Index

A

Acromegaly, 24
Adaptation active stimulation, 280 pressure, passive object, 279–280
TBT, 345
vibration, individual strength, 281 Adenotonsillectomy (AT) distribution, sleep position, 337–338
in DS, 177–180
gold standard treatment, 153, 159 meta-analysis, 159
obese children, OSA, 153
positional change during sleep, 335–336 PSG-proven OSA, remediation, 152 success rate, 153
AF. See Atrial fibrillation (AF)
AHl. See Apnea-hypopnea index (AHI) Airway obstruction biomechanics, upper, 154–157 changes, obstruction, 125 compliance, 43
drug-induced sleep, 120 positional dependency, 211
sleep position, 125
upper (see Upper airway obstruction, children) Amsterdam Positional OSA Classification (APOC) algorithms and formulas, prediction, 396 clinical relevance, elimination, 133
description, 132
flowchart, 133, 134
insufficient distribution, sleeping positions, 132–133 new-generation PT, 134
POSA prevalence possible outcome, 134 self-correction, WSP, 133 sensitivity and specificity, 133
Apnea-hypopnea index (AHI)
AF, 17
baseline polysomnogram, 239 body posture, 97, 99
calculation, 42
CPAP, 39, 44, 248
definition, 96
left positional OSA, 96
MADs, 40
obesity, 20
patients
location, trunk position sensor, 67, 68 overnight PSG, 65, 66 respiratory event clustering, 65 position dependence, 71 position-related OSA, 199, 200, 202 possible outcome, APOC, 134
REM sleep, 249
sleep apnea severity, 56, 96 and smoking, 12
supine position, 5
APOC. See Amsterdam Positional OSA Classification (APOC) Arterial hypertension
cardiovascular morbidity, 16
comorbid OSAS, 22
Asian OSA patients
baseline clinical characteristics, 87, 89 clinical characteristics, 86–87 oxygen desaturation, 85 polysomnographic characteristics, 89, 90
prevalence, 87, 88

© Springer International Publishing Switzerland 2015
N. de Vries et al. (eds.), Positional Therapy in Obstructive Sleep Apnea, DOI 10.1007/978-3-319-09626-1
Asian OSA patients (cont.)
race, 13
risk factors, 91
SNA, 85, 86
superior-posterior airway space, 85 supine sleep, 87
TB, 91–92
AT. See Adenotonsillectomy (AT)
Atrial fibrillation (AF), 10, 17, 22, 23, 213, 214

B
Bariatric surgery
changes, 188–189
disease severity, 326 inclusion and exclusion criteria, 186
limitations, 190–191
patient demographics, 187
POSA development, 189 predictors, 189–190
prevalence, 189
weight change, effect, 190 positional vs. non-positional patients, 188 pre-and post-bariatric surgery results, 188 prevalence, 187–188
PSG, 187
Best sleeping position (BSP)
APOC criteria, 133–134
and WSP, AHI, 132–133
Bilateral sagittal split osteotomy (BSSO), 322 Body position. See also Sleeping position
AHI, 55, 56
cardiac function, 215
in children (see Sleep apnea) decubitus, 96
in DS (see Down syndrome (DS)) modulatory effect, weight, 204
PAP titration, 376–377
PSG, 4, 67–68
sleep apnea, hyperventilation, 209
sleep-disordered breathing, 3, 158 snoring index, 145
SPT’s treatment concept, 276 static pressure area plot, 58 types, 333
BSP. See Best sleeping position (BSP)

