Acknowledgements

My deepest gratitude is to Elleke Boehmer for her wonderful help and support, and for her telling conversation about the book – in short, for making everything possible.

My discussions with Hugh Haughton have always been inspirational and enlivening, and I owe him a great debt. I have also enjoyed important discussions with Shirley Chew, Ian Fairley, Alan Marshall, Alistair Stead, Ashley Taggart, Loreto Todd and John Whale. I would like to thank my Mum, Dad and sister for their backing in some difficult times. I am grateful to the School of English, University of Leeds, for providing me with a travel grant for a research trip to Ireland.

Thanks also to our newly born son Thomas, whose equability created the time to complete this book which would otherwise not have been available.
