Organizational Epics and Sagas
Other titles in the trilogy
ORGANIZATIONAL OLYMPIANS: Heroes and Heroines of Organizational Myths
MYTHICAL INSPIRATIONS FOR ORGANIZATIONAL REALITIES

Also by Monika Kostera
CRITICAL MANAGEMENT RESEARCH IN EASTERN EUROPE: Managing the Transition (edited with Mihaela Kelemen)
Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Tables</th>
<th>ix</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of Figures</td>
<td>x</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgements</td>
<td>xi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on the Contributors</td>
<td>xiii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Introduction to the Trilogy: Mythologies of Organizational Everyday Life

Monika Kostera

Myths and human beings 2
Organizational mythmaking 5

Introduction to Organizational Epics and Sagas:

The Mythologization of Organization 9

Monika Kostera

Organization as myth 9
Structure of the book 10

1 The Myth of Entrepreneurship 14

Maria Aggestam

Myth-making and living myth 15
Entrepreneurs in the education industry 18
Entrepreneurs in the media industry 21
Performative nature of entrepreneuring:
   mythical frame 22
Concluding remarks 24

2 Living with the Myth of Unattainable Technology 26

Ulla Eriksson-Zetterquist

Myths and technology 27
Method 29
Building the myth 29
Awaiting the new technology to be implemented 32
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Authors</th>
<th>Pages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Goddess: A Story of Myth and Power</td>
<td>Monica Lee</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Oedipus in the Land of Organizational Darkness</td>
<td>Yiannis Gabriel</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>The Myth of Corporate Size in Public Service Companies: The Case of Toscana Energia SPA</td>
<td>Giuseppe Grossi</td>
<td>65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>Bureaucrats and Heretics: Gendering Mythology</td>
<td>Daniel Ericsson and Pernilla Nilsson</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Evil life: according to the heretics 86
Gendered aspects of the bureaucracy myth 88
Extro 91

7 The Myth of the Virtual Organization 93
Kym Thorne
Introduction 93
Virtual organizations 94
The mythic archetypes within virtual organization discourse 97
Conclusion 103

8 Heroic Villains: The Badlands of Economy and Organization 105
Martin Parker
Introduction 105
The Mafia, and others 107
Myth today 111
Fantasy economics and social change 115

9 Merging the Myths: A Study of the Effect of Organizational Mythmaking in an Organizational Merger 118
David Sims
From story to myth 120
Tales from a merger 121
Myths in currency 123
Interactions and agendas 127
Commentary 127
Storytelling in a new environment 127

10 The Myth of Management as Art and the Management of Art as Myth 131
Katja Lindqvist
Myths in management 131
The myth of leadership as art 135
Art and myth 136
Management of art as myth 137
Metaphors and myths for management 140
11 The Cosmogonic Duel 142
   Jerzy Kociatkiewicz
   Introduction 142
   Social actors 143
   Myths 146
   The duel 148
   Phase I: The hero’s defeat 149
   Phase II: Help 151
   Phase III: Victory 153
   Further considerations 154

12 The Pan American Dream and the Myth of the Pioneer 156
   Gabrielle Durepos, Jean Helms Mills and Albert J. Mills
   Ideologies of Americanism and the formative context of the myth of the pioneer 158
   The myth of the pioneer as situated locally in the activities of early PAA 160
   Pan American Airways: the pioneering organization 163
   Conclusions 167

Bibliography 169

Index 187
List of Tables

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>I.1</th>
<th>Structure of Volume 2</th>
<th>11</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
List of Figures

1.1 The mythic frame 23
5.1 The pre-merger situation 72
5.2 The separation (Step 1) 73
5.3 The contribution of Network Holding (Step 2) 74
5.4 The first merger (Step 3) 74
5.5 The second merger (Step 4) 75
5.6 Contribution of the sales division (Step 5) 75
5.7 Final structure of Toscana Energia 76
9.1 Myths in Institution 1 128
9.2 Myths in Institution 2 129
Acknowledgements

I am very fortunate to be surrounded by friends and colleagues who have in many ways contributed to the appearance of this book. Our many conversations provided me with ideas and counter-ideas, as well as awoke my curiosity to the point where I felt I wanted to collect texts on the topic of myths and archetypes and decided to send out a call for contributions. While, for lack of space, many of them will remain unnamed, I wish to direct special thanks to the few to whom I owe special gratitude.

First and foremost, I wish to thank all the authors who responded to my call for contributions and wrote the chapters that make up this book. It was a real joy to work with you all.

I would also like to thank the friends and colleagues whose texts and conversations with me have provided me with inspiration and ideas in my thinking and writing about myths and archetypes. They are many, but let me use this opportunity to express my profound gratitude to Zygmunt Bauman, Martin Bowles, Tobiasz Cwynar, Yiannis Gabriel, Mary Jo Hatch, Heather Höpfl, Henrietta Nilson, Stanisław Obirek, Przemek Piątkowski, Patrik Persson, and Diane and Tony Watson.

Kasia Korzeniecka, Joakim Larnö, Szymon Rogiński and Peter Tillström created artwork that inspired me and that I use a lot in my writings and as illustrations to my lectures and talks about organizational myths and archetypes. Some of the work is included in the current text. Thank you very much!

Jan-Erik Malte Andersson, Klara Nilson and Patrik Persson composed music, touching the topics of the current volumes, that I listened to during the writing and that gave me much joy. I regret that music cannot be attached to the final publication – it would indeed add a lot to the message. Nonetheless, it reverberates throughout the composition of these volumes, as it does in my mind when I think of mythologies.

