

Attree, P. (2004) “It was like my little acorn, and it’s going to grow into a big tree”: a qualitative study of a community support project’, Health and Social Care in the Community, 12(2): 155–61.

Draper, J. (2002) ‘“It was a real good show”: the ultrasound scan, fathers and the power of visual knowledge’, Sociology of Health and Illness, 24(6): 771–95.

Everingham, C., Stevenson, D. and Warner-Smith, P. (2007) ‘“Things are getting better all the time”?: Challenging the narrative of women’s progress from a generational perspective’, Sociology, 41(3): 419.

parenthood: views from young parents and service providers’, Social Science and Medicine, 63(4): 858–70.

Howie, L. and Carlisle, C. (2005) ‘I felt like they were all kind of staring at me ...’, Midwives, the Journal of the Royal College of Midwives, 8(7): 304–8.

Oakley, A. ([1979] 1986) Becoming a Mother [later published as From Here to Maternity]. Harmondsworth: Penguin.

Bibliography

Bibliography

Townsend, D. (2004) ‘I wasn’t told my daughter was going to have a baby … or that she was keeping it’, Observer, 16 May. http://observer.guardian.co.uk/focus/story/0,6903,1217958,00.html.

abortion
and decision-making 68–72, 133 health professionals’ advice 69, 70 late disclosure 61–2, 65, 70 male role 61–2
legal requirements 26–7 rates 68
rebound pregnancy after 71
teens’ negative views on 56, 69, 87 abuse

in care system 44
maternity ward context 113, 121 participants’ experience of 39, 40–1, 152–3, 155
see also domestic violence
accidental pregnancy see unintended pregnancy adolescence
and fertility 22–4
as life-cycle stage 5
and maternal identity formation 169–73
and risk-taking 51
see also teenagers
adoption 3, 69, 71
informal adoption within family 196 adulthood: female transition to 207–9 agency

attributed to children 185–6
see also decision-making and agency
Aitken, S.C. 209
alcohol see drinking habits Alys (teenage mother)
family relationships 34, 62–3, 77, 200, 205
labour and birth 111, 118, 122–3, 125
motherhood 137–8, 141, 143, 146, 149, 156–7, 160, 163, 183, 198–9
and negative attitudes 54, 67–8, 82–3, 111, 125, 137–8, 141, 171, 173
pregnancy and related issues 54, 58, 61, 64, 67–8, 68–9, 70, 71, 72, 73, 75, 82–3, 89, 92, 94, 106–7, 171

Angharad (Alys’s mother) family relationship 34, 62–3, 77, 200, 205
mothering and motherhood 125, 142, 149, 171, 173
and negative attitudes 125, 141, 171, 173
pregnancy and related issues 61, 69, 73, 81, 87–8

antenatal care 4
and delay in seeking help 65–6 lack of teen-specific services 21, 78, 92, 93–4 teens’ experiences of 78–109, 110, 123, 134, 138 see also midwives and maternity professionals antenatal classes 91–4, 110, 138 antenatal screening 87–9 anticipation of birth 114–15

Anwen (Megan’s mother) 37, 57, 58, 60, 67, 76, 112, 114, 163 anxiety
potential threats to pregnancy 95–8 and screening processes 87–9

April (teenage mother)
family relationships 34–5
labour and birth 129
motherhood 185, 205, 206–7
and negative attitudes 103, 141–2, 147
pregnancy and related issues 54, 67–8, 82–3, 91, 92, 99–100