C
CAD. See Coronary artery disease (CAD)
Cardiac arrhythmias, 16, 17
Cardiovascular morbidity
arterial hypertension, 16
CAD, 18
cardiac arrhythmias, 17
and mortality, 19–20, 371
stroke, 16–17
subclinical cardiocirculatory impairment, 18–19
Cartwright’s criteria, 132, 168, 187
168187Central sleep apnea (CSA)
acromegaly, 24
and CSB (see Cheyne–Stokes respiration/breathing (CSB))
definition, 8, 209, 210
diagnosis, 9
exclusion criteria, 266
pathophysiology, 209
positional dependency (see Positional dependency) Cheyne–Stokes respiration/breathing (CSB) acute phase, stroke, 16 and CSA (see Central sleep apnea (CSA)) ICSD-3 manual, 10
mechanisms, 213
positional dependency (see Positional dependency)
PSG recording, 212
CHF. See Congestive heart failure (CHF) Clinical characteristics, Asian patients.
See Asian OSA patients
Cognitive deficits, 20–21
Comorbidity, 41, 177, 179, 356–358, 360, 376.
See also Comorbid OSAS
Comorbid OSAS
AF, 23
in arterial hypertension, 22 in CAD, 23
in CHF, 22
in endocrine and metabolic disorders acromegaly, 24
CS, 24–25
and diabetes mellitus, 25
hypothyroidism, 23–24
and metabolic syndrome, 25 in obesity, 22
Compliance
bimodal distribution, 41–42
bulky mass, 282
cardiovascular effects, 44 clinical reality, 41
CPAP (see Continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP))
discomfort, 281–282
embedded microsensor thermometer, 45 guidance and monitoring, 284, 285 long-term, 306
MADs, 40
PSG outcomes, 45
and PT (see Positional therapy (PT)) restricted movement, 282
side effects, 42
sleeping discomfort, 282
sleep surgery, 40–41
subjective therapeutic adherence, 42
Congestive heart failure (CHF), 10, 17, 22, 95, 179, 213 Continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP) apnea-induced mechanical stress, 45 characteristics, 362
compliance issues, 345
costs, 357
description, 39
extreme OSA, 321
failure, 323
glycaemic control, 25
and MAD treatment, 41
OA_m therapy, 290
oral device therapy, 307
OSA, 290
pneumatic splint, 39
vs. PT, 346–349
side effects, 40
snoring-associated vibration, 45 surgical/oral device therapy, 14 tracheostomy, 19
Coronary artery disease (CAD) CAC and OSAS, 18
cardiovascular morbidity, 16
cardiovascular mortality, 19
comorbid OSAS, 23
myocardial infarction (MI), 18 oxygen demand and reduced oxygen supply, 18 PT and palatal surgery, 306
CPAP. See Continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP) Craniofacial differences
MMA/MAD, 91
POSA, 83
PPs, 83
and soft tissue volume, 83
CSA. See Central sleep apnea (CSA)
CSB. See Cheyne–Stokes respiration/breathing (CSB)
Cushing’s syndrome (CS), 24–25

D
Diabetes mellitus, 21, 23, 25
Distribution of sleep position
AT, 337–338
adults with OSAS, 338–339 eight sleep positions, 45° ranges, 333, 334 five types, 333
four sleep positions, 90° ranges, 333, 334 nine types, 333
pediatric OSAS, 337–338
upper airway surgery, 338–339 Down syndrome (DS) causes, 175 characteristic features, 175 cognitive impairment, 175 positional OSA, 180–183
PSG, 176–177
sleep and OSA, 176
therapeutic options, 177–179 Drug-induced sleep endoscopy (DISE) anesthetic depth, 110 artificial ventilation, 114 cardiorespiratory monitoring, 108 desaturation events, 120
in DS, 177
endoscopic upper airway evaluation, 108 evaluation techniques, 107 head rotation, 116
heart rate and oxygen saturation, 120 mandibular repositioning devices, 108, 110 MISE, 121
nasal topical anesthesia, 120 OSA surgical failure, 108 pharmacologic properties, drugs, 107–109 pharyngeal structures, 107 reliability and validity, 114–115 sedative agents, 109
sleep position, 121–122
tongue base surgery, 316
upper airway behavior, 108 VOTE classification, 110–114
DS. See Down syndrome (DS)

E
Effectiveness
adaptation, habituation and subject variances, 279 cost, 27
definition, 267
long-term (see Long-term effectiveness) OA, CPAP and surgery, 45
PT (see Positional therapy (PT)) supine sleep time, 267
Effect of position
AHI variation, 158
gold standard, 159
intranasal corticosteroids, 159 on sleep-disordered breathing, 158 weight management, 160
Epidemiology, OSA
  age, 12
  gender, 12
  obesity, 11
  race, 13
  smoking and alcohol use, 12–13

Epiglottis
  hypopharyngeal/retrolingual, 112 obstruction, 111
  structures, VOTE, 113
  VOTE classification system, 110

Epworth Sleepiness Scale (ESS) daytime hypersomnia, 165
  daytime sleepiness, 87, 197, 254, 349 mild and moderate POSA patients, 273 NPP and PP, 199
  Sleep Heart Health Study, 14 snoring and gasping, 165

ESS. See Epworth Sleepiness Scale (ESS)

F
  Fibrillation, atrial, 10, 17, 22, 23, 213, 214
  Finite element model (FEM), 156, 157
  Functional Outcomes of Sleep Questionnaire (FOSQ), 254–256, 261, 267, 269 Functional residual capacity (FRC), 164, 165 Future perspectives, PT advantaged modern methods, 232–233
    APOC criteria, 135
    combined with other treatment, 399 cost-effectiveness and good compliance, 398 effectiveness, 397
    OA efficacy, 45
    patient friendliness, 398
    preventive medicine, 399
    reversibility, 398
    side effects, absence, 398 software applications, 233
    wide availability, 398

G
  Gestation, 163, 165–168
  Gold standard, 39, 65, 153, 159, 243, 290, 321, 372

H
  Habitual snoring, 5, 88, 176, 215, 396, 413.
    See also Non-apneic snorers Habitation continuous stimulation, 280 effectiveness, 279
  vibrational feedback, 274 vibration patterns, 280

