References

Index

Acting out, psychoanalytic understanding of, 4, 143–144
as first symptom in evolution, 141 Agoraphobia, case of application of symptom-code, 72–74
case background, 71
initial consultation, 71–72
symptom analysis and findings, 74–76 of 60-year-old woman, 107–110 Anger, 142 and sex, 141
Anger, experience and management of, 14–18
duration, 153 intensity, 152 magnitude, 152
and wish, 160–161
Anorectic symptom, 118–120 Anorexia, case of
application of symptom-code, 117–118
case background, 115–117
Anxiety, issue of, 6–7
Asperger’s syndrome, case of, see Nash, John Forbes Jr.
Basic emotions, 17 Blushing, cases of symptom-code and infrastructure of, 92–93 28-year-old physician, 97–98
40-year-old librarian, 95–97
70-year-old businessman, 93–95 Body delusion, case of analysis, 41–42
application of symptom-code, 38–40
initial consultation, 37–38
Brenner, C., 5–6
Character defenses, 158
Character trait and symptoms, 149–155
Clinical case studies, of accessible symptoms
agoraphobia, 71–76
body delusion, 37–38 compulsion behavior, 31–32 discharged phallic obsession, 83–88 feeling of migraine, 77–81 hallucination thoughts, 67 morbid compulsion, 55 nighttime sweats, 46–47 obsession thoughts, 59–62 obsessive thoughts of death, 49–50 thoughts of strangling, 43–44
Clinical case studies, of inaccessible symptoms
agoraphobia, 107–110
anorexia, 115–120
blushing, 91–99
delusional self-incrimination, 101–105
dissociative identity disorder, 121–125
Nash, John Forbes Jr., 127–137
obsessive-compulsion disorder, 111–114 Compulsion behavior, case study on application of symptom-code, 32–34
initial consultation, 31–32
symptom, development of, 32–34
Constant terms, idea of, 8
Conversion process, 7–8
Death instinct, notion of, 9–10
Defense equilibrium, 5 Delusional self-incrimination, case of
application of symptom-code, 103–105
case background, 101–103
Disempowerment, issue of, 13–14 Discharged phallic obsession, case of analysis and findings, 87–88
application of symptom-code, 86–87
case background, 83–84
initial consultation, 84–85
Dissociative identity disorder
- application of symptom-code, 124–125
- case background, 121–122

Ego-alien reaction, 11, 149
Ego defenses, see Emotion defenses Emotion defenses, 158–160
Engel, G., 7
Fenichel, O., 7
Ferenczi, S., 8
Freud, S., 24
  - amalgam of variables on study of symptoms, 3
  - conversion process, 7–8
  - development of symptoms, 4
  - hysteria, 4
  - issue of anxiety, 6
  - relationship between wish and symptom, 4–5
  - repression, concept of, 4
  - wish, concept of, 5–6, 8

"Giving-up/given-up" complex, 7

Hallucination thoughts, case of
- analysis and findings, 69–70
- application of symptom-code, 68–69
- case background, 67
- initial consultation, 68

Helplessness, 13–14

History, of psychological symptoms
- constant terms, idea of, 8
- conversion process, 7–8
- defense equilibrium, 5
- development of symptoms, 4
- issue of anxiety, 6–7

Identification, 158–159
Inaccessible symptoms, 149
Internalization, 159
Involuntary reaction, 11

Kellerman, H., 17

Learned helplessness, 7
Line, notion of, 27–28
Luborsky, L., 8, 10

Migraine, case of
- analysis and findings, 80–81
- application of symptom-code, 79
- case background, 77
- initial consultation, 78–79

Momentry forgetting, 8

Morbid compulsion, case of
- analysis and findings, 58
- application of symptom-code, 57
- background, 55
- initial consultation, 56–57

Nash, John Forbes Jr.
- application of symptom-code, 134–136
- diagnosis of Asperger’s syndrome, 128
- elements of Nash’s problem, 130–134
- first schizophrenic episode, 130
- treatment, 136–137

Nighttime sweats, case analysis of
- analysis and findings, 49
- application of symptom-code, 48–49
- case background, 46–47
- initial consultation, 47–48

Obsession thoughts, case of
- analysis and findings, 64–66
- application of symptom-code, 63–64
- initial consultation, 59–62

Obsessive-compulsion disorder, case of
- application of symptom-code, 113–114
- case background, 111–112

Obsessive thoughts of death, case of
- analysis and findings, 52–53
- application of symptom-code, 51–52
- background, 49–50
- initial consultation, 50–51

Phases, of emotional-psychological symptoms
- issue of emotions and objects, 22
- pleasure principle of life, 19
- repression of anger, 19–21
- symptom formation, 22–23

Positive/negative symptoms, 25

Rangell, L., 16
Repression, concept of, 4, 7, 13–14

Schmale, A., 7
Sex/anger, 141
Splitting, 159
Symbolization, 159–160
Symptom code
- acting out, psychoanalytic understanding of, 143–144
- anger, experience and management of, 14–18
- applications, 19–24
- axiom of, 142
on basic emotions, 17 clinical cases, 145–147 definition of a symptom, 10–12, 23–24 disempowerment and helplessness, 13–14 migration of symptoms in psyche, 161–162 primacy of anger, 142–143 role of sexuality, 144–145 symptom formation, psychoanalytic understanding of, 144–145 themes, 9–10
wish, concept of, 12–13

Theoretical works, of psychological symptom
Brenner, C., 5–6
Engel, G., 7
Fenichel, O., 7
Ferenczi, S., 8
Freud, S., 3–5, 7–8

Luborsky, L., 8
Schmale, A., 7
Seligman, M., 7

Thoughts of strangling, case analysis of analysis and findings, 45–46
application of symptom-code, 44–45
case background, 43–44
initial consultation, 44

Transient symptoms, 8

Tyrannical reaction, 11

“Who” The, 22

Wish, concept of, 5–6, 8, 12–13
and anger, 160–161 relationship with symptom, 4–5, 25–26 Withdrawal state and symptom, 26–27
line, notion of, 27–28