychological functioning, 522
  - PTSD, 522
  - SEB, 521–523
- Children of parents with mental illness (COPMI), 372
- Children's development
  - activity measures, 122
  - attachment, 125–126
  - behavior dysregulation, 132
  - child social skills, 132
  - cognitive development, 130–131
  - components, 122
  - consequences of father involvement, 124
  - coparenting and father involvement, 134
  - cultures, 135–136
  - and EF, 131
  - emotional Development, 128–129
  - emotion-related parenting practices, 128–129
  - evidence base, 136
  - father-child relationships, 124
  - history, 121–122
  - internalizing problems, 133
  - language, 129–130
  - parental behavior and influence, 123
  - paternal involvement, 122
  - paternal mental health, 134
  - policy and practice, 137
  - social development, 126–127
- Children's functioning
  - bidirectional influences, 289
  - biological and genetic components, 289
  - Bronfenbrenner's social ecological model, 293
  - child activity levels, 291
  - child health and development, 291
  - child health care, 305
  - child health outcomes, 301
  - child nutrition, 291
  - child's negative reaction, 290
  - child's proximal and distal environments, 301
  - childhood obesity, 290
  - children's development, 289
  - children's reactions, 290
  - chronic health conditions, 290–291
  - context-based theories, 291
  - descriptive theories, 291
  - ecological environment, 290
  - etiologial factors, 289
  - evidence base, 300–301
  - evidence-based solutions and interventions, 290
  - integrating biological mechanisms, 296–297
  - parental modeling and healthy eating, 295–296
  - parenting behaviors and child health, 294–295
  - parenting style, 302
  - pathophysiological processes, 302
  - physical activity, 289, 290
  - policy and practice, 302–304
  - psychological construct-based theories, 291
  - sedentary activity, 289, 291
  - socio-psycho-biological models, 302
- Children's language and communication
  - academic performance, 202
  - behavior and children, 205
  - biobehavioral markers, 204
  - child-focused interactions, 206
  - children's language trajectories, 208
  - communication, 204
  - community level, 210
  - ecological systems theory, 203
  - effectiveness and sustainability, 203
  - gender, 205
  - income backgrounds, 205
  - individual adult behaviors, 204
  - intervention studies, 206–207
  - language-learning environments, 203
  - learning, 201
  - linguistic and cognitive skills, 202
  - literature, 207
  - macrosystem, 203
  - meta-analyses, 206
  - parent characteristics, 204
  - parent language interventions, 207
  - parent training, 206
  - parenting interventions, 209
  - phonological awareness, 202
  - policy and practice, 209–211
  - population level, 209
  - population-level approach, 210
  - quality of parent-caregiver interactions, 204
  - responsive parenting, 204
  - SES, 209
  - social experiences, 202
  - socioeconomic status, 201
  - vocabulary growth, 201
- Christian conservatism, 479
- Christianity, 481
- Chronic illness, 352–353
- Chronological age, 677, 678
- Chronosystem, 610
- Circumplex model, 657
- Coalition to Stop the Use of Child Soldiers, 149
- Coercion, 700–701
- Coercive behavior, 75, 76
- Coercive parent-child interaction, 71, 72
- Cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), 80, 327, 379
- Cognitive development, 30, 31, 34, 39, 638, 639
- Cognitive emotion regulation strategies, 376
- Cognitive processes, 70

- Cognitive-contextual theory, 100
 Collaborative Partnership Adaption model (CPAM), 789
 Community, 452
 Community-based interventions, 384
 Community characteristics, 543–544
 Community indicators, 789 Community psychiatric nurses (CPNs), 373
 Comorbid difficulties, 389
 Compartmentalization hypothesis, 417, 422
 Compassion-based approaches, 668
 Compensation hypothesis, 416
 Conduct disorder (CD), 70, 746, 801 Conduct problems (CP) conceptualization, 747–748 diagnostic criteria, epidemiology, and developmental pathways, 746–747 evidence-based psychosocial treatments, 751 family-based interventions
     adolescents, 751–752
     PMT for children, 748–751
   social-ecological model, 751
 Conduct-problem behavior, 634
 Conflicts of interest (COI), 790
 Conflictual sibling relationships, 245
 Confucianism, 474
 Conscientiousness, 344
 Constructive conflict, 103
 Contingent negative variation (CNV), 183
 Cool Little Kids (CLK) program, 355
 Coparenting collaborative, 98 conflict, 417
   couple education, 110 couple relationship, 109
   definition, 417
   division of parental labor, 417 divorced couples, 427
   FST, 417
   interventions, separated parents, 111–112 and interparental relationship, 417 mutual support, 417 parental individual adjustment problems, 99 positive effect, 109 real-world scenario, 418 relationship satisfaction, 104
   shared decision making, 417 spillover hypothesis, 421
   stepfamilies, 428
 Coping and adjustment, 513
 Coping strategies, 382
 Cost-benefit analysis (CBA), 802
 Cost-consequences analysis, 802
 Cost-effectiveness analysis (CEA), 801
 Cost-minimization analysis (CMA), 802
 Cost-utility analysis (CUA), 801, 802
 Couple coparenting, 104
 Couple Coping Enhancement Training (CCET), 113 Couple interaction, 98–100, 112, 113 Couple interventions, 105–111
   coparenting interventions, separated parents, 111–112 couple relationship education content and outcomes, 106–110 large-scale failures, 110–111
   transition to parenthood, 105–106
   issues, enhance child outcomes, 112–113 negotiating, 112, 113 parents in intact families, 110 randomized controlled trials, transition to parenthood, 107–109
 Couple relationship
   child adjustment, 112
   ecological model of parental relationships, 98–100 parent offspring relationship, 104 parental separation and family instability, 101–102 parenting and adjustment of children, 98
   parenting interventions, 105, 112
   parents education
   effective couple programs, 110
   large-scale failures, 110–111 positive parenting and child adjustment, 110 randomized controlled trials, 106 transition to parenthood, 105–106
   satisfaction, 99, 104 theories, influence children
   cognitive-contextual theory, 100
   emotional-security theory, 100
   social learning theory, 100
 Couple Relationship Education (CRE), 429
 Couple relationship satisfaction, 104
 Couple-oriented program on child adjustment, 430
 Couple-oriented treatments (CRE), 430, 431
 Couples Coping Enhancement Training (CCET), 430 Criminal justice system, 708
 Cultural Background and Religious Beliefs, 822
 Cultural differences, 662, 663
 Cultural safety, 687
 Culture accountability, 16
   acculturation, 16
   independent, 472 indigenous parenting
   African American, 475
   guan/training, 474
   shaming, 475
   parental control, 473
   self-enhancement, 473 self-improvement, 473
   socialization, 472, 473
   USA, 469
 Cyber bullying, 245
- D
 Decoding skills, 180
 Dementia
   and relationships, 679–680 infantilization and parentification, 678 Dementia Adventure, 691
 Deployment
   alcohol problems, 517