Head position, AHI computer programming, 79 correlation, AHI, 74 demographic and polysomnographic characteristics, 73, 74 dual position sensors, 68 dual-rotation recording setup, 68, 69 flexion-extension movements, 69, 70 mean AHI values, 75, 76 overnight polysomnogram, 73 overnight supine AHI, 75 relative time spent in different positions, 77 sensor, location, 68, 69 sideways rotation, 78 and trunk position analysis, 70–71 trunk position sensor, 72 and trunk supine position, 75, 76 Hypothyroidism, 23–24, 176

L
  Lateral sleep posture, OSA patients. See Non-positional patients (NPPs)

Long-term compliance
  AHI, 238
  CPAP/auto-CPAP, 240
  and data collection, 261
  ESS, 239
  POSA, 237
  PT, 43
  respiratory parameters, 239–240 second PSG, 238
  sleeping supine, 237
  sleep quality and comfort complaints, 248 subjective sleep parameters, 266 supine prevention vest, 238
  TBT, 237, 306
  treatment, CPAP, 239
  upper airway obstruction, 239

Long-term effectiveness. See also Long-term compliance clinical implications, 275–276
  CPAP’s compliance, 273–274 measurements and definitions, 266–267 median number, positional changes, 274 methodological considerations, 274–275 mild-to-moderate POSA, 273 objective compliance and hours, use, 268 patient characteristics, 268, 269
  PT and OSA, 266
  reaction time, 274
sleep apnea (see Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA)) SPT's effects (see Sleep position trainer (SPT)) statistical analysis, 268
TBT, 273
treatment evaluation, 273

M
Maintenance of wakefulness tests (MWTs), 14, 349 Mandibular advancement devices (MADs)
Asian OSA patients, 41
characteristics, 362
and CPAP, 367
dental morphology, 40
Korean OSA patients, 194 long-term subjective compliance rates, 273 long-term treatment, 40 moderate OSA, 367
objective usage data, 42, 273
positional dependency, 385
side effects, 40
Maxillomandibular advancement (MMA). See also Residual POSA, MMA
AHI, 322–323
PAS, 325
POSA, 323
pre-and post-results, 324, 325 PSG and clinical variables, 323, 324 severe OSA, 322
success rates, 322
Metabolic changes
increased weight and obesity, 84 patients, OSA, 83
Metabolic syndrome, 20, 21, 25
Midazolam administration, 109, 120 benzodiazepine effect, 109 contraindications, 108
DISE, 120
induced sleep endoscopy (MISE), 121 pharmacological properties, 109
sedative agents, 109
sleep, 109
Midazolam-induced sleep endoscopy (MISE), 121 Minimum arterial oxygen saturation (SaO2)
body posture, 97, 99
nocturnal oxygenation, 348
in OSA patients, 101
in REM and NREM sleep, 100, 203 in supine position, 99
MMA. See Maxillomandibular advancement (MMA)
Mobile applications, 233, 244
Motor vehicle accidents (MVAs), 27, 332

