

Microfinance for Entrepreneurial Development

Douglas Cumming · Yizhe Dong
Wenxuan Hou · Binayak Sen
Editors

Microfinance for Entrepreneurial Development

Sustainability and Inclusion in Emerging Markets

palgrave
macmillan

Editors

Douglas Cumming
Schulich School of Business
York University
Toronto, ON, Canada

Wenxuan Hou
University of Edinburgh Business
School
Edinburgh, UK

Yizhe Dong
Aberystwyth University Business
School
Aberystwyth, Surrey, UK

Binayak Sen
Bangladesh Institute of Development
Studies
Dhaka, Bangladesh

ISBN 978-3-319-62110-4 ISBN 978-3-319-62111-1 (eBook)
DOI 10.1007/978-3-319-62111-1

Library of Congress Control Number: 2017945785

© The Editor(s) (if applicable) and The Author(s) 2017

This work is subject to copyright. All rights are solely and exclusively licensed by the Publisher, whether the whole or part of the material is concerned, specifically the rights of translation, reprinting, reuse of illustrations, recitation, broadcasting, reproduction on microfilms or in any other physical way, and transmission or information storage and retrieval, electronic adaptation, computer software, or by similar or dissimilar methodology now known or hereafter developed.

The use of general descriptive names, registered names, trademarks, service marks, etc. in this publication does not imply, even in the absence of a specific statement, that such names are exempt from the relevant protective laws and regulations and therefore free for general use.

The publisher, the authors and the editors are safe to assume that the advice and information in this book are believed to be true and accurate at the date of publication. Neither the publisher nor the authors or the editors give a warranty, express or implied, with respect to the material contained herein or for any errors or omissions that may have been made. The publisher remains neutral with regard to jurisdictional claims in published maps and institutional affiliations.

Cover credit: © Cathy Yeulet/Getty Images
Cover design by Ran Shauli

Printed on acid-free paper

This Palgrave Macmillan imprint is published by Springer Nature
The registered company is Springer International Publishing AG
The registered company address is: Gewerbestrasse 11, 6330 Cham, Switzerland

CONTENTS

- 1 The End of Imagination? Understanding New Developments in Microfinance 1
Douglas Cumming, Yizhe Dong, Wenxuan Hou
and Binayak Sen
- 2 The Influence of Formal and Informal Institutions on Microcredit: Financial Inclusion for Micro-Entrepreneurs by Lender Type 23
Alexander Newman, Susan Schwarz, Daniel J. Borgia and Wu Wei
- 3 Microfinance for Entrepreneurial Development: Study of Women's Group Enterprise Development in India 53
K. Naveen Kumar
- 4 Perception of Microfinance Debtors and Loan Officers on the Importance of Entrepreneurial and Business Skills for Loan Repayment Rates 73
Daniel Agbeko, Vincent Blok, S.W.F. Omta
and G. Van der Velde

5	Choice of Finance in an Emerging Market: The Impact of Independent Decisions, Politics and Religion	87
	Nurhan Davutyan and Belma Öztürkhal
6	Managing Everyday Living: Microfinance and Capability	107
	Liong Ing Ling, Jill Wilson and Lynda Shevellar
7	Credit, Microfinance, and Empowerment	127
	Vani S. Kulkarni, Md Shafiul Azam and Raghav Gaiha
8	Microfinance Impact Assessment Methodologies: Is it Qualitative, Quantitative or Both?	153
	Onafowokan O. Oluombo and Grace O. Iriobe
9	What is Islamic Microfinance?	169
	Luqyan Tamanni and Frank Hong Liu
10	Determinants of Total Factor Productivity in Microfinance Institutions: Evidence from Bangladesh	197
	Md Aslam Mia
	Index	223

EDITORS AND CONTRIBUTORS

About the Editors

Douglas Cumming J.D., Ph.D., CFA is a Professor of Finance and Entrepreneurship and the Ontario Research Chair at the Schulich School of Business, York University, Canada. He teaches the MBA course “Venture Capital and Private Equity”. His research interests include venture capital, private equity, hedge funds, mutual funds, entrepreneurship, and law and finance. He is the Founding Editor-in-Chief of Annals of Corporate Governance, a Co-Editor of Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice and Finance Research Letters, and has been a guest editor for over a dozen special issues of top journals involving topics on international business, including the Journal of International Business Studies, Corporate Governance: An International Review, among others. He has published over 140 articles in leading refereed academic journals in finance, management, and law and economics, such as the Academy of Management Journal, Journal of Financial Economics, Review of Financial Studies, Journal of International Business Studies and the Journal of Empirical Legal Studies. His work has been reviewed in numerous media outlets, including the Wall Street Journal, the Economist, the New York Times, Canadian Business, the National Post and the New Yorker. He is a research associate with a number of institutions around the world, including Capital Markets CRC (Sydney), Cambridge University ESRC Center for Business Research (Cambridge UK) and the Center for Financial Studies (Frankfurt). Also, he has consulted for a variety of governmental and private organizations in Australasia, Europe and North America.

