Aim of the Series

Postdisciplinary Studies in Discourse engages in the exchange between discourse theory and analysis while putting emphasis on the intellectual challenges in discourse research. Moving beyond disciplinary divisions in today's social sciences, the contributions deal with critical issues at the intersections between language and society.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the participants whose stories and conversations I share in this book. I am also grateful to the Humanities Research Centre at Sheffield Hallam University for awarding me a period of study leave in which to write the book. As always, heartfelt thanks to my husband, Mark, who encourages me to delight in the discovery of new ideas.