Apter, T. 177

aquanatal classes 94
archetypes 108
arranged marriage and sexual activity 23–4

Bailey, L. 157
Beca (teenage mother) 35, 59, 61, 69, 73, 90, 95, 107 bed-sharing practices 190, 191–2, 193, 194–5 behaviour of children and discipline 184–90 benefits see social security benefits; welfare dependency bereavement and professional norms 134, 135–6
Berger, John 9
Bev (hostel owner) 40
binge drinking 99–100
biological readiness 13, 21 birth see labour and birth birth control see contraception black and minority ethnic (BME) groups 23–4, 204 bleeding and threatened miscarriage 95–6 body
and adolescent risk-taking 51 betrayal and conception 50 breastfeeding and self-consciousness 163–4 clothing 2, 95, 105–9, 112, 150, 151
labour and birth 128–9, 142
intimate examinations 117, 119–21, 143–4 and moralisation 141–2
and physical aspects of pregnancy 92–3, 94–5 postnatal surveillance 142–51 practitioners’ use in medical interventions 121
self-image and self-consciousness 94–5 and social policy 208
weight gain and reactions to 94–5, 150–1 see also eating disorders; self-harming behaviours body dysmorphic disorders 7 body piercings 107
bonding and expectations 130–1 ‘booking consultations’ 84–6 boredom of everyday routine 195–6 bottle-feeding babies 137–8, 159, 160, 162–3 boyfriends/partners as fathers and contraception 148
contributing factors 19
domestic violence 35, 39, 41, 42, 197
drug use 102
and family dynamics 38, 39, 48, 60, 72–3, 139, 181, 189–90, 196, 197
labour and birth 110–11, 124–5, 127–8 marginalisation and negative attitudes towards in maternity care 67–8, 86–7, 110–11, 209, 210 and parenthood 65, 157–8, 186, 188, 189–90, 196–7, 209–10 absent fathers 20, 35, 36, 157, 190 access rights 158
depression and jealousy of partner’s success 39, 197–8 pregnancy and responses to 58, 60–2, 76 and weight gain of girlfriends 151 see also relationship issues breastfeeding 159–64
Bronwyn (teenage mother) 35–6
Brown, G.W. 154
Byrne, D. 29
caesarean sections 112–13, 122
Cain, M. 200
Cancer Screening Programme in the UK 145 care system 19
participants’ backgrounds 36, 40–1, 44, 152, 154
Care to Learn initiative 183
Cassell, Joan 121
Catrin (teenage mother) 36, 163, 178 cervical screening and contraception 145–6 child poverty 31–3, 210
Child Poverty Act (2010) 32
Child Support Agency 40
childbirth see labour and birth childcare provision 180–4, 198
children
    older children’s health outcomes 20
    transition to adulthood 207–9
see also mothering
chlamydia 22–3
choice 2, 111
    planned pregnancies 23, 28, 35–6, 52–3
see also decision-making and agency Chris (Clare’s mother) 38–9, 111
    mothering and motherhood 160, 163–4
    childcare provision 181, 182
    pregnancy and related issues 55, 57
    dislike of boyfriend 38, 39, 60 Clare (teenage mother) 38–9
    family relationships 38, 39, 48, 60, 76, 139, 178–9, 183–4, 205
    labour and birth 111, 114, 115, 116, 118, 120–1, 130
    motherhood 139, 143, 144, 145, 150, 160, 161, 163–4, 178–9, 183–4, 188, 194, 199
    pregnancy and related issues 38, 39, 48, 49, 52, 54–6, 60, 65, 76, 83 relationship problems 62, 197–8 class see social class clinics see family planning services; mother and baby clinics; sexual health services Clinton, Bill 18
clothing 2, 95, 105–9, 112, 150, 151
coercion
    and abortion decision 71
    and changes in lifestyle behaviours 99, 100 coerced sex 3, 7
    and vaginal examinations in labour 120–1 commodification of childbirth 131 communication difficulties and antenatal care 83–4 communitarianism 17
community midwives 139, 140, 141–2, 163–4 concealment of pregnancy 54–6 conception: accounts of falling pregnant 49–53, 65 condoms 52
‘confinements’: socio-spatial implications 107–8 consent issues 25, 26, 60, 120, 143 constructionism see social constructionism continuity of care: lack of 78–9, 123 contraception 3, 23, 24, 28, 49, 50, 51–2 as female responsibility 51, 147–8 legal aspects of access 26 postnatal advice and access 145–50 contractions in labour 116–17, 128–9 contributing factors to teenage pregnancy 18–19, 206 control see power relations; social control ‘couvade’ 76
Coward, R. 54
credibility and social status 10, 112–13 criminalisation and age of consent 25 criminality as contributing factor 19 cultural determinants and sexual activity 23–4 culturally inscribed ritual 129–31 death and loss 20, 98, 131–6
    infant mortality 20, 131–6 debt problems 38, 39, 40, 44, 176 decision-making and agency and abortion 61–2, 65, 68–72, 133
    and infant feeding decisions 162–3 influence of partners 61–2, 197
    and maternal identities 171–2 negative experiences of antenatal care 66, 78–80, 82–3, 97 defensive professional practice 86, 88, 202 Department for Education and Skills (DfES) 25 dependency of teenage mothers 171–3, 181, 206