N Neuropathy
autonomic, 25
diabetic, 25
OSA patients, 83
upper airway, 83
New-generation PT, 5, 132, 134
Nocturnal oxygenation, 17, 18, 178, 216–217, 347, 348
Non-apneic snorers demographics and PSG results, 145
description, 143, 144
measurement, 147 neurological and electrophysiological findings, 83
patients, 144
and position dependency, 144, 146–147
PSG, 144–145
PT, 148
supine-dependent vs. non-supine-dependent patients, 145, 146 supine snoring index, 145
Non-positional patients (NPPs) applicability, 384
body posture effect, 203–204 with breathing abnormalities, 391 changes in AHI, 199, 200, 202
clinical implications, 204
CPAP treatment, 194
demographic and PSG characteristics, 197–199, 201
described, 193
option, PT, 389
recorded PSGs, 57
subgroups, positional dominance change, 195
time-related changes, characterisation, 194 Non-rapid eye movement (NREM) sleep hazard ratio, respiratory events, 62 minimum SaO2 value, 199
"positional dependency", 62
vs. REM, 203
respiratory and arousal event frequencies, 61, 62 sleep stages, OSA, 61
supine posture, 61
NPP. See Non-positional patients (NPPs)
Obesity. See also Bariatric surgery
AT, 159
and BMI, 24
body weight change and AHI, 11 Cartwright’s criteria, 186 classification, 60
comorbid OSAS, 22
effect of body weight, 59 high degree, 205
IFSO criteria, 186
OHS (see Obesity hypoventilation syndrome (OHS)) position-related OSA (see Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA)) prevalence of sleep apnea, 53
sleep surgery, 40
and snoring/sleep-disordered, 224–225 upper airway narrowing, 11
Obesity hypoventilation syndrome (OHS), 10 Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA) aetiology, 3
AHI, 5, 248
airway obstruction, upper (see Upper airway obstruction, children) apneic events, 127
cerebrovascular and cardiovascular morbidity, 371 changes in obstruction site, 122–123 Cheyne–Stokes breathing, 224
compliance, 261
CPAP, 260
daytime sleepiness, 343
description, 8, 223–224
diagnosis, 3, 8
DISE (see Drug-induced sleep endoscopy (DISE)) displacement, TB, 127 epidemiological studies, 11–13
flowchart, 299
lateral obstructors and nonobstructors, 123–125 lateral wall collapsibility, 127 left and right lateral decubitus positions, 100
long-term effectiveness (see Long-term effectiveness) and MMA (see Maxillomandibular advancement (MMA))
new-generation PT, 5
nonobese and non-severe patients, 101 obesity levels, 53
overnight diagnostic PSGs, 96 patient characteristics, 120
PD patients, 126–127
pharyngeal airway, 119
and POSA (see Positional obstructive sleep apnea (POSA)) positional dependency, 3, 119 position-related
clinical implications, 204–205
clinical-oriented definition, 193 deterioration, sleep quality, 205 division, 193
3D magnetic resonance imaging reconstructions, 205, 206 limitations, 205–206
obesity, 194
prevalence, PP, 194
PSG evaluations (see Polysomnography (PSG)) time-related changes, 194–195 weight gain, 194
preventive medicine, 399
and PSG (see Polysomnography (PSG))
and PT (see Positional therapy (PT))
sleep-disordered breathing, 224
sleeping position, 95
and snoring, 260
SVF, 126
total sleeping time (TST), 5 treatments combined with others, 399 compliance (see Compliance)
cost-effectiveness and good compliance, 398 diversification, 4
effectiveness, 397
patient friendliness, 398
reversibility, 398
side effects, absence, 398
wide availability, 398
upper airway instability, 119
UPPP, 298
Obstructive sleep apnea syndrome (OSAS) apneas, hypopneas and RERA, 8–9 cardiovascular morbidity, 16–19
cardiovascular mortality, 19–20 cholesterol-lowering therapy, 27 chronic and end-stage renal disease, 26
cognitive deficits, 20–21
comorbid (see Comorbid OSAS) complaints, adults, 334, 335 components, 8
and COPD, 26
CPAP therapy, 27, 28, 362
CSA, 8, 9
daytime symptoms, 15 definitions, 8
diagnosis, 332, 356
epidemiology, 11–13
gender and age bias, 15
ICSD-3 criteria, 8, 9
MAD therapy, 363
medical community, 7
metabolic consequences, 20 and motor vehicle accidents (MVAs), 27 night, 15
and OHS, 10
older men, 361
osteotomy, 363
pediatric (see Pediatric OSAS) and polycythaemia, 26 position training, 364
prevalence, 355
sleep-disordered breathing syndrome, 8 sleep-induced hypoventilation, 10 sleepiness, 13–15
snoring, 13
surgical treatment (see Surgical treatment, OSAS) therapies and characteristics, 362
treatment, 360–361
and UARS, 9
underdiagnosis, 359–360
untreated (see Untreated OSAS)
upper airway surgery, adults, 336–339
OHS. See Obesity hypoventilation syndrome (OHS)
Oral appliance therapy (OAT) calculation, 290
efficacy, 291–293
OAm therapy, 290
OSA and CPAP, 133, 289 prevalence, supine-dependent sleep apnea, 293–294
PT, 294
titratable and duo-bloc MRA designs, 290 and upper airway surgery, 243 Oropharynx
hypopharyngeal/retrorolingual obstruction, 112 lateral walls, 112
structures, VOTE, 113
tonsils and lateral pharyngeal wall tissues, 112 upper airway models, 155
OSA. See Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA)
OSAS. See Obstructive sleep apnea syndrome (OSAS)

