ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thanks to the committee who oversaw my dissertation version of some of this material: Clark Davis, Linda Bensel-Meyers, and Laird Hunt, as well as Carl Raschke, who participated as an outside reader. Much of my work on political theology began at the Cornell School of Criticism and Theory in 2011 in Victoria Kahn's seminar. Alexandra Hennessey Olsen oversaw some of my ancient mythological work. Thanks to Selah Saterstrom for many discussions, writing, and re-enchantment. Thanks to Rob Gilmor, Kristy Firebaugh, and Daniel Singer for writing workshops and to Joshua Ramos for discussions about religious theory. I am indebted to professors who supported me early on: Joan Griffin, Elizabeth Holtze, Cindy Carlson, Jake Adam York, Ron Miles, Catherine Kemp, Mitchell Aboulafia, Myra Bookman, and Robert Metcalf. I am thankful for the aesthetic engagements with Adam Lerner and Sarah Baie of the Museum of Contemporary Art (MCA) Denver and the Belmar Lab, and musical aesthetics discussions with Robin Guthrie, Simon Raymonde, Giles Hall, my Czars "family," Jennifer Denrow, Colin Bricker, and Joe Sampson. Deep thanks to Anne Waldman and Eleni Sikelianos for engaging with me artistically in musical recordings. In the years editing this manuscript into book form, I gave a free public course on these ideas. Thanks to Dan Landes and the Deer Pile in Denver for providing that venue and to the willing ears of those who attended my summer course and discussed ideas with me afterward, especially Jeff Childress. Thanks to Joshua Ramey's critical eyes and encouragement. Early versions of some material here can be found in Aldous Huxley Annual, The Psychedelic Press, UK, The Journal of Cultural and Religious Theory, Political Theology Today, Esthesis, and The New Polis. Finally, I am deeply grateful for the loving support of Claudine Rousseau in all my endeavors.