see also welfare dependency depression 151–2, 154, 155–7, 174 deprivation 30–1
see also poverty
Dilys (Lowri’s mother) 37–8, 66, 98, 135, 160, 172 discipline and mothering 184–90 disclosure of pregnancy 53–68 delays and late disclosure 54–6, 65–8, 70, 115 disordered eating behaviours 102–3 Doja, Albert 76
domestic violence
in participants’ background 38, 40–1, 44, 152, 153, 154, 155
in relationships 35, 39, 41, 42, 127, 197 Douglas, M. 104
dress see clothing
drinking habits 3, 23, 34, 35, 40, 99–100
drug use 23, 34, 35, 102 ‘due date’ 89–90, 115
early childbearing outcomes 20–1, 74, 207
early childhood see mothering:
infants in early childhood
eating disorders 102–3
eclampsia risk 20–1
economic hardship and women’s health 154–5
education
antenatal/‘parentcraft’ classes 91–4, 110, 138 attainment levels 19, 32, 35, 37, 39, 41 continuation during and after pregnancy 37–8, 41, 43, 161, 196 childcare restrictions 182–3, 198 dislike and early exit 19, 32, 34, 41
and Teenage Pregnancy Strategy 27, 28 see also sex education in schools Elenor (teenage mother) 36, 70, 75, 91, 162 embodiment 2, 12
emergency contraception 24, 27, 52 employment 19, 31, 34, 37, 162–3
epidural anaesthesia 116, 119, 121–4 ‘epistemic injustice’ 10
Esmail, Aneez 80
ethnographic research: feminist approaches 7–9
Etzioni, Amitai 17
Evans, T. 24
everyday reality of motherhood 64–5, 195–9 expected date of birth 89–90, 115 family
changes in formation 14–16, 207 disrupted backgrounds 34–5, 36, 37, 38, 53, 152–4, 178, 205 as contributing factor 19, 206 drug use by family members 102 dynamics of families of teenage parents 72–3, 139, 181, 189–90 flexibility and network of relationships 15 importance of kinship networks 73–4 inadequate provision of sex education 25–6 and mothering and motherhood 139, 163, 164–6, 167–8, 181, 189–90 of research participants 34–45, 152–3 residential proximity to family members 11, 43 social policy and management of 140, 182 support for teenage mothers 73–4, 167–8, 195
childcare provision 180–4
financial support 21
and positive outcomes 205
see also parents of young parents; siblings family planning services 26
see also contraception; sexual health services fathers
of teenage mothers 58–9, 63, 163 see also boyfriends/partners as fathers fatness: perceptions of 94–5, 150–1 feeding practices 137–8, 159–68 feminist theory and research 7–9 fertility rates
  geographical distribution 19, 27–8, 206 and impact of loss 132
  influencing factors 18–19
  and reduction strategies 27–8 trends in adolescent fertility and sexual health 22–4
financial support 21, 183
Fine, Michelle 18, 48
formula-feeding 137–8, 159, 160, 162–3 Fraser, Nancy 53
freedom: loss of freedom 64–5, 198–9 Fricker, Miranda 10
gender
  and attitudes towards sexual behaviour 5–6, 18, 170 and contraceptive responsibility 51, 147–8 division of childbearing and rearing 209–10 and mental illness 151–2 genital herpes 23
genital warts 23
gender of teenage motherhood 19, 27–8, 206 giving birth 128–9
Glenys (Beca’s mother) 107
Goffman, Erving 108
‘good-enough’ mothering 159, 190
Gordon, Linda 53
GPs (general practitioners) abortion advice 68, 69, 70
  and confirmation of pregnancy 66, 67
  and mental health problems 155
  and postnatal care and advice 144–6, 148, 149 Graham, Hilary 100–1, 154–5, 207 grandparents see fathers: of teenage mothers; mothers of teenage mothers
Green, J. 116
Green, J.M. 118
Hacking, Ian 12, 82
Hagan, T. 153–4
Harris, T. 154
health
  benefits of teenage pregnancy 21 and contraceptive method 24 and economic and social circumstances 21, 152–3, 154–5 inequalities 32
  and lifestyle behaviours 99–103
  outcomes and early childbearing 20–1 and research 204
  and risk management 6, 88–9 and Sure Start initiative 30–1 see also illness; mental health problems; sexual health and sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) health professionals
  communication difficulties 83–4
  and confirmation of pregnancy 66, 67 abortion recommendation 69, 70 patronising attitudes 23, 50, 66, 80, 81, 82–3, 92, 97 failure to detect illness 98, 134 positive attitudes 67, 84–5 and postnatal advice 145–6, 149
see also GPs; health visitors; midwives and maternity professionals health services
  management demands 78–9, 80, 86
  resource allocation 20
see also sexual health services health visitors 138, 139, 140, 166 Hodnett, E. 123
home birth: rejection of 111–12 homelessness 19, 39, 102–3, 155 hormonal contraceptives 24, 52–3, 145, 149, 150–1 hospital as location for birth 111–12 housing 21, 34, 35, 37, 39, 41, 43, 49 home ownership 42, 43, 196
homelessness 19, 39, 102–3, 155
impact on mothering 195, 196
housing – continued living with parents 155, 156–7, 180 move to independent living 200, 206
and mental health problems 152, 155
‘hysterical’ patients 121, 123, 124