P
Palatal surgery
AHI, 304
baseline patient characteristics, 300, 301 calculations, 299–300 compliance, success and cure rates, 306 definitions, 298
limitations, 305
long-term compliance, 306
median polysomnographical parameters and IQR, 301 oral appliances and surgery, 297
patients, 298
POSA and AH1, 298, 300, 303
RFTB, 298
sleep-disordered breathing, 306
sleep surgery, 40
theoretical treatment flowchart, 304 and tongue base surgery, 316–317
treatment, 297, 300
UPPP, 298 (see also Uvulopalatopharyngoplasty (UPPP))
Z-palatoplasty, 298
PAP therapy. See Positive airway pressure (PAP) therapy Patents
airway, 122, 123, 125
antisnoring device, 225 historical reports, 237 motion limiting device, 230
in PT, 225, 226
shoulder brace and antisnoring attachment, 225 sleep posture monitor and alarm system, 230 snoring prevention and sleep posture alert apparatus, 231
Pediatric OSAS
and AT
distribution of sleep position, 337–338
positional change, 335–336
diagnosis, 332
mouth breathing, 334
and OSA in DS, 176, 179, 180
prevalence, 331
primary treatment, 332
restless sleep, 332
Polycythaemia, 26
Polysomnography (PSG)
bariatric surgery, 187
body position, 67–68
CSA/CSB, 212
in DS, 176–177
groups, positional component, 57
Polysomnography (PSG) (cont.)
ICSD-3 criteria, 9
laboratory, 372–375 parameters, 121
position-related OSA
age differences, 201
changes in AHI, 199, 200, 202
characteristics, 87, 90
conventional parameters, 196–197
demographic and PSG characteristics, 197–199, 201 participants, 195
patient’s population, flowchart, 195, 196 severity, disease, 203
statistical analysis, 197
weight gain and AHI increase, 203–204 weight loss and gain group, 195–196
snoring, 144–145
systems, non-supine AHI calculation, 137
POSA. See Positional obstructive sleep apnea (POSA) Positional alarm devices apparatus and method, 231 gravity-activated sensor, 231 monitor/alarm, gravity-activated, 230 “sleep posture monitor and alarm system”, 230 variations, 253
Positional change during sleep
AT, 335–336
complaints, children and adults, 334, 335
definition, 335, 339
mouth breathing, 334
snoring, 334
upper airway surgery, adults with OSAS, 336–337 Positional dependency
central apnea-hypopnea index (CAHI), 210 clinical improvement, 210–211 CSA/CSB, heart failure patients
body position, 215
description, 212
forced oscillation technique (FOT), 216 mechanisms, 212, 213
nocturnal oxygen saturation, 216–217 prevalence, severity and clinical determinants, 213–215 PSG recording, 212
pulmonary system, 215–216
REM sleep, 212
stepped-care approach, 217
upper airway narrowing, 216 ventilatory instability, 215 MRI scan, 210
progressive pharyngeal narrowing, 211
PSG, 210
supine dependency, 211 Positional devices
sleep-disordered breathing, 347–348
TASB, 345, 346
Zzoma positional device, 346–349
Positional obstructive sleep apnea (POSA).
See also Residual POSA, MMA age and body weight, 3 Asians (see Asian OSA patients) bariatric surgery (see Bariatric surgery) Cartwright’s criteria, 186
changes in AHI, 199, 200, 202
classification system, 132 (see also Amsterdam Positional OSA Classification (APOC)) definitions, 132, 187, 344
and DS
AHI in prone position, 181 “legs crossed, torso flopped forward position”, 180 patient characteristics and PSG outcomes, 180, 181 peculiar body position, 180 pre-and post-AT PSGs, 180
PSG positional data, 181, 183
sleep positions, 180, 182 SPT training, 182 surveillance, 180
gender, age and BMI, 98, 100
long-term effectiveness (see Long-term effectiveness)
and OSAS, 206
pathophysiology, 344
PSG (see Polysomnography (PSG))
and PT (see Positional therapy (PT))
severity, 374–376
sleep position, mild to moderate, 81–82 SPT (see Sleep position trainer (SPT))
success rates, 315
supine AHI, 253
treatment, 259
Positional patients (PPs) body posture effect, 203–204
changes in AHI, 199, 200, 202
clinical implications, 204
CPAP treatment, 194
demographic and PSG characteristics, 197–199, 201
described, 193
prevalence, 194
subgroups, positional dominance change, 195
time-related changes, characterisation, 194 Positional sleep apnea

- age, 60–61
- AHI, 54
- anatomic/morphological factors, 58–59
- definition, 53
- effect, sleep stage, 61–63
- lead dislodgement, 55
- obesity, 59–60, 224
- prevalence, 54
- PSG, 244
- severity, 56–57
- snoring, 225
- supine and nonsupine posture, 54

Positional therapy (PT)

- agenda, research, 391–392
- alternative in POSA, 367
- APOC criteria (see Amsterdam Positional OSA Classification (APOC))
- breathing abnormalities, supine posture, 391
- bulky mass, 283–284
- Cartwright’s criteria (see Cartwright’s criteria)
- cognitive habituation, 280
- compliance issues, 42–43, 281–282
- vs. CPAP, 92, 251 (see also Positional vs. CPAP therapy)
- discomfort
  - bulky mass, 282–283
  - falling asleep, 283
- effective and patient friendly, 5
- elevated posture, 387–388
- first-generation device
  - apnoea–hypopnoea index, 246
  - baseline characteristics, 245, 246
  - CPAP failure, 243
  - design, 244
  - device, 244, 245
  - ESS, 249
  - mean sleep parameters, 246, 248
  - OFF modus, 247
- POSA and AHI, 243
- sleep quality disruption, 244
- supine position, 249
- surgical success, 249
- treatment, sleep apnoea, 250
- worst sleeping position prevetion, 248
- head extension, 388
- insights in therapy, 284–285
- knee up posture, 388
- left vs. right lateral decubitus position (see Sleep position)
- long-term effectiveness (see Long-term effectiveness)
- MAD/surgery, 367
- new generation, 5, 132, 134

