ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the first instance I would like to thank both Tim Chilcott and Alan Rawes for their invaluable encouragement and guidance over the course of my research.

At Palgrave Macmillan: Ben Doyle has been an enthusiastic correspondent on this work from the beginning; Milly Davies gave helpful answers to many questions; the anonymous reader offered productive suggestions on my manuscript at key stages. John Goodridge has supplied succinct advice on numerous Clare-related matters over a number of years. For their generosity in reading and commenting on drafts of the chapters that make up this study, I am grateful to Gillian Hughes, Tim Chilcott, Christine Considine, Alan Rawes, and Bob Heyes. Thanks also to Sharon Ruston, Scott McEathron, Kate Whetter, Gerard Carruthers, Simon White, Stephanie Kuduk Weiner, David Higgins, and Sarah Houghton-Walker.

This is also an opportunity to acknowledge the assistance of the staff at the University of Manchester and John Rylands Libraries, the Open University Library, and the British Library.

A portion of Chapter 9 first appeared in the Scottish Literary Review in 2013; the section reprinted here is by kind permission of the editors. My cover image is used by permission of The Collection: Art and Archaeology in Lincolnshire (Usher Gallery, Lincoln).