idealised motherhood 173–4 identity formation
working-class women 206
see also maternal identity formation
‘illegitimacy’ 16, 19, 77
see also unmarried status illness
during pregnancy 98, 134
see also health; mental health problems
independent living 200, 206 individualism and infant death 132 induction of labour 115, 116, 117–19, 134
infant feeding practices 137–8, 159–68
infant mortality 20, 131–6 informal childcare 180–2, 183–4 information
and antenatal care 81–2, 85 resistance to formal classes 91–4 communication difficulties 83–4 conception and limited knowledge 65
and effective contraception 24 inadequate sex education 25–6 informal information sources 91 lack of information on induction 117–18
‘Informed Choice’ study 2–3, 79,
129, 142, 161, 172
‘inherited’ maternal identity 176, 177, 178
injectable contraceptives 149, 150, 151
intergenerational transmission mother–daughter
relationships 77–8
parenting norms and practices 19, 176–7, 200–1

internal examinations in labour 117, 119–21, 144

Jade (teenage mother) 39–40
family relationships 39, 40, 165, 179, 186–7, 200, 205
labour and birth 114, 117, 126, 128
motherhood 65, 152, 160, 165,
179, 186–7, 192–3, 195–6, 200, 205, 206–7
and negative attitudes 79, 141, 143, 148, 150
pregnancy and related issues 75, 92, 102–3
James, A. 208
Jasmine (Tracey’s mother) 44–5, 164–5, 189–90, 191–2
Jenkins, R. 10
Jong, Erica Mann: Fear of Flying 6

Katz, C. 176
Kennell, J. 130
kinship networks 73–4
see also family
Klaus, M. 130
Klein, Josephine 176