Yizhe Dong is Associate Professor/Senior Lecturer in Finance at University of Aberdeen. His research interests lie in banking and financial institutions, financial regulations, alternative finance, corporate governance and equity valuation. His research is published in British Accounting Review, European Journal of Operating Research, European Journal of Finance, Information Systems Frontiers, International Review of Financial Analysis, among others.

Wenxuan Hou is Chair in Corporate Finance at University of Edinburgh Business School and Runze Professor at School of Government Audit, Nanjing Audit University. Professor Hou is Associate Editor of European Journal of Finance and Finance Research Letters. He serves as a Young Academy Member of the Royal Society of Edinburgh and a Board Director of Asian Finance Association and China Economic Association (UK/Europe). His research interests focus on corporate governance and legal institutions. He has published articles in Abacus, British Accounting Review, Business History, Corporate Governance: An International Review, European Journal of Operation Research, Journal of Business Ethics among others.

Binayak Sen is currently a Senior Research Fellow at the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) in Washington DC and previously a Research Director at the Bangladesh Institute of Development Studies (BIDS). He has also been a Senior Economist in the South Asia Region of the World Bank and a Visiting Research Fellow at the Research Administration Department of the World Bank. He has served as a consultant for the Asian Development Bank, UNESCAP, UNDP and the WHO. His main areas of research relate to poverty, inequality, nutrition, health and labor market. He has written and published extensively in these and related areas.

Contributors

Daniel Agbeko has been a banker for the past 18 years and has gained practical experience and technical knowledge in rural finance, entrepreneurship and microfinance with strong skills in credit analysis for micro-small- and medium-scale enterprises. He has authored and presented technical papers on microfinance, entrepreneurship and rural banking in Ghana, India, the Netherlands, France, Italy, Norway, UK and the USA. Daniel is currently a Lecturer and the Director for Business Development in Regent University of Ghana.

Md Shafiu Azam is a Lecturer in Economics, Aberystwyth University, UK. He holds a Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Manchester, UK. He has served the Government of Bangladesh and has worked as a consultant with IFAD, UNDP and WIDER. He has published in peer-reviewed journals. His research interest revolves mainly around poverty, vulnerability, microfinance, food security, agriculture and rural development. He is currently engaged as the principal investigator in an ESRC-funded project entitled—Dynamic Analysis of Poverty and Vulnerability in Wales: Moving Beyond the “Conventional” Approach.

Vincent Blok is Associate Professor in Sustainable Entrepreneurship, Business Ethics and Responsible Innovation at the Management Studies Group and Associate Professor in Philosophy of Management, Technology & Innovation at the Philosophy Group, Wageningen University (the Netherlands). Blok’s research group is involved in several (European) research projects at the crossroads of business, philosophy and innovation. Blok’s work has appeared in Journal of Business Ethics, Business and Society, Journal of Cleaner Production and Journal of Responsible Innovation and other journals. See www.vincentblok.nl for more information about his current research.

Daniel J. Borgia is the Dean and a Professor of Finance at the Richard J. Wehle School of Business at Canisius College in Buffalo, New York. He has a broad publication record, writing on topics that include international business and finance with particular reference to China, working capital financing, entrepreneurial finance and financial education.

Nurhan Davutyan currently heads the Graduate Program in Banking and Finance at Kadir Has University. He has published, among others, in Journal of Money Credit & Banking, Economic Inquiry, Annals of Operations Research, Journal of Economic Policy Reform and Emerging Markets Trade & Finance. His research interests focus on institutional aspects of banking and finance, measuring the informal sector and small business economics. Dr. Davutyán holds a Ph.D. from University of California, Santa Barbara and is a Fellow of Economic Research Forum.