- household management and parenting, 515
- peacekeeping operations, 516
- relationship functioning, 521
- women, 524
- Destructive conflict, 103
- Determinants of parenting, 416, 429
- Developmental disability, 315–317
  - ADHD, 314, 315
  - ASD, 314
  - CP, 313–315
  - diagnosis process, 313, 314
  - Down syndrome, 315
  - intellectual impairment, 313
  - parental tasks and responsibilities, 320–325
  - parenting issues
    - attributions, 316, 317
    - expectations, 316
    - grief and loss, 315, 316
    - planning and preparation, 317
  - TBI, 315
  - Williams syndrome, 315
- Developmental Psychopathology (DP), 443, 457, 462
- Developmental schism theory, 656
- Deviancy training, 242
- Diathesis-stress model, 345
- Differential susceptibility, 345, 349, 353
- Diffusion tensor imaging (DTI), 176, 187
- Disability Adjusted Life Years (DALYs), 808
- Discrimination
  - African Americans, 704
  - anxiety and depression, 704
  - children and adolescents, 705
  - diversity/multicultural training, 707
  - participants, 704
  - prejudice, 707, 708
  - rebound effect, 707
  - social psychologists, 707
  - stereotypes, 707
  - stigmatized groups, 707, 708
  - stress, 704
  - well-being, 704–705
- Disorganized/disoriented attachment, 52, 58
- Disruptive behavior
  - adult mental health problems, 70
  - aggression, 71
  - coercive behaviors, 72
  - family factors, 70
  - operant learning, 71
  - parenting practices, 74
- Divorce
  - child-rearing, 421
  - coparenting
    - child maladjustment, 422
    - compartmentalization hypothesis, 422
    - good divorce hypothesis, 422
    - predictors, 423
  - DEP, 432, 433
  - emotions and behaviors, 432
  - joint custody, 422
  - parenting of partners, 422
  - Divorce education programs (DEP), 432, 433
  - Dopamine, 189
  - Dopamine 4 receptor gene (DRD4), 189
  - Double-bind effect, 658
  - Down syndrome, 315
  - Dunedin Multidisciplinary Health and Development Study, 341
  - Dyadic coping, 428
  - Dyadic Parent-Child Interactive Coding System-Revised, 813
- E
  - Early emerged young adults (EEYA)
    - circumplex model, 657
    - living at home, 657
    - NSFH, 657
    - transitions, 656
  - Early Intensive Behavioral Interventions (EIBI), 319, 325
  - Early Intervention Foundation, 788
  - Early life stress model, 53
  - Ecological Systems Theory, 535, 537
  - Economic benefits
    - child mental health, 815
    - childhood anxiety disorders, 816
    - cost-effectiveness, 799, 802, 803, 808, 810, 815, 816
    - disease-specific outcomes, 815
    - economic evaluation, 801–803
    - economic evaluation methods, 811–812
    - economic evaluation studies, 817
    - economists, 800
    - environment, 816
    - general characteristics, 804–807
    - governments, 800
    - markets, 800
    - parental and child outcomes, 799
    - parenting interventions, child health, 803–808
    - policy and practice, 817–818
    - quality of life, 815
    - sectors of society, 816
    - treatment-as-usual, 817
    - value/benefit or utility, 800
    - value-for-money, 799, 800
  - Economic security, 677
  - Effortful control, 176, 186, 226
  - Electrocardiography (ECG), 29
  - Electroencephalography (EEG), 29
  - Emery's model, 102
  - Emotion-coaching techniques, 233
  - Emotion regulation (ER)
    - child rearing environment, 229
    - childhood, 223–224
    - children's ability, 220
    - components, 219
    - defiant/aggressive behaviors, 220
    - depressive symptoms, 220
    - externalizing behavior problems, 220
    - internal and external processes, 219
    - maternal responses, 231
    - parenting

- Emotion regulation (ER) (cont.) mechanisms, 227 negative emotional states, 228
 psychological control, 228 responsiveness and positive control, 228 tripartite model, 227
- Emotional-Security Theory, 100
- Emotional self-regulation skills, 636
- Epigenetics, 29, 33, 38, 176, 462
- Epstein's six types of involvement, 619, 620
- Erik Erikson theory, psychosocial development, 611–612
- Error related negativity (ERN), 187
- Ethnic identity, 476
- Ethnic minority
 African American, 469
 Asian American, 469
 bilingual, 484 culturally adapted programs, 484 immigration history and status, 481
 Latino American, 469 mental health programs, 484
 NWH, 470 racial experiences, 481 social change, 481
- Ethnotheories
 child-rearing goal, 471 collectivism/interdependence, 472
 culture, 472
 generative tension, 472
 implicit beliefs and ideas, 471 individualism/independence, 472
 symbiotic harmony, 472
- European Social Surveys, 554
- EuroQol Five Dimensions Youth version (EQ-5D-Y), 813
- Event-dependent attributions ADHD, 404
 child behavior, 403
 child internalizing problems, 403 developmental disabilities/medical problems, 403 mothers' emotional reactions, 404
 self-regulation skills, 404
- Event-related potential (ERP), 31
- Evidence-based interventions, 577, 761–762
- Evidence-based parenting programs (EBPPs), 668
- Evidence-based parenting support (EBPS)
 antisocial behavior, 83
 child disruptive, 83 cognitive behavioral approaches, 778 cognitive processes, 84
 community, 777
 context of parenthood, 779–781 disruptive, 83
 Every Family Australian Triple P System Population trial, 792 evidence-based parenting programs, 777
 externalizing problems, 83 father participation, 791 impact of childhood adversity, 781–782 monitoring and enhancing program fidelity, 790–791 operant processes, 83 parenting and child outcomes, 778–779
 parenting interventions, 778, 791
 parenting programs, 782–783 policy and service priorities, 778 population, 790 population-based approach, 791 problem-focused approach, 778
 prosocial behavior, 84
 prosocial development, 777
 social learning theory, 778 social, emotional and academic outcomes, 782–783 strengthening evidence, 789–790 systems-contextual approach, 791
- Evidence-based practice, 21
- Evocative gene, 33
- Evolutionary theory, 654
- Examining brain changes anatomy, 174 functional imaging, 175 resting state imaging, 175 structural images, 174–175
- Executive attention network, 185
- Executive control, 185–189
- Executive function (EF), 11, 21, 37, 131, 225, 226, 678
- Executive network, 185
- Expectations
 academic performance, 401
 adult's parenting experience, 400
 ASD, 401
 child behavior, 396, 398
 children's learning/intelligence, 401
 parenthood, 400
- Expressed emotion (EE), 378
- Externalizing behavior, 452
- Eyberg Child Behavior Inventory (ECBI), 808, 810
- F
- Face-to-face bullying, 245
- Facilitative parenting, 18–19
- Families influence OECD, 453
 quality of marriage
 adult nurturing experience, 455
 affective spillover, 453, 454
 bringing the baby home, 454, 455
 domestic violence, 455
 family risk, 454
 high-conflict, 453
 stress and coping, 454
- Families Overcoming Under Stress (FOCUS), 527
- Familism, 474, 655
- Family and child policies, 39
- Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), 554
- Family-based treatment
 adolescents, 753, 755
 child and adolescent CP, 745 child and adolescent outcomes, 756 comorbid disorders, 754 comparison studies, 755