labour and birth 110–36
birthing environment and power relations 111–13, 125–6, 134, 210
health outcomes and childbearing age 21
negative attitudes towards teenagers 110–11, 112–13, 118, 120–1, 122–3, 124–6, 131, 134–6
Laslett, Peter 14, 19
Layne, L.L. 132
Levitas, R. 29–30
Lewinski, Monica 18
lifestyle behaviours and
pregnancy 99–103
Longhurst, Robyn 107
loss see death and loss Lou (teenage mother)
family relationships 40–1, 65, 155, 180, 181, 186–7, 205, 206–7
labour and birth 111, 112–13, 121, 124, 127
motherhood  64, 139, 141, 142, 147, 148, 149, 152, 155, 160, 165, 167–8, 180, 181, 185–6, 186–7, 192, 205
pregnancy and related issues  101
low birthweight  20, 32 Lowri (teenage mother)  36–7 labour and (still)birth  123, 126, 134–6
and negative attitudes  49, 65–6, 81, 93, 106, 123, 126, 134–5, 172
pregnancy and related issues  49, 65–6, 75, 81, 93, 98, 106, 172
Luci (teenage mother)  37, 72, 90, 133
Luke (Tracey’s boyfriend)  44–5 management
of health-related risk  6, 88–9 of labour  115–24
and quality of care  78–9, 80, 86
Marg (Susan’s mother)  43, 60, 82, 93, 160
marginalisation of teenage mothers  133, 145, 206–7 maternity professionals attitudes  3–4, 50, 78–9, 108, 112–13, 125–6, 129, 141 exclusion of partners  86–7, 209, 210 see also agency; power relations; social class marriage
age at marriage  14
arranged marriage  23–4 and sexual activity  14, 15–16, 77 unmarried status and attitudes  16, 58, 105, 157–8, 170, 172–3 wedding plans  68, 72, 158, 195, 200 maternal bonding  130–1 maternal identity formation  169–73, 177–8, 200 maternity professionals see midwives and maternity professionals ‘matrophobia’  178
May, V.  15
McDermott, E.  206
McRobbie, A.  28
medical discourses  2, 12
gender and mental illness  152 stages of labour  115
Megan (teenage mother)  37, 57, 58, 60, 67, 83, 112, 114, 163 menstruation: protective value  65 mental health problems  21, 44–5, 102–3, 151–7, 174
Mercer, R.T.  175
Michelle (teenage mother)  41–2 and domestic violence  42, 197
family relationships  80–1, 171, 178, 184, 205–6
labour and birth  118, 128–9
pregnancy and related issues  52, 59, 96–7 midwives and maternity professionals attitudes towards clients  2, 21
antenatal care  78–94, 104–9, 110
contraception as female responsibility  147–8 good practice  84–6
marginalisation of teenage mothers  3–4, 50, 78–9, 108, 112–13, 125–6, 129, 141 negative attitudes during labour and birth  110–11, 112–13, 118, 120–1, 122–3, 124–6, 131, 134–6 negative attitudes and postnatal period  137–9, 141–2, 160, 161, 163–4 negative attitudes towards boyfriends  67–8, 110–11, 209 negative view of teenage pregnancy  3, 50, 54, 65–8, 80, 81, 82–3, 93, 97, 104, 105, 108, 141, 147, 149–50, 171 and unmarried status  16, 58, 105, 157–8, 170, 172–3 breastfeeding and policy  162 conflicting priorities  142, 162, 202 defensive practices  86, 88, 202 fragmented service and lack of continuity  78–9, 123–4 labour management  115–24 midwives and maternity professionals – continued and late disclosure  54–5 management demands and quality of care  78–9, 80, 86
  personal demands and researcher's responses  202–3
  teen-specific services  78, 93–4, 144–5
  see also antenatal care miscarriage  95–6, 131
Monk, J.  176
moralising discourse  28, 48, 49–50, 207
  and health professionals  50, 82–3, 145