NPP, 389, 391
OSA, 3
pathophysiology basis, 385–387 positioned alarm devices, 230–231 PPs vs. NPPs, 384–385 pregnant women, 390
restricted movement, 282
SDB during pregnancy
  - CPAP compliance, pertain, 170
  - prevention, preeclampsia and IUGR, 169
  - and SHS, 170
  - SPT, 169
  - TBT, 169
- self-avoidance, supine posture, 389
- sensory adaption, 279–280
- situation, ideal world, 368, 369
- snoring, 148
- and SPT (see Sleep position trainer (SPT))
- and TBT (see Tennis ball technique (TBT))
- TBT problem, 281
- training and guidance, 285
- treatment prediction, hypotheses, 138–139
- upper airway surgery, 390
- vibrational alarm devices, 231–232
- vibration to individual strength, 281
- Positional vs. CPAP therapy
  - cognitive performance, 349
  - comparitive studies, 346–347
  - daytime sleepiness, 349
  - nocturnal oxygenation, 348
  - sleep-disordered breathing, 347–348
  - sleep quality, 348–349
- Position dependency. See also Positional obstructive sleep apnea (POSA)
  - in CSA/CSB, 216
  - LO and LNO, 124
  - in non-apneic snorers, prevalence, 144–148
  - OSA (see Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA))
  - palatal surgery (see Palatal surgery)
  - patient’s characteristics, 41
  - and SDB, 168–169
  - supine (see Supine-dependent OSA (sdOSA))
  - surgery effect, 316
  - videofluoroscopy, 126
- Position dependent OSAS
  - diagnosis, 68
  - head position-aggravated trunk supine, 73
  - PSG measurement system, 65
  - trunk position sensor readout, 71 Position-dependent sleep apnea body position, PAP titration, 376–377 clinical care and clinical research, 377–378 home diagnosis, 373–374 laboratory diagnosis, 372–373 OSA severity, 374–376
phenotyping, 372

Position training
complaints, adults, 334, 335
CPAP, 362
diagnosis, 332, 356
MAD therapy, 363
older men, 361
OSAS, 363
osteotomy, 363
pediatric (see Pediatric OSAS)
prevalence, 355
surgical treatment (see Surgical treatment, OSAS)
therapies and characteristics, 362
treatment, 360–361
underdiagnosis, 359–360
untreated (see Untreated OSAS)
upper airway surgery, adults, 336–339

Positive airway pressure (PAP) therapy, 214, 332, 336, 375–392. See also Continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP)

PPs. See Positional patients (PPs)

Prediction, treatment outcome averaging, 138
calculated non-supine AHI, 138 fixed correction, 138–139 PSG systems, 137

Pregnancy, respiration changes
  alveolar oxygen tension, 164
estrogen-induced rhinitis, 164 in gestation, 163
O₂ consumption and desaturations, 164 physiologic anemia, 164
PT (see Positional therapy (PT))
SDB (see Sleep-disordered breathing (SDB))

Prevalence
  AF, 17
  and age, 12 COPD, 7
epidemiological studies, 11
metabolic syndrome, 25
OAT (see Oral appliance therapy (OAT))
OSA (see Obstructive Sleep apnea (OSA))
and OSAS, 8
POSA (see Positional obstructive sleep apnea (POSA))
PPs vs. NPPs, 384–385

SDB, 11
stroke, 17

Propofol
computerized target-controlled infusion system, 108 indications, DISE, 108
pharmacological properties, 109
sedative agents, DISE, 109 target controlled infusion, 115
PSG. See Polysomnography (PSG)
PT. See Positional therapy (PT)

R
Radiofrequent ablation of the base of the tongue (RFTB) body position-specific AHI values, 307 infections and abscess formation avoidance, 299 partial retrolingual collapse, 298 study population, 305
tongue and palate surgery, 313 UPPP and ZPP, 300

Rapid eye movement (REM) sleep
  CSA/CSB, 212
  influence of body posture, 97 limitation, 373
  muscle atonia, 61
  non-supine position, 63
  sleep stages, OSA, 61
  supine and non-supine position, 61

Renal failure, chronic, 26
RERAs. See Respiratory effort-related arousals (RERAs)

Residual POSA, MMA
  AHI, 322–323
  clinical variables, 324, 325
definition, 323
disease severity influence, 326 gravity, effect of, 326 patients, 323
pharyngeal airway space, 324 pre- and post-MMA results, 324, 325
PSG, 323

Rapid eye movement (REM) sleep sleep position and surgical outcome, 326–327
surgical technique, 322