- core intervention component, 762
- CP (see Conduct problems (CP))
- economic analyses, 758
- evaluations, 758
- evidence base, 752
- generalization and social validity, 753–754
- implementation, 757–758
- mechanisms and moderation, 755–757
- meta-analytic studies, 753
- personalizing intervention, 759
- PMT, 756
- prevention, 762
- programs, 761
- real-world settings, 762
- subgroup of children and youth, 757
- Family caregivers, 689
- Family-focused policy
  - birth rates, 553
  - government initiatives, 553
  - welfare approach, 554
- Family interactions
  - child and adolescent development, 699
  - discrimination (see Discrimination)
  - economic security, 706
  - efficacy, 705
  - family interventionists, 708
  - implications, 706
  - parenting, 705
  - poverty (see Poverty)
  - problem behaviors (see Problem behaviors)
  - problem development, 699
  - public policy, 706–707
  - Sweden, 700
  - USA, 699
- Family Links Nurturing Program (FLNP), 732
- Family policy, 555
- Family relationships
  - adult child caregivers, 684
  - ageist stereotypes, 684
  - assessment process, 687
  - care dyads, 686
  - caregiver and care recipient, 685
  - cognitive function, 687
  - families featuring issues, 685
  - family systems perspectives, 686
  - financial management, 684
  - interdependent, 687
  - interests' principle, 684
  - iterative cycle, 686
  - LGTBI, 687
  - managing financial assets, 684
  - mutuality, 685
  - power imbalance, 684
  - self-adaptive function, 686–687
  - social isolation, 685
  - strained relationships, 685
- Family Stress Model, 502
- Family Support Services, 778
- Family systems theory (FST), 416, 716
- Father involvement, 121–123, 132, 134, 137, 138
- Father vulnerability hypothesis, 420, 421
- Fathering, 35
- Federal and state governments, 551
- Fidelity, 485
- Financial management, 684
- Fly-in/Fly-out (FIFO), 511
- Foetal Alcohol Syndrome (FASD), 557
- Forced displacement
  - adverse outcomes, children, 156
  - parent interventions, 159
  - protective factors
    - child/youth-level, 158
    - community-level, 159
    - parent/family-level, 158–159
  - risk factors
    - child/youth-level, 156–157
    - community-level, 158
    - parent/family-level, 157
- Freud's psychoanalytic theory, 337
- Frontal parietal (FP) network, 181
- Functional ability, 677
- Functional magnetic resonance imaging (fMRI), 174–175
- Funding and delivery models, 21
- G
- Gender, 351–352
- Gender effects, 381
- Gene × environment interactions, 174, 175
- Gene by environment (GxE) interactions, 190
- Generation Parent Management Training—Oregon (GenerationPMTO) program, 751
- Generativity, 654
- Genes and environment, 176
- Genes and parenting, 189–191
- Genetics
  - adaptive vs. maladaptive functioning, 33
  - behavioral genetic predictive models, 38
  - candidate gene methods, 28
  - COMT, 33
  - DNA and RNA variation, 28
  - DNA variations, 33
  - environmental factors, 29
  - evocative gene, 33
- Goodness of fit, 345, 349, 353
- Grandmother
  - Australian study, 456
  - Bandura's social persuasion, 457
  - DP, 457
  - emotional support, 457
  - family structures, 457
  - gender mattered, 458
  - hypothesis, 456, 655
  - race mattered, 458
- Grandparent Triple P (GTP), 665
- Grandparent–parent relationship, 662
- Grandparents, 14
  - childcare role, 658, 659
  - conflicts, 658

Grandparents (cont.)
 co-parenting, 658
 double-bind effect, 658
 family well-being, 659, 660
 Gray's Behavioral Inhibition System (BIS), 343 Grief
 ASD and delayed language, 316
 components, 316
 multifaceted experience, 316
 Grounded theory methodology, 685
 Growth-promoting parenting, 450

H

Hanf-based PMT programs, 750
 Happy Couples and Happy Kids
 (HCHK), 431
 Harsh aggressive parenting, 451
 Health care policies, 556
 Health inequality, 714 Heart-rate variability (HRV), 34, 220
 Helicopter parenting, 17
 High-risk parents, support
 NFP, 447
 postpartum depression, 447
 Home-based involvement, 275, 276 Home-school partnership academic and developmental outcomes, 619 benefits, 621–622
 children's self-efficacy, 620 collaborating with community, 619 decision making, 619 learning at home, 619
 LGBTQIA parents, 623 parent's role, 620–621
 parenting, 619
 policy and practice, 622–623
 special populations, 623 two-way communication, 619 volunteering, 619
 Hormones
 cortisol, 30 fathering, 35
 HPA, 30
 oxytocin, 37
 stress response, 30
 Human brain development attention and self-regulation, 174
 brain study, 173 cell assemblies, 173 cognitive functions, 191
 language, 173, 177–178
 language acquisition, 178 network training methods, 191 phonemes, 178 speech patterns, 178
 temperament, 176
 Hypothalamus–pituitary–adrenal
 (HPA), 27

I

Implicit Association Test (IAT), 399
 Income disparity, 15
 Incremental cost-effectiveness ratios (ICERs), 801 Independence skills, 636
 Indigenous parenting
 African American, 475
 familism, 474
 filial piety, 474
 guan/training, 474
 respeto, 474
 shaming, 475
 Individual conflict, 656
 Individualistic and collectivistic values, 482, 483
 Infancy
 parental responses to nighttime awakenings, 597 parental responsiveness and sensitivity, 593
 parenting behaviors, 592
 physical care and safety
 motor development, 589–590
 nutrition, 589 sleep difficulties, 598 sleep problems, 600 sleep quality, 598
 sleep–wake regulation, 598
 toddlerhood, 586, 592
 Information technology, 17
 Intellect/openness, 344
 Interaction quality
 attachment relationship, 57
 disorganized attachment, 58
 insecurely attached children, 58 instructional tasks, 58 parental interactive behavior, 59 securely attached children, 57, 58
 Intergenerational transmission of parenting (ITP) adaptation, 450
 attachment theory, 448, 451
 child abuse, 449
 cognitive, 450 contextual risk factors, 450 covariates, 449
 definition, 447
 externalizing behavior problems, 451
 growth-promoting parenting, 450
 harsh aggressive parenting, 451
 hypothesis test, 449
 learning, 450
 parent's substance abuse, 451 parental dysfunction, 450 parental rejection and overprotection, 451
 PBI, 449
 Transmission Gap, 448
 International Child Development Programme (ICDP), 717 International Social Survey Programme, 554 Interparental conflict anger, 417
 children's behavior, 428 compensation hypothesis, 416
 coparenting, 427