Raghav Gaiha is (Former) Professor of Public Policy, Faculty of Management Studies, University of Delhi. He has been Visiting Fellow/Scholar at Harvard, MIT, Stanford, Penn and University of Cambridge. He is currently (hon) Professorial Fellow, Global Development Institute, University of Manchester. He has served as a consultant with the World Bank, ILO, FAO, IFAD, WIDER and ADB. He has co-edited with Raghendra Jha the Economics of Food Security, Edward Elgar. He has published in Journal of Development Economics, Economic Development and Cultural Change, Public Finance, Oxford Development Studies and Cambridge Journal of Economics. His research interests are in poverty, inequality, nutrition, microfinance, rural institutions, agricultural research and emerging Asian economies, aging and depression.

Grace O. Iriobe is a lecturer of Banking and Finance at the Redeemer's University, Nigeria. She has authored, co-authored and presented papers on financial economics, entrepreneurial finance, corporate finance and public finance in UK, India and Nigeria. She is currently a Ph.D. candidate at the Federal University of Technology, Akure, Nigeria.

K. Naveen Kumar is faculty at National Institute of Bank Management, Pune (India), an autonomous Institute of Reserve Bank of India. He holds Ph.D. in Economics. His areas of interest are Development Economics, Agriculture and Rural Finance, Microfinance and Financial Inclusion.

Vani S. Kulkarni is a Senior Fellow in Urban Ethnography Project in sociology at department Yale University and a Lecturer on sociology at the University of Pennsylvania. She holds a Ph.D. with distinction from the University of Pennsylvania. She has received prestigious awards and has held research fellowships at Penn, Harvard and Yale. She has also been a consultant for the Asian Development Bank and International Fund for Agricultural Development at the United Nations. Her research lies at the intersection of global health; race and caste; gender; identity and inequality; development and democracy; and education. She has published in the ANNALS of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, and in several peer-reviewed journals, she has coauthored two books, and her writings have appeared as encyclopedia entries, policy reports for the United Nations, and as op-eds. Her current research constitutes of two distinct research streams, in two diverse cultural contexts: health insurance scheme in India and urban education system in the USA.

Frank Hong Liu is a Senior Lecturer at Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow, Scotland, UK. Frank's research interests include bank regulation, systemic risk, impact of banking on the real economy, microfinance and security issuance. His research works have appeared in banking and finance journals including Journal of Corporate Finance, Journal of Banking & Finance, and European Financial Management. Frank is currently the Deputy Head of Finance Cluster at Adam Smith Business School and also plays the leading role in the school's internationalization strategy. Frank worked as a foreign exchange trader in one of the largest bank in China before his academic career.

Liong Ing Ling has been involved in the education sector in Malaysia and community work (microfinance) in Australia with research interests in microfinance, education and financial inclusion.

Md Aslam Mia is a Ph.D. student at the Department of Development Studies, Faculty of Economics and Administration, University of Malaya, Malaysia. His research interests include productivity and efficiency of microfinance institutions, market structure, development and urban economics. He has published articles in Social Indicators Research, Medicine, Cities, Quality and Quantity, Economic Analysis and Policy, Strategic Change and other internationally reputed journals. He has also served as a referee on an ad hoc basis for several peer-reviewed international journals.

Alexander Newman is Associate Dean International Faculty of Business and Law and Professor of Management at Deakin Business School. He has published widely in the areas of entrepreneurial financing in journals such as Entrepreneurship, Theory and Practice, International Small Business Journal and Small Business Economics.

Onafowokan O. Oluymbo is an Associate Professor with Pan-Atlantic University, Nigeria. He is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Ph.D. from De Montfort University, UK, where he won the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria Ph.D. Research Grant. He edited two international books: Cooperative Finance in Developing Economies (2012) and Cooperative and Microfinance Revolution (2013).

S.W.F. Omta graduated in biology in 1978 and after a management career he defended his Ph.D. thesis on the management of innovation in the pharmaceutical industry in 1995 (both at the University of Groningen). In 2000 he was appointed as a chaired professor in Business Administration at Wageningen University. He is (co-)author of many scientific articles on innovation management. His current research interest encompasses entrepreneurship and innovation in chains and networks in the life sciences.

Belma Öztürkkal has the degree of Associate Professor from the University Council of Turkey and is employed at Kadir Has University International Finance and Trade Department, Faculty of Economics, Administrative and Social Sciences. She has published, among others, in European Journal of Finance and Emerging Markets Trade & Finance. Her research interests focus on behavioral finance, corporate finance and investors. Dr. Ozturkkal was at University of Texas at Dallas Finance Department for her postdoctoral studies.