I would also like to thank Keith Povey and his colleagues for their excellent work in the editing process, as well as Virginia
Acknowledgements

Thorp and Emily Bown at Palgrave Macmillan for their kind help and support.

My deepest thanks go to my husband Jerzy Kociatkiewicz for all the greatly inspiring talks, for the help with the language editing, and for being there.

MONIKA KOSTERA
Notes on the Contributors

Maria Aggestam is a Researcher at the University of Lund, Sweden. Her research focuses on entrepreneurship, environmental jolts, corporate governance and organizational issues in Central and Eastern Europe. She has written several articles on management, entrepreneurship and corporate governance during environmental jolts. Her most recent interests include the relations between language and entrepreneurial achievement.

Gabrielle Durepos is a Lecturer in Organizational Behaviour in the Sobey School of Business at Saint Mary’s University, Nova Scotia, Canada. Her PhD thesis draws on archival materials and focuses on the development and contextualization of the writing of a founder-funded business history of Pan American Airways. She currently reviews for the journal Culture and Organization. Her primary research interests are methodology, epistemology and methods.

Daniel Ericsson is Assistant Professor in Business Administration at the School of Management and Economics, Växjö University, Sweden, and is researching in the field of management and organization with a special focus upon creativity within the media and music industries. He is also responsible for the Swedish Police’s executive development programme.

Ulla Eriksson-Zetterquist received her PhD at the School of Business, Economics and Law, Gothenburg University, Sweden, and is now an Associate Professor at Gothenburg Research Institute in the same school. She has published articles, book chapters and books within the fields of new technology, gender, intersectionality and organizing.

Yiannis Gabriel is Professor of Organizational Theory at Royal Holloway, University of London, UK. Yiannis trained as a sociologist and is interested in organizational narratives and stories, leadership, management learning and psychoanalytic theory. He has written several books and numerous articles on storytelling, consumption and consumerism, organizational dysfunctions and sociological theory. He is currently conducting research on patient care and leadership in three UK hospitals.

Giuseppe Grossi is Associate Professor in Public Management at Siena University, Italy. He has been visiting scholar at Stockholm University, Sydney University, Australia, and Leon Kozminski Academy of Entrepreneurship and Management, Warsaw. He is a member of the scientific board of Azienda Pubblica. He has authored many books and papers on public sector management, management control and performance measurement.

Jean Helms Mills is Associate Professor of Management at Saint Mary’s University, Nova Scotia, Canada. She has authored, co-authored or co-edited several books and has presented her research on change, culture, sensemaking and gender at a number of conferences. Jean is Associate Editor for Gender, Work & Organization and serves on the editorial boards of Management and Organizational History, Equal Opportunities International and the Journal of Workplace Rights. Currently, she is Vice-President of Communications for the Administrative Sciences Association of Canada (ASAC).

Jerzy Kociatkiewicz is Lecturer in Marketing at the University of Essex, UK, having previously dabbled in sociology, organization theory, and science and technology studies in Poland and Sweden. Despite that, he claims his academic interests have remained constant, though diverse, and revolve around new technologies, organizational self and identity, and space in organizations.

Monika Kostera is Professor in Management at Växjö University, Sweden, and Warsaw University, Poland. She has published several books in Polish and in English, most recently The Quest for the Self-Actualizing Organization, and articles in Organization, Organization Studies, the Scandinavian Journal of Management and other journals. Her current research interests include organizational archetypes, organizational ethnography and narrative methods.

Monica Lee is Visiting Professor at Northumbria University, UK, and is based at Lancaster University, UK. She has played a leading role in the development of the field of human research development. She has published extensively and, amongst other things, edits the Routledge book series Studies in HRD.

Katja Lindqvist is Assistant Professor at the School of Business and Lecturer in International Curator Management Education at Stockholm University, Sweden. Her research covers the interface between art and business, artist entrepreneurs and funding of arts organizations. Her publications include Exhibition Enterprising, an investigation into a number of international exhibition projects.

Albert J. Mills is Director of the PhD in Management at Saint Mary's University, Nova Scotia, Canada. His research focuses on the impact of organizations on people, resistance and human liberation. His numerous books include Sex, Strategy and the Stratosphere: The Gendering of Airline Cultures, Identity Politics at Work and Gender, Identity and the Culture of Organizations.

Pernilla Nillson is a PhD student at Umeå School of Business, Sweden. In her doctoral thesis work she focuses upon gendered aspects of organizational identity processes in business advice.

Martin Parker works at the University of Leicester School of Management, UK. He enjoys writing in his shed at home. He has written on lots of different topics, including angels, the Apollo space programme and alternative organizations. Books you might want to look at are Against Management, For Business Ethics and The Dictionary of Alternatives: Utopianism and Organization.
David Sims is Professor of Organisational Behaviour, Associate Dean, and Director of the Centre for Leadership, Learning and Change, at Cass Business School, London, UK. His research topics have included: why people get angry in organizations; the motivation of middle managers; how people love their organizations into life; agenda shaping; and mergers.

Kym Thorne is Senior Lecturer and Supported Researcher in the School of Commerce at the University of South Australia. He has published in leading critical journals and has presented many papers at international conferences. In 2006, he received an Emerald Literati Network Award for Excellence. His new book deals with the Political Economy of ‘Invisibility’.