ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Brief portions of this text originally appeared in Quarterly Review of Film and Video, in the articles “Synthetic Cinema: Mainstream Movies in the 21st Century,” “‘Service Providers’: Genre Cinema in the 21st Century,” “Kelly Reichardt—Working Against the Grain,” and “Slaves of Vision: The Virtual Reality World of Oculus Rift.” My sincere thanks to David Sterritt, editor of QRFV, for permission to include these materials here. I also want to thank Linda Lotz for a superb copyediting job and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster for her continued support and advice in all my work. My additional thanks to Anna-Marie Larsen for her help with the manuscript in its final stages. This particular book is dedicated to Michael Thomas Downey, who has been a friend and colleague since the late 1960s, and whose own tastes as a cineaste are very much in line with my own.