Respiratory effort-related arousals (RERAs), 8–9, 332, 376

Restless sleep. See also Positional change during sleep
description, 332
and frequent awakenings, 282 management, 332–333
and snoring, 159
S
SDB. See Sleep-disordered breathing (SDB) sdOSA. See Supine-dependent OSA (sdOSA) Sleep apnea. See also Obstructive sleep apnea syndrome (OSAS); Position-dependent sleep apnea APOC criteria, 131–135
in children adiposity, 152
AHI variation, 158
collapsibility, shape and structural, 157–158 dependence, soft tissues, 152
effect of position, 159
gold standard, 159
intrapanasal corticosteroids, 159 Laplace’s law, 158
pathophysiology, 152–154
prevalence of obesity, 151 respiratory disturbance index (RDI), 158
weight management, 160
OSA (see Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA))
phenotyping, 372
positional (see Positional sleep apnea) SDB (see Sleep-disordered breathing (SDB)) severity, obese/weight loss (see Bariatric surgery)
supine position, 312, 327
Sleep deprivation hunger and appetite, 83
during pregnancy, 166
severe sleep fragmentation, 205 weight gain and obesity, 83 Sleep-disordered breathing (SDB). See also Bariatric surgery
body position, 3
CPAP therapy, 347–348
epiglottic collapse, 113
general and obstructive sleep apnoea, 4 positional sleep apnea, 56
during pregnancy
complications, 166
CPAP, 166–167
management, 166
OSA, 165
oxytocin levels, 165
and position dependence, 168–169 rapid eye movement (REM) sleep, 165
snoring, 165
sleep position, 396
syndrome, 8
Sleep endoscopy, DISE. See Drug-induced sleep endoscopy (DISE) Sleeping position. See also Distribution of sleep position; Sleep position trainer (SPT) after UPPP, 326–327
AHI, 326
APOC criteria, 131–135
body posture influence age distribution, 97, 98 minimum SaO\textsubscript{2}, 97, 99 OSA severity distribution, 97, 98
supine AHI, 97, 99
BSP (see Best sleeping position (BSP)) and DISE, 115–116 DS
baby-like position, 180, 182 “legs crossed, torso flopped forward position”, 180, 182 legs leaning, 180, 182 sitting position, 180, 182 “game changers”, 5
left and right positional OSA, 98, 100 mild to moderate
craniofacial structural changes, 83 gravity and muscular hypotonia, 83 hunger-suppressing hormone leptin, 83 neuronal lesions, 83
non-apneic snoring, 84 pharyngeal magnetic resonance imaging, 82–83
POSA, 81–82
provocative theory, 84 severity, upper airway neuropathy, 83 sleep restriction, 83 upper airway musculature, 83 obese/weight loss (see Bariatric surgery)
obstruction, OSA (see Obstructive sleep apnea (OSA)) OSA severity, 132, 133
and pregnancy, 163–182 (see also Sleep-disordered breathing (SDB)) REM sleep time, 101
restless sleep, 332
right lateral decubitus, 95, 96 sleep-related breathing disorders, 95
snoring, 143–148
surgical intervention, 41 and surgical outcome, 326–327 transition (see Sleep position)
worst (WSP) (see Worst sleeping position (WSP)) Sleep position trainer (SPT). See also Long-term effectiveness; Positional therapy (PT)

AHI, 259
anthropometrical data, 256, 258 built-in training period, 261 chest-worn, 294
compliance, 260
design, 254
ESS and FOSQ scores, 255, 256 vs. first-generation device, 260 FOSQ scoring, 261
hours, distribution, 272 individual values, apnoea–hypopnoea index, 255, 257 lightweight device, 254 measuring sensor, 148 neck-worn vibrating device, 254
non-supine position, 255 and OAm therapy, 294 online database, 267
OSA in DS children, 182 patient characteristics and PSG outcomes, 180, 181
POSA, 43, 253
PSG and clinical variables, 255, 256
PSG positional data, 181, 183 sleeping time, 259
subjective compliance, 272 supine and subjective parameters, 268–270 supine position, positional changes, 261, 271
surgical success, 259
tennis ball technique, 253 vibration intensity, 169

Sleep stage
AHI, 61
CSA/CSB, 212
hazard ratio, respiratory events, 62
neurologic disease, 63
PSG recordings, 196–197
respiratory and arousal event frequencies, 61, 62

Sleep videofluoroscopy (SVF), 91, 126

Snoring
habitual, 5, 88, 176, 215, 396, 399 non-apneic (see Non-apneic snorers) position dependency prevalence, non-apneic, 143
SPT. See Sleep position trainer (SPT)

Stroke
acute phase, CSB, 16
cardiovascular morbidity, 16–17
prevalence, 17

Subclinical cardiocirculatory impairment, 18–19
Supine-dependent OSA (sdOSA) and non-supine-dependent patients, 146 ODI patients, 292 prevalence and effect (see Oral appliance therapy (OAT)) and snoring patients, 145 Supine hypotensive syndrome (SHS), 163, 167, 168, 170
Supine prevention vest
CPAP, 239
description, 238
long-term compliance (see Long-term compliance)

Supine sleep posture, OSA patients. See Positional patients (PPs) Supine snoring index, 145
Surgery
bariatric (see Bariatric surgery) MMA (see Maxillomandibular advancement (MMA))
orthognathic, 322 palatal (see Palatal surgery) tongue base (see Tongue base surgery) Surgical outcome gravity, 326 and sleep position, 326–327 Surgical treatment, OSAS
distribution, sleep position
AT, 337–338
upper airway surgery, 338–339
positional change, sleep
AT, 335–336
upper airway surgery, 336–337