- distress, 416
  - dyadic coping, 428
  - emotional unavailability, 419
  - externalizing vs. internalizing problems, 418, 419
  - FST, 416
  - intimate partner violence and parenting, 426
    - micro-analytic level, 416
    - parent-child interactions, 419
    - parenting and discipline, 520
    - parents' relationship quality, 428
    - partner support training, 431
    - punishment, 418
    - spillover pathways, 418, 419, 428
    - unidirectional approach, 427
  - Intimate partner violence (IPV), 420
  - Intimate relationship
    - CCET, 430
    - couple-oriented program on child adjustment, 430
    - CRE, 429–431
    - HCHK, 431
    - IPV, 420
    - Positive Parenting Program, 429
    - RCT, 430
  - Intrusive parenting, 658
  - Investment model
    - achievement-related benefits, 266
    - balancing monetary and time-related resources, 265
    - caregivers, 264
    - chronic health conditions, 265
    - family stress model, 266–267
    - influences, 266
    - learning materials and stimulating experiences, 264
    - learning opportunities, 264
    - parental employment, 265
    - parental resources, 265
    - physical home environment, 265
    - social capital, 265
- J
- Joint attention, 185
  - Journey of Hope (JoH), 148
- K
- Kaufman Test of Educational Achievement (KTEA-II), 280
  - Kopp's model, 221, 223
- L
- Language acquisition, 177
  - Language and communication, 18
  - Language nutrition, 210
  - Language-promoting interventions, 210
  - Latinos in Context (LINC)s, 280
  - Learning activities, 204
  - Left-behind children, 525
  - Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, or Intersex (LGBTBI), 687
  - Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex and Asexual (LGBTQIA) Students, 624, 625
  - Liberal welfare state approach, 554–555
  - Logistic regression analyses, 682
  - Long-distance commuting (LDC)
    - adjustment, 513
    - at-home parents, 515
    - Australia, 524, 526
    - child adjustment, 526
    - child emotions and behavior, 515
    - child maltreatment, 518, 519
    - children, 523
    - consequences, 512
    - coping, 515, 526
    - couple and coparenting, 520
    - families, 512
    - FIFO/DIDO, 511
    - harsh/coercive discipline, 518
    - longitudinal approaches, 526
    - mental health, 516
    - multi-informant methodology, 524
    - personal consequences, 517
    - policy and practice, 527
    - qualitative research, 514
    - separation and reunion, 515
    - telecommunications technology, 514
    - transition, 513
    - work patterns, 512
  - Longitudinal laboratory study, 189
  - Longitudinal studies, 192
  - Loving-Kindness Meditation (LKM), 668
  - Low- and middle-income countries (LAMICs), 263
  - Low-dose intervention, 714
- M
- Marital conflict, 245
  - Maternal psychopathology, 571
  - Maternal responsiveness, 204
  - Mediational models, 347
  - Meditation, 191
  - Mental Development Index (MDI) scores, 130
  - Mental health, 715
    - at-home parents, 516
    - children, 516
    - diagnosis, 516
    - LDC, 517
    - parent gender, 517
    - PTSD, 517, 518
    - US Army personnel, 516
  - Mental health problems, 713, 716
  - Mental Health services, 789
  - Mental illness, 375
    - child outcomes, 375
    - difficulties, 375
    - SMI (see Serious mental illness (SMI))
  - Migration
    - acculturation, 477, 486
    - Africa, 469
    - discrimination, 482

- Migration (cont.)
 and immigrant families, 482
 Latino parents, 484
 Muslim, 482
- Milieu and Pre-Linguistic Milieu Teaching Approaches, 211
- Military families
 at-home parents, 515
 child adjustment, 526
 child maltreatment, 518, 519
 children, 523
 coping, 526
 couple relationship, 520
 deployment, 519
 harsh/coercive discipline, 518
 longitudinal approaches, 526
 multi-informant methodology, 524
 parental separation, 513
 policy and practice, 527
 prolonged and recurrent separation, 512 telecommunications technology, 514
 transition, 513
- Mindfulness meditation, 191
- Minnesota Executive Function Scale (MEFS™ App), 225
- Moderational models, 349
- Monoamine neurotransmitters, 27
- Motherese*, 177
- Motivational development models, 275
- Multi-attribute utility instruments (MAUIs), 808, 813, 816
- Multidisciplinary context-based perspective assessment of child development theories, 292 Bronfenbrenner's social ecological model, 293
 child health, 292 child health intervention development, 292
 chronosystem, 293
 clinical and research efforts, 292 context-based theories, 292
 feedback loop, 294 intervention-based approaches, 292
 macrosystem, 293
 mesosystem, 293
 microsystem level, 293, 294
 parenting behaviors, 292
 social cognitive theory, 294
 social ecological model, 294
- Multi-level system community change processes, 787 minimal sufficiency, 783
 "One Size Fits All" Approach, 783–784 parental self-regulation, 785–786 parents' preferences, consumers, 784–785 phases of life cycle, 786–787
- Multiple theoretical models, 568
- Multisystemic Therapy (MST), 751
- N
- National Disability Insurance Scheme, 790
- National Institute of Child Health and Development Study of Early Child Care, 135
- National Institute of Health and Care Excellence (NICE), 788, 801
- National Survey of Family and Households (NSFH), 657
- Natural disasters adverse outcomes for children, 145
 parent interventions, 148–149
 post-disaster environment, 145 protective factors, 147–148
 risk
 community-level, 147
 individual child/youth-level, 145–146
 parent/family-level, 146–147
- Neighborhood infrastructure, 16 physical environment, 16 social environment, 16
- Neighborhood characteristics collective efficacy, 542 micro-level processes, 543 poverty levels, 540, 541 racial/ethnic diversity, 541 residential instability, 541 social cohesion and social control, 542 structural characteristics, 540
- Neural activity
 adverse environments and stress, 33, 34
 ANS, 29
 ECG, 29
 EEG, 29, 36
 ERN, 35
 ERP, 34, 35
 fMRI, 29
 MRI, 29
 "P3b" amplitude, 35
 RSA, 37
 sMRI, 29
- Neuroscience, 192
- Neuroticism, 344
- New York City Department of Education (NYCDOE), 268
- New York Longitudinal Study, 338, 340
- New York University Caregiver Intervention (NYUCI), 688
- NICHD Early Child Care Research Network (2009), 127
- NICHD Study of Early Child Care and Youth Development, 132
- Nurse Family Partnership (NFP), 447
- Nurturing society, 709
- NYC DOE Program Quality Standards, 268
- O
- Observational learning, 318
- Operant learning, 68, 69
 prosocial behavior, 82
- Oppositional defiant disorder (ODD), 70, 746
- Organisation for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD), 453
- Orienting, 184–185
- Outcomes for children
 ACT, 327, 328
 ASD, DS and CP, 327

- parenting behaviors, 326
- PECS, 327
- social communication, 326
- SSTP, 326, 327
- ToM, 326
- Overprotective parenting, 79, 80
- Oxytocin, 37