  and infant feeding practices  159, 164
  and maternal bodies  141–2
  and motherhood  169
Morgan, David  175
morning sickness  75
mother and baby clinics  149–50
mothering
  early postnatal period  137–68
  infants in early childhood  169–201
mothers of teenage mothers
  family dynamics  72–3, 139, 189–90
  dislike of daughter's partner  38, 39, 48, 60, 196, 197
  labour and birth  110, 114–15, 125, 134–5, 205–6
mother–daughter relationship 12–13, 59, 62–3, 74
  comparison to previous generation  77–8
  and daughters' sexual relationships  47–8
  and experience of
  pregnancy  75–8, 80–1, 96, 97, 98
  good relations  194, 205
  and maternal identity  171–2, 177–8
  poor relationships  40–1, 154, 178, 179, 180
  reassurance and potential
  problems  95–6
  and signs of labour  114–15 supportive role  62–3, 77, 80–1, 171, 187, 205–6
  mothering and motherhood  156,
  160, 164–5, 189–90, 190–1, 191–2, 193–4
  childcare provision  180–4
  as role models  174, 175–80, 186–7
  pregnancy and related issues  47–8, 55–9, 60–3, 71, 75–8, 80–1, 96,
  97, 98
Murcott, Anne  167
Murphy, E.  162
Murray, Lynne  17
naming the baby  157–8
Nanda, K.  145
New Labour and teenage
  motherhood  27–32
NHS Cancer Screening
  Programme  145
Nia (teenage mother)  37, 58, 71, 93, 155–6, 160, 205
norms and normative values  82 and bereavement  134, 135–6 clothing and attempts to conform  105–9
  maternal behaviour and foetal
  health  102
  middle-class norms  50–1, 140, 159, 173–4, 185, 190
  and motherhood  130–1, 159, 160–1, 173–5, 185
  intergenerational
  transmission  19, 176–7, 200–1
  resistance to antenatal
  education  91–3, 110
  young people in public space  104 nutrition advice on infant feeding  166
Oakley, A.  74, 122, 174, 176 oral contraceptives  52–3, 145, 149 ‘other’ and research process  9–10 pain and pain relief in labour  110, 111, 129
epidural anaesthesia 116, 119, 121–4
and induction 118–19
partners’ responses 127–8 parental consent and family planning 26 ‘parental responsibility’ and birth registration 157–8 parentcraft classes 91–4, 110, 138 parenting
intergenerational norms 19, 176–7, 200–1 and teenagers’ practices 131
see also mothering
‘parenting deficit’ 17
parents of young parents boyfriends’ parents 72–3, 139, 165, 181, 189–90 and daughters’ sexual identities 48 norms in previous generation 77–8 responses to pregnancy disclosures 56–64
see also fathers: of teenage mothers;
mothers of teenage mothers
Paris, J. 153, 206
partners see boyfriends/partners as fathers paternal absence 20, 35, 36, 157, 190 Pete (Lou’s boyfriend) 40–1, 127, 148, 165, 167–8, 180 physical aspects of pregnancy 75–109 physical punishment of children 185, 186 pill see oral contraceptives Pillow, W. 208
planned pregnancy 23, 28, 35–6, 52–3 pleasure and adolescent sexual activity 18, 48 policy see social policy political responses and youth 4–5 Polly (Michelle’s mother) 42, 160
mothering and motherhood 171, 187, 194, 205–6
childcare provision 177–8, 182
pregnancy and related issues 59, 62, 71, 77, 80–1, 105 postmaturity and induction 117 postnatal checks 144–5, 149 postnatal depression 154, 155–7, 174 postnatal period and
mothering 137–68
negative experiences on postnatal wards 112–13, 137–9 poverty
child poverty 31–3, 210
impact on mothering 167–8, 175, 195–6, 206
