People's Congress of Zhejiang Province, Sheng Shihao, the Deputy Secretary General of the CPPCC of Zhejiang Province and the Director of the Research Office under the CPPCC of Zhejiang Province, Zhang Runsheng, the Deputy Director of the General Office of the CPPCC of Zhejiang Province, Wang Hongzhong, the Deputy Director of the Research Office under the CPPCC of Zhejiang Province, Guo Jungui, the Director of the Comprehensive Division of the Research Office under the CPPCC of Zhejiang Province, Wang Zuqiang, the Deputy Director of the Party History Research Office under the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province, attended the meeting and made relevant introductions, answered relevant questions, and put forward opinions and suggestions for expanding the research. After the meeting, we also engaged in in-depth communication and held discussions with Hu Jian, the Executive Deputy Director of the Department of Publicity under the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province, and Chi Quanhua, the President of the Zhejiang Academy of Social Sciences, for three hours, and on this basis, we developed the main line of research, on the General Report Volume, which is clearer in line of thought, more profound in content and more definite in induction, and a 48-Chinese-character analysis and elaboration framework for the General Report Volume. On July 2, Liu Yingqiu once again chaired the discussion meeting of the Research Group for the General Report, studying and determining the new research and the written outline for the General Report Volume, and making arrangements for expanding the surveys, research and writing and research progress. After the draft was changed for several times, the research and written outline for the General Report Volume were officially finalized in early July and delivered to the Bureau of Scientific Research Management of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences.

After the main framework of the research and the written outline for the General Report Volume, the main line of research and the basic line of thought were determined, the authors of various chapters separately further conducted field surveys, collected materials, carried out research and did some writing. During the two days September 19–20, Liu Yingqiu once again led a group to conduct the third field survey in Hangzhou and Taizhou, with a focus on examining the relations between private banks and the development of the private economy in Zhejiang, and on this basis, prepared an Important Report. Pan Zhiliang, from the Zhejiang Academy of Social Sciences and Wang Xinling, a doctoral candidate at the Department of Government Policy and Public Administration with the Graduate School of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, et al., participated in the surveys. The surveys started from Hangzhou; we engaged in in-depth communication and dialogue with Zheng Yifang, the Secretary General of the Zhejiang Enterprise Confederation, Pan Lisheng, the Deputy Secretary General of the Zhejiang Enterprise Confederation, Xu Qiting, the Director of the Division of Financial Development at the Finance Office of the People's Government of Zhejiang Province, et al., gaining a deeper understanding of the relations between financial innovation and economic development, and of the development of private banks in Zhejiang. On this basis, the Survey Group went to Taizhou to conduct two-day special surveys. The people in charge of the relevant departments and entrepreneurs attended a symposium and made relevant introductions, including Hu Shaoguang, the Executive Deputy Director of the Department of Publicity under the Party Committee of Taizhou City, Mao Yufen, the Vice Chairman of the Federation of Social Science Circles of Taizhou City, Guan Wenbin, the Deputy Director of the Research Office of the Taizhou Municipal Government, Yang Gengbiao, the Deputy Director of the Finance Office of the Taizhou Municipal Government, Xi Zunxia, the Section Chief at Taizhou Central Sub-branch of the People's Bank of China, Wang Weiwen, Marketing Director at the Bank of Taizhou, Lin Qi from the Zhejiang Tailong Commercial Bank, Guo Bocheng from the Zhejiang Mintai Commercial Bank, Zhai Ai'ling, the Director of the Enterprise Division at the Taizhou Municipal Economic and Information Commission, Yu Chun, Chairman of Taizhou Dachendao Cultivation Co., Ltd. and Li Qianfei, Chairman of Zhejiang Haichang Shipbuilding Co., Ltd.. During the surveys, we also specially visited the Zhejiang Tailong Commercial Bank and other institutions to learn about relevant policies, problems and the practical experience in policies.

In early October, the first draft of each chapter of the General Report was basically completed. On November 14, based on the first draft of each chapter and the survey achievements, Liu Yingqiu finished the research and writing concerning the first draft of the main report. After the first draft of the main report was completed, the revision and opinions for improvement were solicited from the deputy leaders of the General Report Group Huang Qunhui, Wang Jinling and the Secretary of the General Report Group Peng Shan; further revision was made on this basis. Subsequently, opinions were solicited from research fellow Li Peilin, an alternate member of the 18th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, a member of the Leading Party Group of and Vice President of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, the Leader of the Research Group for "The Chinese Dream and Zhejiang's Practice" as well as from Ge Huijun, an alternate member of the 18th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, a member of the Standing Committee of the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province, the Director of the Department of Publicity under the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province, comrade Hu Jian, the coordinator of the research and Executive Deputy Director of the Department of Publicity under the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province and from relevant personnel from the Zhejiang Academy of Social Sciences; the main report was finalized on the basis of their opinions. After all the manuscripts of the General Report Volume were completed, we solicited a review from Executive Deputy Director Hu Jian and Deputy Secretary General Shu Guozeng and asked for their opinions; we also made a further revision and improvements on this basis, fully showing that this achievement available to you is the result of collective wisdom.

The General Report Volume consists of the main report and six chapters covering special reports. The whole General Report Volume was technically compiled for universal use by Peng Shan, examined and finalized by Liu Yingqiu, Huang Qunhui and Wang Jinling. During its compilation for universal use, we followed the general law which governs scientific research and also respected the general principle that the author takes sole responsibility for his views; we endeavored to make sure that the various chapters were consistent in style but we did not seek to make the views in various chapters become exactly the same.

During the surveys and writing concerning this book, we received great support and cooperation from the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province, the relevant departments of the People's Government of Zhejiang Province, the cities where surveys were conducted and relevant units, especially the leaders, experts, scholars and staff from the Department of Publicity under the Party Committee of Zhejiang Province and the Zhejiang Academy of Social Sciences; we also received careful guidance and close coordination from the Leading Party Members' Group of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, the General Coordination Group of the Research Group and the Bureau of Scientific Research Management of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. We hereby express our heartfelt thanks to them for their hard work!

Finally, all the members of the General Report Group, two research fellows Yun Jie and Jia Xudong separately responsible for the Volume on Politics and the Volume on Culture conducted field surveys, collected, processed and thoroughly analyzed materials, extensively solicited opinions from relevant leaders of Zhejiang Province, experts, scholars and entrepreneur representatives, and then carried out in-depth research and wrote it up carefully; however, due to limited capability and a tight schedule, defects, careless omissions, and even mistakes are unavoidable in this result of the survey that is available to you. The criticisms and corrections from various departments of Zhejiang Province, enterprises, the general public and readers at home and abroad are highly appreciated!