- P
- Parasympathetic nervous system, 221
- Parent Account of Child Symptoms (PACS), 813
- Parent–adult children relationships
  - aging population, 664
  - Chinese families, 663
  - compassion-based approaches, 668
  - early childhood, 654
  - East Asian cultures, 663
  - GTP, 665
  - heterogeneity, 666, 667
  - long-term data, 667–668
  - PAR, 668
  - policy and practice, 669
  - social interaction, 663
  - study limitation, 664
  - WEIRD, 666
  - Western cultures, 662
  - White grandparents, 662
- Parent cognitions
  - attributions, 402, 403
  - beliefs, 401, 402
  - caregiving behaviors, 395
  - child-rearing situations, 396
  - dual-processing models, 400, 408
  - dynamic/ongoing, 396
  - expectations, 396, 400, 401, 408
  - explicit, 398, 399
  - genetic/epigenetic, 408
  - IAT, 399
  - implicit, 398, 399
  - neglectful mothers, 398
  - parenting role
    - attitudes, 405
    - self-efficacy, 406
  - self-regulation, 408
  - self-regulation abilities, 397
  - social cognition, 396
  - stable, 396
  - study strengths and limitations, 406, 407
  - variables, 397
- Parent Development Interview (PDI), 56
- Parent engagement, 619, 620, 622, 623
- Parent management training (PMT)
  - approach, 748
  - behavior management techniques, 748
  - comorbid child internalizing problems, 754
  - effectiveness, 750
  - efficacy, 753
  - evidence-based, 749, 750
  - evidence-based treatments, 753
  - group-based, 760
  - Hanf-based, 750
  - intervention effects, 753
  - interventions, 749, 763
  - mechanism, child behavior change, 755
  - meta-analysis, 757
  - parent–child interaction, 748
  - parenting strategies, 752
  - programs, 754, 757, 759
  - setting generalization, 753
  - social learning-based, 748
  - social validity, 754
  - strategies, 750
  - time-out, 749
  - treatment interventions, 762
- Parent Management Training-Oregon model, 527
- Parent mental illness, 781
- Parent support
  - economic modelling, 20
  - parenting programs, 20
  - social learning principles, 20
- Parent training, 75, 483
- Parent training programs, 713
- Parental advocacy, 621
- Parental and family leave policies, 32, 33
- Parental conflict
  - adolescents, 103
  - children’s adjustment, 100
  - chronic, 103
  - constructive conflict, 103
  - destructive conflict, 103
  - effects, 103
  - intensity and duration, 103
  - research, 104
- Parental control, 473
- Parental identity, 678, 679
- Parental mental health and wellbeing
  - universal parenting programs
    - effectiveness, 739
    - effects, 735
    - externalizing and internalizing problems, 736
    - population-level changes, 737
    - results, 735
    - study populations and interventions, 734–735
- Parental self-efficacy, 785
- Parental separation, 101–102, 104, 105
- Parental work absences
  - child and parent adjustment, 513
  - consequences, 512
  - coping and adjustment, 513
  - LDC (see Long-distance commuting (LDC))
  - Military families (see Military families)
- Parent–child interaction style, 206
- Parent–child interaction therapy, 355, 782
- Parent–child interactions, 211, 703, 704
- Parent-child relationship, 50
  - attachment, 51 (see Attachment)
  - child attachment, 47
  - interacting components, 48
  - interactional behaviors, 48

- Parent-child relationship (cont.)
 psychosocial risk factors, 60
 representations, 48, 51
 SES, 60
- Parent-child relationship, 402, 405, 560, 678, 683
 CP, 748, 760
 development and maintenance of adolescent CP, 747 emotion-regulation strategy, 749
 PMT, 748–750
 positive interaction, 371
 reinforcing, 750
- Parent-focused interventions, 303
- Parenthood
 antenatal classes, 575
 attitudes, 568
 biological changes, 568 cognitive changes, 568–571 community services, 578 couple relationship, 573
 depression, 571
 depression and anxiety, 567 expectations, 569
 family environment, 575
 household labor, 573 involvement and preparation, fathers, 574–575
 literature, 574
 mental health and well-being, 567 online and electronic applications, 578
 policy and practice, 578 policy and sociocultural environment, 578 pregnancy, 568
 self-efficacy, 570, 571
 self-esteem, 571 social support network, 575 sociocultural environment, 578
- Parenting
 ACEs, 15 adult child's daily activities, 660 attachment security, 12
 bioecological model, 28
 child advocate, 6
 child-rearing, 469
 children's development (see Child development)
 Christianity, 481
 cognitive and self-regulation skills, 11 communities, 3
 couple relationship, 11, 12
 developmental disability
 attributions, 316, 317
 expectations, 316
 grief and loss, 315, 316
 planning and preparation, 317
 disability emotional and social support, 661 financial stress, 661 mental and physical health problems, 661 diverse family contexts, 7, 9 drivers of change, 10 education support, 7
 emotional care, 5 emotional well-being, 13
 evidence base, 600
 grandparents, 14
 income disparity, 15
 information technology, 17
 interactional context, 12 level of control, 631
 life skills and mentoring, 6
 mental health difficulty, 660, 661 moral and spiritual guidance, 7
 neighborhood, 15, 16 personal resources, 10 phase of life, 8 physical care and nurturance, 5
 physical health, 14
 policy and practice implications, 601, 603
 programs, 15
 providing boundaries and limits, 6
 providing guidance, 5
 research, 600–601
 social ecology, 9
 social support, 13
 socialization, 5
 stress, 3
 tasks and responsibilities, 8
 transitions, 631
 within-family proximal influences, 9
 work-family conflict, 14
- Parenting and Human Brain Development, 825
- Parenting behavior, 388
- Parenting Early Intervention Program (PEIP), 558
- Parenting interventions
 ADHD symptoms, 813 bibliotherapy, 813 child health problems, 814–815 child well-being, 384 clinical effectiveness, 384, 385 community-based group therapy, 814
 cost-effectiveness, 385
 economic evaluation methods, 810–813
 general mental health, 809–808
 internalizing behavior problems, 814 interventions and comparators, 809–810 qualitative data, 385 study populations, 809 templates, 389
- Parenting Payment, 556
- Parenting programs, 15
- Parenting role authoritarian attitudes, 405 mothers' and fathers' attitudes, 405
 self-efficacy, 406
- Parenting self-efficacy, 579
- Parenting stress theories, 32
- Parenting styles
 authoritarian parenting, 4
 authoritative parenting, 4 classification, 317 neglectful, 4
 permissive parenting, 4

