

PART II

OPERATING IN THE MIDDLE KINGDOM

Part II identifies and describes what is required before you can remove the first shovelful of dirt—deciding where to locate, learning from the experiences of other companies, considering environmental issues, calculating utility costs, and determining how to establish a foreign-investment company.