ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are a number of people to thank in the development and production of this book. Firstly, to our research participants, who were incredibly generous with their time, always accommodating and endlessly eloquent in the articulation of their views. Thanks also to all of those who helped us to access our participant group, sharing contacts or agreeing to disseminate information about the research. Thank you to the British Academy/Leverhulme who supported the work through a Small Research Grant in the 2013–2014 round (grant number: SG131987); to colleagues and friends within the Schools of Law and Criminology at the University of Leicester and the Department of Law at Liverpool Hope; and finally, to the team at Palgrave Macmillan, for their flexibility and willingness to accommodate (more than once) extensions to our deadline. We hope you enjoy reading the book.