- responsiveness, 317
- Parent-mediated social communication program, 326
- Parent-only treatments, 80
- Parents' relationship on children
  - couple coparenting, 104
  - couple relationship satisfaction, 104
  - parental engagement, 104
- Parent-teenager relationship
  - psychologically safe environment, 641
  - public displays of affection, 641
  - spending time together, 641
  - talking together, 641
- Participatory action research paradigm (PAR), 668
- Partnership working, 690, 691
- Patient and public involvement (PPI), 381
- Patient-reported outcome measures (PROMs), 381
- Peabody Picture Vocabulary Test (PPVT), 130
- Peer and sibling relationships
  - attachment theory, 246
  - bullying, 243–248
  - classical conditioning, 246
  - conflict, 245
  - evidence for pathways, parental influence
    - differential treatment of children, 251
    - Harsh, hostile parenting, 250
    - parental management, sibling conflict, 251
    - parenting coaching, 250
    - parents as gatekeepers of opportunities, 250
    - spousal conflict, 250
    - warm, responsive parent-child relationships, 249
  - facilitative parenting
    - effectiveness of parenting interventions, 252–253
    - parenting and family interventions targeting, 253
  - frequency of victimization, 247
  - impact of supportive
    - adverse impacts, 244–245
    - adversity, 243–244
    - well-being, 242–243
  - operant conditioning, 246
  - parenting affects, 248
  - policy and practice, 255
  - research, 255
  - Role theory, social psychology, 247
  - social behavior, 251
  - strengths and limitations, evidence base, 253–255
  - victimization, 254
- Peer Assisted Supervision and Support (PASS), 790
- Peer relationships, 639, 640
- Perinatal mental health problems, 574
- Permissive parenting, 4
- Personal agency, 785
- Personality development theory, 654
- Personalized intervention, 39
- Person-centered services, 690
- Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee (PBAC), 801
- Physical health
  - child development, 19
  - parenting, 14
- Pictorial Exchange Communication System (PECS), 327
- Pictorial Representation of Attachment Measure (PRAM), 61
- Policies and Services Affecting Parenting, 505, 779
- Policy affecting families, 557
- Policy and practice
  - children's biology, 825
  - consumer and end-user driven approach, 827
  - cultural context of parenting, 822–823
  - mechanisms of change, 824–825
  - multidisciplinary approaches, 827–828
  - parent and child development support, 828
  - parent and child self-regulation, 823–824
  - parent-child relationship, 821–822
  - parenting, 821–822
  - parenting and child development, 821
  - parenting interventions, 824
  - parenting support, 825–826
  - population approach, 826
  - prevention and treatment programs, 826
  - role of fathers, 823
  - social ecology of parenting, 828
  - systems-contextual approach, 825–826
- Population approach
  - cultural adaptations, 788–789
  - flexible delivery, 788
  - use of administrative data, 789
- Population-level intervention, 714
- Positive parenting, 445
- Positive parenting program
  - encouraging desirable behavior, 73
  - family environment, 85–87
  - genetic and biological, 85
  - health, 85
  - influences outside home, 88
  - managing misbehavior, 74
  - relationships with children, 73
  - skills and behaviors, 73, 74
- Positive Parenting Program (Triple P), 429, 706, 813
- Positron emission tomography (PET), 174
- Postnatal period, 570
- Postpartum depression, 447
- Posttraumatic disorder (PTSD)
  - deployment, 517, 518
  - family distress, 518
  - symptoms, 517, 521, 522
- Posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 145
- Poverty
  - child outcomes, 504
  - children's social-emotional development, 497
  - depression, 702
  - economic deprivation, 496
  - economic disadvantage and exposure, 497
  - and economic inequality, 700
  - effective parenting, 497
  - employment and family, 498–501
  - enrichment, 495, 499, 500, 502, 505
  - environment and contextual factors, 498
  - family interactions, 702
  - financial stress/pressure, 496, 497
  - heart disease, 702

- Poverty (cont.)
 high-income countries, 495 impact of financial stress, 504 intergenerational transmission, 504
 monitoring and limit setting, 703
 neighborhoods, 699
 OECD, 701
 parenting, 502–503
 parenting interventions, 504, 505, 703–704
 parenting practices, 497
 physical and mental disorders, 699 physical, psychological and behavioral problems, 701
 policy and practice, 505–506
 positive support, 702–703
 randomized controlled trials, 504
 strengths and limitations, 503–504
 type of, 495, 496
 UK poverty, 496
 US federal poverty, 496 work and family conflict, 499–506
- Power-based control strategies, 590–592, 595
 Power Game Triangle diagram, 247, 248
 Practical and cost-effective procedures, 561
 Pregnancy, 567–571
 Pregnancy, social-contextual event, 445
 Prenatal anxiety, 572
 Prenatal parenting expectations, 570
 Preparing for parenthood, 573
 Prevention, 715, 717, 738
 Problem behaviors children and adolescents, 700
 coercion, 700–701
 environmental conditions, 700 inflation, 700
 monitoring and limit setting, 701 positive reinforcement, 701 verbal and cognitive skills, 700
- Problematic parenting, 445
 Problem-solving, 636, 644, 645
 Process–Person–Context–Time model, 339
 Promoting Alternative Thinking Strategies (PATHS), 231 Promoting Communication Strategies PC TALK intervention, 211
- Prosocial behavior genetic and environmental factors, 81
 operant learning, 82
 parenting practices, 83
 vicarious learning, 82
- Provision of learning materials, 204
 Psychological control, 635
 Psychological or psycho-educational treatments, 575
 Psychosis, 379
 Puberty, 637, 638
 Public health approaches, 715–716
 Public policy level governments, 553
- Q
 Quality of life, 382, 383
 Quality of marriage
 adult nurturing experience, 455
 affective spillover, 453, 454
 bringing the baby home, 454, 455
 domestic violence, 455
 family risk, 454
 high-conflict, 453
 stress and coping, 454
- Quality-Adjusted Life-Years (QALY), 801, 802
- R
 Racial/ethnic socialization, 476
 Randomized controlled trials (RCTs), 717, 778, 810, 827
 Reaction time (RT), 175, 181, 187
 Reactivity/negative emotionality, 342
 Reinforcement, 318, 752
 Reinforcement and punishment, 68
 Relational Frame Theory (RFT), 328 Relationship family, 657
 parent–adolescent, 657
 Relationship conflict, 656 Relationship distress
 coparenting, 421
 father vulnerability hypothesis, 420
 interparental conflict, 418, 419
 intimate partner violence, 419, 420
 Relationship education (RE), 111
 Relationship satisfaction, 98–100, 104–106, 109, 111, 112
 Religion and affect valuation, 480 beliefs and practices, 470
 Buddhism, 480
 Christian conservatism, 479
 Christianity, 471
 endorsement, 479 ethnic cultural, 481
 ethnotheories, 478
 identity, 482 intellectual autonomy, 478 intellectual heteronomy, 478 maternal ratings, 480 minority families, 485 Muslim parents, 478
 parent training programs, 485 parent–child disparities, 482
 parenting, 478, 480, 482
 Protestant Christians tend, 478–479 Protestants, 470
 sanctification, 479 social group affiliation, 470
 socialization, 485
 USA, 469
- Repartnering, 425 Representations
 AAI, 55
 child and relationship, 54
 child attachment, 57
 classifications balanced, 55

- disengaged, 55
- disrupted/disoriented, 56
- distorted, 55
- parent-child relationship, 51
- parents' behaviors and expectations, 54
- PDI, 56
- pregnancy, 55
- transition to parenthood, 55
- WMCI, 56
- Resilience, 383
- Resources for Enhancing Alzheimer's Caregiver Health (REACH), 689
- Respiratory sinus arrhythmia (RSA), 34
- Respondent learning, 68, 77, 78
- Responsible parenting, 638
- Responsiveness, 317
- Resting state methods, 175
- Risk and protection factors, 445
- Roberts and Kaiser meta-analysis, 207
- Roll-out of parenting programs, 558
- Rothbart's psychobiological model, 341
- Rule setting, 642
- Rule-governed behavior, 328
- Rural-to-urban migration (RTUM), 524, 525