lack of prospects 200
and mental health problems 153, 154–5 pre-existing poverty as contributing factor 18–19, 29, 206 see also deprivation; social exclusion; welfare dependency power relations
family background and mental health problems 153–4 feeding older children 166–7 gender-based power 61–2, 170
and health professionals 81, 104–9
and abortion 69, 70, 133
birthing environment 111–13, 125–6, 134, 210 partners’ helplessness at birth 127–8 teenagers’ attempts to conform 105–9 research relationships 8 pre-existing relationships 8 pre-existing contributing factors, 18–19, 206
pregnancy
data on teenage pregnancy rates 22 negative view of teenage pregnancy 3, 50, 54, 65–8, 80, 81, 82–3, 93, 97, 104, 105, 108, 141, 147, 149–50, 171
outcomes and early childbearing 20–1, 74
physical aspects 75–109 realisation and disclosure 46–74
planned pregnancy 23, 28, 35–6, 52–3 unplanned pregnancy 3, 23, 28, 49–53, 64–5, 199
see also antenatal care ‘pregnancy loss’ 131–6
prematurity 20, 90
privacy issues 26, 143–4, 156–7 public and private space 104, 105, 163–4 public transport 11, 183 and hospital visiting 112, 125, 210
‘Pygmalion effect’ 10
Radley, A. 131, 135
realisation of pregnancy 46–53 registering the baby 157–8 regrets 64–5, 71, 118, 198, 199–201 relationship issues 3, 39, 62, 102, 152, 156–7, 196–9
domestic violence 35, 39, 41, 42, 127, 197
see also family; mothers of teenage mothers reputation of girls 48, 63, 70–1, 170 research process
design and methodology 10–12 feminist approaches 7–9 limitations 203–5
participants 10–12, 34–45
South Yorkshire cohort 38–45
Wales-based cohort 34–8
and stigmatised ‘other’ 9–10
Rhian (teenage mother) 37–8, 46, 70, 84, 96, 161–2, 170
Ribbens, J. 184
risk
health-related risk management 6, 88–9 risk-taking 4–7, 23, 51, 207–8 role models for motherhood 174, 175–80 negative role models 178, 179–80, 186–7
Rose, Gillian 107–8
Royal College of Midwives 94
Ruddick, Sara 125, 175, 184
Ryan (Michelle’s boyfriend) 42, 52, 188, 193, 196, 197
Sage, Lorna 50
Sassall, John 9
scans 87, 89
‘scares’ 95–8
Schep-Hughes, Nancy 8, 15, 131, 132, 175, 190 screening and scans 65–6, 87–9 seaside resorts and teenage pregnancy 19, 23 self-harming behaviours 7, 39, 41, 102, 103, 153
self-image and self-consciousness 94–5
Seth, Vikram: A Suitable Boy 80
Sex and Relationships Education (SRE) 48 sex education in schools 25–6, 27, 48
Sex Offenders Act (2003) 25
sexual activity 46–9
age of consent 25, 60
first sexual encounter 23–4, 47, 204 gender and attitudes towards 5–6, 18, 170
and risk-taking 6–7, 51
spatial restrictions 49, 199
see also sexuality of young people sexual health and sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) 6, 22–4, 146–50 sexual health services 17, 23, 24–7 sexuality of young people attitudes towards 5–6
maternity professionals 3, 50, 82–3, 108 ‘sex-negative’ attitudes 18, 82–3 see also sexual activity shopping malls and youth as outsiders 104, 105 Sibley, David 104, 126
siblings
care of younger siblings 137, 184 as teenage mothers 19, 38, 39, 59 significant others 3
and disclosure of pregnancy 53–65 support at birth 124–8, 134–5 see also boyfriends/partners as fathers; mothers of teenage mothers signs of labour 114–15
Skeggs, B. 104, 108
skin-to-skin contact 129–31
slapping children 185, 186
sleeping practices and arrangements 190–5