T
Tennis ball technique (TBT) “antisnorng device”, 226 bulky mass discomfort, 282–283
cognitive habituation, 280
compliance issues, 281–282
consistent discomfort during the night, 284 discomfort, while falling asleep, 283 habituation to continuous stimulation, 280 individual adaption, 281
insights in therapy, 284–285
motion limiting device, 230
new-generation PT, 134
on/off, 284
in OSA patients, 237
patents, 225, 226
pause mode, 284
pressure, passive object, 279–280 “prodding device”, 226
as PT, 148, 227–229
restricted movement, 282
sensory adaption, 279–280 “shark fins”, 227
sleeping position, 169
snoring/sleep apnea prevention methods, 230
supine position, 227
TASB/nCPAP, 227
training and guidance, 285
Therapy, DS
AT, 177–178
adenoidectomy, 179
CPAP, 178
oral device therapy, 178 “straightforward” surgery, 179 surgery, 178
tonsillectomies, 179
Thoracic anti-supine band (TASB), 42, 227, 345, 346, 348, 349 Tongue
DISE finding, 113
hypopharyngeal/retrorlinal obstruction, 112 obstruction and vibration, 111
structures, VOTE, 113
VOTE classification system, 113
Tongue base (TB) obstruction, 58, 91–92, 113
Tongue base surgery
baseline characteristics, 313
concurrent palatal surgery and sleep position, 316 hyoidthyroidpexia (HTP), 317 mean values and AHI, 313–315
patients, 312
POSA and non-POSA patients, success rate, 316 position dependency, 316, 317
PT, 317
statistics, 312–313 success rates, positional OSA, 315 surgical techniques, 312
UPPP, 317–318
Treatment outcome, prediction, 137–139 Trimester, SDB changes, upper respiratory tract, 164 decreased REM sleep, 165 maternal and fetal complications, 166 reduction, pharyngeal size, 164
snoring, 165
U
UARS. See Upper airway resistance syndrome (UARS) Untreated OSAS
character change, 357 complaints and disorders, patients, 358 consequences, 356 depression, 358
disability, 358–359 dysfunctional relationships, 357
obesity, 358
socioeconomic implications, 357
Upper airway anatomical optical coherence tomography, 59 morphology, 59
positional sleep apnea, 57
size and shape, 60
static pressure area, 58 Upper airway obstruction, children biomechanics computational fluid dynamics, 154–155 cross-sectional anatomy, and normal, 156
finite element model (FEM), 156 fluid dynamic parameters, 155 Navier–Stokes (NS) equation, 156
pathophysiology
AT, 153
adenotonsillar hypertrophy, 153 anomalous anatomic factors, 152–153 craniofacial syndromes, 153 dynamic and static forces, 153, 154 extraluminal adiposity, 153 neural hypothesis, 152
pharyngeal dilators, 152
Upper airway resistance syndrome (UARS), 9, 13, 165
Upper airway surgery
distribution, sleep position, 338–339
positional change, sleep, 336–337
UPPP. See Uvulopalatopharyngoplasty (UPPP)
Uvulopalatopharyngoplasty (UPPP)
AHI values, 305
description, 40, 298
isolated, 40, 305
patient groups, 327
pharyngeal dryness, 41 position-specific AHI values, 298
sleep position, 326, 327
sleep posture, 317, 326 surgical procedure, OSA, 40
treatment, 115
and UPPP/ZPP+RFTB, 305
V
Velum
- palatal surgery, 40
- snoring and/or obstruction, 110
- structures, VOTE, 113
- velopharyngeal obstruction, 112

Vibrational alarm devices, 231–232

VOTE classification system
- DISE scoring system, 110
- pharyngeal obstruction, 110
- primary structures, 110
- region-based approach, 112
- structures
  - degree of airway narrowing, 113–114
  - epiglottic collapse, 113
  - oropharyngeal lateral walls, 112
  - sleep-disordered breathing, 113
  - tongue base obstruction, 113
  - velopharyngeal obstruction, 112
  - velum, 112
- surgical evaluation techniques, 111
- treatment interventions, 111
- unilevel obstruction, 111

W
Weight gain
- changes over time in AHI, 202
- demographic and PSG variables, 201
- oxygen saturation, 203
- PP and NPP, 199, 204
- progression and regression, SDB, 204
- in snoring and OSA progression, 194

Weight loss. See also Bariatric surgery
- demographic and PSG variables, 201
- groups, 195–196
- PP and NPP, 199, 204
- progression and regression, SDB, 204
- in snoring and OSA progression, 194

Worst sleeping position (WSP)
- elimination of, clinical relevance, 133
- self-correction, 133

WSP. See Worst sleeping position (WSP)

Z
Z-palatoplasty (ZPP), 298
Zzoma positional device, 346–349