- S
- Sanctification, 479
- Scaffolding, 225
- Schizophrenia, 662
  - cognitive emotion regulation strategies, 376
  - parenting, 376
  - symptoms, 377
- School-aged children
  - developmental tasks, 614
- School-based involvement, 275
- Schooling and academic attainment
  - academic socialization, 270, 271, 276–278
  - academic success, 263, 269–272, 277
  - developmental and intervention theory, 272
  - developmental domains, 263
  - developmental psychologists and economists, 264
  - developmental psychology, 264
  - elementary school, 263
  - evidence base, 276–277
  - home-based parent involvement, 271
  - influence of parents, 264
  - interpersonal and structural racism, 264
  - later childhood and adolescence, 275–276
  - learning and education, 268–270
  - low-income families, 270
  - math-related activities, 273
  - Mexican American and Dominican American Children, 279–278
  - parent involvement, 268, 269
  - parental investments, 264
  - parental involvement, 270
  - ParentCorps*, 271, 272, 274
  - policy and practice, 277–278
  - poverty and racism, 263
  - Pre-K programs, 273
  - Preschool PATHS* activities, 274
  - REDI-C* program, 274
  - REDI-P* program, 274
  - school readiness, 270
  - school-based parent involvement, 271
  - self-regulation and early learning, 273
  - social-emotional learning, 270
  - social-emotional skills and self-regulation, 271
  - strengths and limitations, 276–277
- Seattle Protocols, 689
- Securely attached children, 50, 58
- Self-determination theory, 224
- Self-efficacy
  - Bandura's emphasis, 612
  - cognitive skills and intellectual performance, 611
  - emotional state, 446
  - enactive mastery experiences, 611
  - mastery experiences, 446
  - physiological and affective states, 611
  - social cognitive theory, 611
  - social modeling, 446
  - social networks, 446
  - social persuasion, 446
  - successful learners, 620
  - teaching, 622
  - verbal persuasion, 611
  - vicarious experience, 611
- Self-enhancement vs. self-improvement, 473
- Self-fulfilling prophecy, 570
- Self-management tools, 785
- Self-regulation (SR)
  - caregiver, 220
  - childhood, 221–223
  - children's vulnerability, 230
  - components, 218
  - coping skills, 217
  - criminology, 218
  - culture, 230, 231
  - description, 218
  - developmental psychopathology, 219
  - emotion and cognitive control, 378
  - emotion regulation, 376
  - emotion-arousing situations, 217
  - environmental demands, 219
  - ER, 217, 218
  - evidence-based parenting programs, 233
  - executive function, 218
  - family processes, 372
  - home- and school-based programs, 232
  - implications, policy, 233–234
  - intergenerational transmission, 229, 230
  - intergenerational transmission, 372, 375
  - interparental relationship, 230
  - interpersonal and intrapersonal, 221, 222
  - intervention research, children, 231–232
  - moderating effects, 379
  - multidimensional construct, 218, 233
  - parent cognitions, 397
  - parental characteristics, 217

- Self-regulation (SR) (cont.)
- parent–child relationship, 217
  - parenting
    - children’s attachment history, 224
    - compliance and behavior problems, 226, 227
    - effortful control, 226
    - executive functions, 225, 226
    - maternal sensitivity and home quality, 224
    - parent–child relationships, 224
    - power assertive and physically punitive practices, 225
    - social process, 224
    - strategies, 228, 229
  - parenting variables, 217
  - schizophrenia, 376, 377
  - school readiness, 220
  - self-control, 219
  - SMI (see Serious mental illness (SMI))
  - social development, 220
  - social influences, 219
  - toddlerhood parental directiveness, 230
  - top-down and bottom-up processes, 376
  - validated assessment tools, 233
  - working memory, 230
- Self-regulation skills
- attentional processes, 11
  - communication with others, 11
  - emotions regulation, 11
  - executive functions, 11
  - formulate explanation, 11
  - parenting plan, 11
- Self-sufficiency, 785
- Sensitive caregiving, 318
- Serious mental illness (SMI)
- adult services, 389
  - bipolar affective disorder, 373, 374
  - child protection, 388
  - child’s behavioral and emotional adaptation, 378
  - child’s emotions, 377
  - children, 382, 386
  - coping strategies, 382
  - cultural sensitivity, 386
  - definition, 372
  - delusions, 380
  - diagnostic categories, 372
  - emotion and cognitive control, 378
  - experts-by experience, 377
  - families, 387
  - family level, 378
  - gender effects, 381
  - intergenerational longitudinal research, 379
  - mothers’ vs. fathers’ illnesses, 380, 381
  - parenting behavior, 386
  - policy makers, 388
  - positive experiences, 382, 383
  - psychosis, 380
  - quality of life, 382, 383
  - resilience, 383
  - self-regulation, 374
  - severity and chronicity, 386
  - shorter and longer term adaptations, 380
  - social stressors, 378
  - stakeholder consultations, 386
- Skill development models, 275
- Sleep
- adaptation and development, 588
  - parenting
    - adaptation parents, 597
    - bedtime resistance, 598
    - bedtime routines, 599
    - challenges, 600
    - children’s changing behaviors, 600
    - consolidation, 600
    - control and socialization, 596
    - difficulties, 598
    - infant, 596, 597
    - insecure feelings, 598
    - nighttime awakenings, 597–599
    - normative changes, 599
    - physical care and safety, 596
    - practices and consequences, children’s, 598
    - practices surrounding child sleep, 596
    - problems, 598–600
    - quality in infancy, 598
    - sleep–wake regulation, 597, 598
    - tasks and challenges, 596
    - toddlerhood, 599
  - Sleep–wake regulation, 597, 598
- Social and communication skills, 636
- Social capital, 452, 460, 463, 464
- Social cognitive theory, 67, 69, 70, 77, 82, 441, 445, 446
- Social democratic approach, 555
- Social democratic model, 555
- Social ecology, 9
- Social information processing models, 396
- Social interaction, 663, 664
- Social learning theory
- cognitive processes, 70
  - disruptive and antisocial behavior
    - CD, 70
    - children and parents, 76
    - coercive behavior, 76
    - ODD, 70
    - operant learning, 71, 72, 75
    - policy and practice, 84, 88
    - reciprocal determinism, 70
- Social learning-based interventions, 761
- Social learning-based treatments, 761
- Social media, 463
- Social networks
- bioecological model, 444
  - child abuse, 445
  - development within nested contexts, 444
  - DNA methylation, 444
  - DP, 443, 461
  - ecological systems theory, 441
  - ecology, 442
  - epigenetics, 444
  - formal helping relationships, 458, 459
  - limitations, 461

