My thanks are extended to all those who gave me support and encouragement in the writing of this book. Adam Roberts, whose critical suggestions, numerous readings of rewrites and above all, understanding and confidence in my ability gave me the motivation to complete this work.

I want to thank my friends and former fellow-students on the Women's History MA at Royal Holloway, Sara Bailey, Meg Irving, Linda Massie, Deirdre Palk, Julie Peakman and Stephanie Spencer whose nurture and wisdom helped me overcome the numerous obstacles I encountered during the often lonely task of writing.

My special thanks are reserved for my husband David Peschier and my daughter Francesca for their sense of humour, interest in my studies and above all their patience, while this long project underwent completion. They have been my companions on trips to Haworth and Brussels, have tolerated my obsession with nuns and Jesuits and have laughed me through my difficulties.
