
Authors

Svetlana Antova, PhD is a research associate assistant professor at the Institute of Ethnology and Folklore with the Ethnographic Museum, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Her research interests are in the field of migration, post-socialist transnational labour mobility, ethno-cultural identity and border-life studies.

Aneliya Avdzhieva, PhD candidate in Social Anthropology in University of Plovdiv Paisii Hilendarski, Bulgaria. Her research focuses on how mobilities and gender influence life strategies and social networks, following geographically, socially and culturally spaced communities, claimed as Roma. Instrument of the study are labour mobilities of women – trade and temporary migration.

Banu Çıtlak, Dr., Associate Professor at the University of Applied Sciences and Arts Dortmund, Germany. Her research interests are migration studies, family studies and social spaces.

Barbara Fulda, Dr., University of Chemnitz, Germany, Postdoctoral Researcher, Research interests: Sociology of the family, Mixed Methods, Urban Sociology,

Maren Hilke, M.A. Social Science, Researcher at the Institute of Social Work in Münster, Germany. Her research focus on early childhood education and family relations.

Sebastian Kurtenbach, Dr, Researcher at the institute of interdisciplinary research on conflict and violence (IKG), Bielefeld University and lecturer at University of Applied Sciences and Arts Dortmund, Germany. His research in urban and migration studies focusses on neighborhood effects, deviant behavior and transnationalism.

Nora Jehles, M.A. Social Science, Researcher at the Research Cooperation of the Technical University Dortmund and the German Youth Institute, Germany. Her research focuses on early childhood education and care as well as social inequality.

Svetoslava Mancheva, PhD candidate in Social Anthropology in the Faculty of Philosophy and History, University of Plovdiv Paisii Hilendarski, Bulgaria. Her research interests are in the field of Anthropology of Childhood, Anthropology of the Body, Anthropology of Learning, Cultural Studies, Social and Cultural Anthropology.

Megan Lueneburg, B.A. Architecture, Fulbright Graduate Researcher, Iowa State University, USA. Her research focuses on the anthropology of domestic architecture.

Rositsa Lyubenova, Phd student at the University of Plovdiv Paisii Hilendarski, chair "Sociology and humanities". Her research interests are socialism studies, family studies and governmentality studies.

Stoyka Penkova, PhD is an Associate Professor at the Department of Sociology and Human Science, Faculty of Philosophy and History, University of Plovdiv Paisii Hilendarski, Bulgaria. She is currently Head of the Department of Sociology and Human Science. Her main areas of research interests include Sociology of Inequalities, Inheriting and Discursive Practices, Performativity and Ideology of the Discursive Practice.

Sascha Riedel, PhD Student at the University of Cologne, Lecturer at the University of Cologne, Germany. His research focuses on the stages and measurement of immigrant integration and quantitative methods.

Ina Schäfer, B.A. Social Work, is graduate student in Empirical Educational Research at the University of Kassel, Germany. She works in a research project, which focus in possibilities to include pupils with disability and their own view on this process. Her research focuses on social work and migration studies.

Meglana Zlatkova, PhD is an Associate Professor at the Department of Ethnology, Faculty of Philosophy and History, University of Plovdiv Paisii Hilendarski, Bulgaria. Her teaching and research interests are in the field of Urban Studies, Visual Anthropology, Borders and Migration, Heritage and Identity.