Susan Schwarz is Assistant Professor/Lecturer at Aston Business School, UK. She holds a Ph.D. from University of Nottingham and master's degrees from Harvard University and University of Washington. She has published on enterprise topics in the International Small Business Journal and Harvard Business School Working Paper series.

Lynda Shevellar is a Lecturer in community development at the University of Queensland. Her work focuses upon supporting people with disabilities and mental health challenges to develop a deeper sense of community belonging.

Luqyan Tamanni received Ph.D. from Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow. He has been in the Islamic finance/microfinance sector for nearly fifteen years, including as researcher for Islamic Relief Worldwide and Islamic Finance Council, UK, STEI Tazkia Institute, Indonesia, as well as consultancy role in the establishment of leading Islamic financial institutions in Indonesia. Luqyan also worked for IFC Indonesia/the World Bank Group in the post-tsunami redevelopment program of Aceh, Indonesia, from 2006 to 2010.

G. Van der Velde is Lecturer Statistics at the Management Studies Group, Wageningen University (the Netherlands). Gerben's work has appeared in Journal of Evolutionary Economics, Industrial and Corporate Change, Small Business Economics, Research Policy and other journals.

Wu Wei is a Ph.D. candidate and doctoral researcher at the University of Birmingham, UK. He graduated from Nottingham University Business School with an M.Sc. in Finance and Investment and was the founder of Nottingham's student Microfinance Initiative.

Jill Wilson is Professor of social work at the University of Queensland. Her research interests focus on the intersection of policy and practice in areas including aging, disability and end of life.

LIST OF FIGURES

Fig. 3.1	Integrated approach of SKDRDP	57
Fig. 4.1	Entrepreneurial and business skills and loan repayment probabilities	77
Fig. 8.1	Microfinance impact assessment ideologies	163
Fig. 8.2	Microfinance impact assessment methodologies	165
Fig. 9.1	Grameen bank group lending structure	180
Fig. 9.2	Individual lending structure	183
Fig. 10.1	Funding evolution of the microfinance industry (2009–2014)	199
Fig. 10.2	Trend of TFP Changes in Bangladesh’s MFIs (2009–2014)	208

LIST OF TABLES

Table 2.1	A typology of informal institutions	31
Table 2.2	Profile of sample case study microfinance organisations	34
Table 2.3	Deficiencies arising from the formal institutional framework	37
Table 2.4	Use of informal institutions to manage institutional deficiencies	39
Table 3.1	A snapshot of SIRI operations	59
Table 3.2	Descriptions of sample microenterprise units	63
Table 3.3	Socio-economic profiles of the sample members	65
Table 3.4	Contributions of microfinance and microenterprise in employment and income of rural women	67
Table 3.5	Selected financial and physical parameters of SKDRDP	70
Table 4.1	Agreement among microfinance debtors and loan officers on the ranking of skills	78
Table 5.1	Variable definitions and summary information	93
Table 5.2	Income and the religious affiliation	96
Table 5.3	Household size	97
Table 5.4	Monthly household income and savings	98
Table 5.5	Regression analysis of individuals experiencing loan repayment difficulty	98
Table 5.6	Regression analysis of investment decision making within family. (Question: who decides to invest for the family? Answer: 3 = me, 2 = me and my family together, 1 = my significant other, 0 = elderly respected people in the family)	99

Table 5.7	Regression analysis of the saving decision for seven levels (0 = do not save, 1 = to buy a house, 2 = to buy a car, 3 = for children's education, 4 = children's marriage, 5 = to save, 6 = other)	101
Table 6.1	Participants by age, ethnicity, family structure, main income and housing type	114
Table 6.2	Types of unfreedoms as reported by participants	118
Table 6.3	Attitudes towards money and characteristic of participants	118
Table 9.1	Notable Islamic microfinance institutions	172
Table 9.2	Differences between Islamic and conventional MFIs	172
Table 9.3	Selective lists of Islamic microfinance institutions	190
Table 10.1	Definitions and measurement of variables	205
Table 10.2	Descriptive statistics of the variables	207
Table 10.3	Pairwise correlation between determinants of productivity	210
Table 10.4	Determinants of Total Factor Productivity (TFP)	212