About the Authors

Helga Nowotny is currently Chair of EURAB, the European Research Advisory Board, advising the European Commission on research policy. Until recently, she has been Professor of Philosophy and Social Studies of Science at ETH Zurich, Director of Collegium Helveticum and Founding Director of Society in Science: The Branco Weiss Fellowship based at ETH Zurich. She has published widely in the field of social studies of science and technology, while maintaining an active interest in science policy. Formerly she was also Professor at the University of Vienna and Permanent Fellow of Collegium Budapest/Institute of Advanced Study. She was a Fellow at the Wissenschaftskolleg in its first year, 1981/82. – Address: Wissenschaftszentrum Wien, Strozzigasse 10/16, A-1080 Vienna, Austria. email: helga.nowotny@wzw.at

Dominique Pestre studied physics and history. He is currently Professor of History of Science at Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales and Director of the Centre Alexandre Koyré in Paris. He has worked extensively on the history of 20th Century physics. Recently, he co-authored, with Amy Dahan, Les Sciences pour la guerre, 1940-1960. He also published on the historiography of science and on philosophical questions. One of his recent books in this field is Heinrich Herz, l'administration de la preuve, 2002. His current field of interest is the changes which affected research practices over the last decades. See his book, Science, argent et politique, un essai d'interprétation, 2003. – Address: Centre Alexandre Koyré, Pavillon Chevreul, Museum National d'Histoire Naturelle, 57 rue Cuvier, 75005 Paris, France. email: pestre@wanadoo.fr

Eberhard Schmidt-Aßmann is Professor of Public Law, Director of the Institute for German and European Administrative Law and Member of the Berlin-Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften. His general research interest is the theory of administrative law and especially the guidance and control of societal processes by state and administrative law. His concept of administrative law is enfolded in Das allgemeine Verwaltungsrecht als Ordnungsidee (2. Aufl. 2004) [General Administrative Law as an Ordering Idea]. The law of science is one of his fields of reference and he published on