Smail, D. 153–4

smear tests and postnatal contraception 145–6

smoking habits 34, 35, 39–40, 41, 99, 100–2

social attitudes
gendered attitudes to childbearing 209–10 negative attitudes towards youth 4–5, 104, 207 and prospects after early childbearing 21

social class 1, 2
age and sexual activity 23–4 boyfriends’ families 73
and breastfeeding 159, 160
and discipline approach 185 family and policy 140
and ‘good-enough’ mothering 190 and health inequalities 32 and health outcomes 12
and labour interventions 119
and maternal identities 169–70
and mental health problems 151–2, 153–4
middle-class norms 50–1, 140, 159, 173–4, 185, 190
and water births 117
see also marginalisation of teenage mothers; poverty; social exclusion; social status; working classes social constructionism 12, 174–5 social control 12, 140, 182

social exclusion 27, 29–31, 183 definition 29–30
see also marginalisation of teenage mothers; poverty

Social Exclusion Unit (SEU): Teenage Pregnancy Strategy 27–9, 93–4 social life of girls 62–5, 195–6, 198–9

social policy
and risk 207–8
and teenage pregnancy 27–32, 207 and social exclusion 29–31, 183
Teenage Pregnancy Strategy 27–9, 93–4

social security benefits 19, 34, 35, 38, 40, 41, 182
see also welfare dependency

social services and removal of children 103

social status
and credibility 10, 112–13 families of teenage parents 73 material display 176
unmarried status of mothers 16, 58, 105, 157–8, 170, 172–3 see also social class

Sontag, Susan 9

South Yorkshire cohort 38–45

space
and breastfeeding 163–4
lack of space for relationships 49, 156–7, 191, 198, 199 maternity environment
lack of privacy 143–4
power relations 111–13, 125–6, 134, 210
socio-spatial exclusion 104–5, 110–11, 124–5 restrictions on teenage girls 5, 63

youth and public and private space 104, 105 statutory care see care system

STDs see sexual health and sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) stereotyping 68, 105–6, 170, 173 and social status of mothers 10, 112–13, 149–50

stigmatisation and research process 9–10

stillbirth 98, 131, 134–6 suicide attempts 102, 153

support networks 11
during labour 110–11, 124–8, 134–5

family support 21, 73–4, 167–8, 180–4, 195, 205 lack of support and disadvantage 152–3, 155, 180, 195, 200, 205, 206–7 and outcomes of early childbearing 21, 73–4, 205–6 Sure Start initiative 30–1

Sure Start Local Programmes (SSLPs) 30
Sure Start Plus Programmes (SSP) 30, 31
Susan (teenage mother) 43

family relationships 48, 57, 205
motherhood 151, 160, 162–3, 166–7, 187, 189, 191, 193
pregnancy and related issues 52, 57, 61–2, 71, 93, 95 ‘sympathetic pregnancy syndrome’ 76 syphilis 22–3

Tanno, D.V. 157
tattoos 107
technical representations 16–17
technology
antenatal care 80–1, 87–90
management of labour 115–24
teen-specific services 21, 78, 92, 93–4, 144–5 teenage fatherhood see boyfriends/partners as fathers Teenage Pregnancy Midwifery Network 94
Teenage Pregnancy Strategy 27–9, 93–4
teenagers 2, 5, 207

low social status 10, 112–13, 172–3 see also adolescence
termination see abortion theoretical perspectives 12–13 Thompson, Robert 170 threatened miscarriage 95–6
tiredness during pregnancy 75
Tolman, Deborah 48
Tracey (teenage mother) 44–5

family relationships 44, 140, 153
labour and birth 117, 142
motherhood 139–40, 141, 152, 160, 164–5, 166, 184, 189–90, 191–2
and negative attitudes 83
pregnancy and related issues 78–9, 102
transport
hospital visiting 112, 125, 210

lack of private transport 11, 125, 210 ‘traumatic stress disorder’ 174
Treffers, P. 18–19
twins: death of one twin 131, 132–3 Tylor, Edward 76

ultrasound scans 87, 89–90 unintended pregnancy 3, 23, 28, 49–53, 64–5, 199 United Nations Children’s Fund 159 unmarried status 16, 58, 105, 157–8, 170, 172–3 unprotected sex 3, 28, 51

vaginal bleeding and threatened miscarriage 95–6 vaginal examinations in labour 117, 119–21, 144 Venables, Jon 170
violence
partners’ temperament 38, 127–8
see also domestic violence
visiting restrictions 112, 125, 205, 210

Wales-based cohort 34–8, 73
Walker, R. 122
water births 117
weight gain 94–5, 150–1
welfare gain 16, 19, 53
see also social security benefits welfare-to-work policies 31
West, J. 206, 207
Winnicott, Donald 159, 190
Winterson, J. 46
Wong, J. 82
Woollett, A. 170

working classes
child-rearing experience 137 and discipline of children 185–6 exclusion and vulnerability 210 female identity formation 206 importance of ‘cooked dinners’ 167–8 lack of voice 7, 78–80
and middle-class norms 50–1, 140, 159, 173–4, 185, 190 reasons for early childbearing 23 research participants 11
social control and family life 12, 140, 182
support networks 74
World Health Organization 159

worry see anxiety

youth

social and political responses 4–5

see also adolescence; teenagers