- longitudinal studies, 461
- maternal sensitivity, 445
- online, 459
- parent–child relationship, 441
- parenting assistance, 458
- policy and practice, 463
- pregnancy support, 447
- pregnant women’s cognitive appraisals, 444
- principles, 458
- risk and protection factors, 445
- self-efficacy, 444, 446
- stress, 444
- tend and befriend
  - bio-behavioral mechanisms, 460
  - females, 460
  - fight/flight, 459, 460
  - group behavior, 460, 461
  - stress research, 460
- Urie Bronfenbrenner’s Ecological Framework, 442, 443
- Social Policy Research Centre, 2016, 496
- Social relationships, 680
- Social support, 13, 573, 691
- Social transactional model, 482
- Social, emotional, or behavioral (SEB)
  - children, 522, 524
  - deployment, 522
  - LDC, 523
  - Left-behind children, 525
  - parental separation, 521
  - Timor-Leste military operations, 521
- Social-contextual model of parenting, 445
- Social-emotional development, 18, 30, 31, 34, 36
- Socialization, 5, 472, 473, 476, 482, 483
- Societal changes, 647
- Socioeconomic (SES) backgrounds, 205
- Socioeconomic environments, 677
- Spanish phonemes, 178
- Spatial Conflict Task, 187
- Spillover hypothesis, 416
- Stepfamilies
  - bond building, 423
  - child-rearing, 426
  - coparenting, 426, 433
  - CRE, 433
  - divorce rates, 424
  - evolutionary theory, 426
  - FST, 427
  - interparental relationship, 426
  - marital dissolution, 433
  - nonresident fathers, 425, 426
  - and nuclear families, 423, 424, 427
  - parenting
    - child-rearing, 425
    - qualitative analysis, 425
  - relationship quality, 424, 425
  - reparenting, 425
  - stepparent–child relationship, 427
  - stepparents’ roles, 425
- Stepping Stones Triple P—Positive Parenting Program (SSTP), 326, 327, 330, 331
- Strange Situation Procedure, 53
- Strengths and Difficulties Questionnaire (SDQ), 808, 809
- Stress-Process Model, 681
- Structural Equation Modeling (SEM), 449
- Stubbornness, 679
- Substance addiction, 781
- Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), 557
- Support
  - companionship and emotional, 660
  - grandmother, 659
  - relationship, 665
  - transition, 657
- T
- Talk With Me Baby program, 210
- Teaching-based control strategies, 590–592
- Technology-based interventions, 760
- Telecommunications technology, 514
- Temperament
  - bidirectional effects, 347–349
  - biological underpinnings, 343
  - conceptualizations
    - adolescence, 341
    - adult personality, 341
    - easy-difficult categorization system, 341
    - gaining wide acceptance, 342
    - genetic, biological, and environmental factors, 340
    - impulsivity, 341
    - neural systems and self-regulation, 341
    - person-centered analytic techniques, 341
    - slow-to-warm-up, 341
    - socioemotional development, 340
    - subcomponents, 342
  - direct effects, 346–347
  - indirect effects, 347
  - interactional effects
    - difficult temperament and negative emotionality, 349, 350
    - goodness of fit approach, 349
    - self-regulation and effortful control, 350, 351
    - surgency, inhibition and fearfulness, 350
  - measurement, 343–344
  - and parenting, 346
  - and personality, 344–345
  - stability, 342–343
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), 554
- The Effects of Parenting on Emotion and Self-Regulation, 824
- The Global Burden of Disease Pediatrics Collaboration (2016), 800
- The Role of Fathers in Supporting Children’s Development, 791, 823
- Theory of Mind (ToM), 326
- Thirty Million Words (TMW), 211
- Timor-Leste military operations, 521
- Toddlerhood
  - ability of toddlers, 588
  - adolescence, 588
  - infancy, 586, 592, 598

- Toddlerhood (cont.)
 mobility, 589
 parental control, 593
 parental supervision and intervention, 594 power-based control, 593 preschool period, 598 sensitive parenting behaviors, 594 sleep consolidation, 599
- Tracking Opportunities and Problems (TOPP), 341
- Transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS), 39
- Transition, 656
- Transition to parenthood, 567–569, 571, 573
- Transition to school, 609–612, 619, 625
- Transmission Gap, 448
- Traumatic brain injury (TBI), 314, 315
 ACT, 329–331
 posttraumatic stress and grief, 329
 SSTP, 329, 330
- Treatment Foster Care Oregon Model for Adolescents* (TFCO-A), 752
- Treatment-as-usual (TAU), 810
- Triple P International (TPI) Pty Ltd, 579
- Triple P—Positive Parenting Program, 750, 782
- Tuning in to Kids (TIK), 355
- U
- UK experience, 558
- UK government strategies and policies, 558
- UN's Charter on Child Rights, 556
- United Nations Children's Fund, 788
- United Nations Education, Scientific, and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO), 496
- United Nations General Assembly, 777
- United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, 788
- United Nations Rights of the Child, 777
- United States Department of Labor: Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2016, 499
- Universal parenting programs
 attachment theory, 717
 child emotional and behavioral problems, 736
 child mental health
 externalizing behavior problems, 731–733
 internalizing behavior problems, 733–734
 results, 725
 study populations and interventions, 717–725
 well-being, 725
 effectiveness, 735–737
 evidence-based programs, 738 individual- or group-based, 716 limitation, 736 methodological limitations, 736 parental mental health, 734–735
 parenting interventions, 716–717
 policy and practice implications, 737–739 population level impact, 737 public health approach, 735 research studies, 737
 risk factors, 715–716
 selective and indicated prevention programs, 716 structured psychosocial programs, 716 studies characteristics, 717–724
 results, 726–730
 target parents of adolescents, 716
- University of Queensland (UQ), 579
- Urie Bronfenbrenner's Ecological Framework, 442, 443
- US Triple P population trial, 560
- US Triple P System population trial, 559
- V
- Vagal tone, 34
- Vantage resistance, 346
- Vantage sensitivity, 346
- Verbalization, 643
- Vicarious learning aggressive responses, 69
 modelling stimuli, 69
 prosocial behavior, 82
- Video Interaction Project (VIP), 211
- Virtual child, 35
- Von Economo neuron, 186
- W
- War adverse child outcomes, 149–150 parent interventions, 154–155
 protective factors
 community-level, 154
 individual child/youth-level, 152–153
 parent/family-level factors, 153–154
 risk factors
 community-level, 152
 individual child/youth-level, 150–151
 parent/family-level, 151–152
- Washington State Institute for Public Policy, 817
- Washington State Institute of Public Policy (WSIPP), 788
- Well-being, 4, 5, 13, 20, 22, 67, 81, 89, 371
- Western, Educated, Industrialized, Rich and Democratic (WEIRD), 666
- Williams syndrome, 315
- Willingness-to-pay (WTP), 810
- Wood's Biobehavioral Family Model, 296
- Work-family conflict, 14
- Working Model of the Child Interview (WMCI), 56
- Working models, 54
- Work-life balance birth rates, 551
 complex government structures, 560 education, 551
 family structures, 552
 health, 552 labor force changes, 552 marriage rates, 552
 parenting, 553
 policy and organizational, 553 productivity, 552 public advocacy, 553

---

social mobility and globalization, 552 socioeconomic factors, 552 stress, 552
well-being, 554
women's educational attainment, 552
Work–Life Balance Survey, 552

World Health Organisation (WHO), 291, 677, 788

Y

Young adult's transition to adulthood, 658
Young onset dementia, 683