

Law and Opera

Filippo Annunziata • Giorgio Fabio Colombo
Editors

Law and Opera

 Springer

Editors

Filippo Annunziata
Angelo Sraffa Department of Legal Studies
Bocconi University
Milan, Italy

Giorgio Fabio Colombo
Graduate School of Law
Nagoya University
Nagoya, Japan

ISBN 978-3-319-68648-6 ISBN 978-3-319-68649-3 (eBook)
<https://doi.org/10.1007/978-3-319-68649-3>

Library of Congress Control Number: 2017964382

© Springer International Publishing AG 2018

This work is subject to copyright. All rights are reserved by the Publisher, whether the whole or part of the material is concerned, specifically the rights of translation, reprinting, reuse of illustrations, recitation, broadcasting, reproduction on microfilms or in any other physical way, and transmission or information storage and retrieval, electronic adaptation, computer software, or by similar or dissimilar methodology now known or hereafter developed.

The use of general descriptive names, registered names, trademarks, service marks, etc. in this publication does not imply, even in the absence of a specific statement, that such names are exempt from the relevant protective laws and regulations and therefore free for general use.

The publisher, the authors and the editors are safe to assume that the advice and information in this book are believed to be true and accurate at the date of publication. Neither the publisher nor the authors or the editors give a warranty, express or implied, with respect to the material contained herein or for any errors or omissions that may have been made. The publisher remains neutral with regard to jurisdictional claims in published maps and institutional affiliations.

Printed on acid-free paper

This Springer imprint is published by Springer Nature
The registered company is Springer International Publishing AG
The registered company address is: Gewerbestrasse 11, 6330 Cham, Switzerland

Contents

Law in the Opera, Law on the Opera, Law Around the Opera: A Multidisciplinary Approach	1
Filippo Annunziata and Giorgio Fabio Colombo
Part I Law in Opera
Scalia/Ginsburg: The Rhythm of the US Federal Supreme Court	13
Francesca Benatti
Exile and Identity: Findings of Fact and Opinions of Law, in Bellini’s La Straniera	33
Louis Bertone
Fiat iustitia et pereat mundus. The Tragic Conflicts of the Judge in I Due Foscari	49
Angelo Pio Buffo
“That May Be Japanese Law . . . but Not in My Country!” Marriage, Divorce, and Private International Law in Giacomo Puccini’s Madama Butterfly	65
Giorgio Fabio Colombo, Masabumi Suzuki, and Dai Yokomizo
Crime, Prosecution, and Justice in Giuseppe Verdi’s Otello	79
Alessandro Accinni and Paolo di Felice
The Marriage of Figaro and the Sunset of Ancien Régime Legacy on Modern Legal Culture	93
Elena Falletti
Legal Issues in Italian Opera	103
Silvia Ferreri

Le Nozze di Wolfgang: About the Meaning of Marriage in Mozart's Operas	119
Cesare Fertonani
Criminal Law in Giacomo Puccini Operatic Production: The Crimes Against Persons in Tosca	135
Pietro Gandetto
The "Gesualdo Case" in Contemporary Melodrama	159
Giovanni Iudica
Law and Fate in Norma, I Puritani, Aida and Tosca	173
Przemysław Krzywoszyński and Jan Woleński
Mozart and the Concept of Equality	195
Mariano Longo
Revenge Between Legal and Social Norms in Cavalleria Rusticana	209
Giuseppe Lorini and Olimpia Giuliana Loddo
Paternal Justice in Giuseppe Verdi's Operas	223
Mario Riberi
Music and Law: Law in Lyrical Operas. Gianni Schicchi by Giacomo Puccini. The Harmony of the System	241
Maria Teresa Sanza
 Part II Law on Opera
The Voice of the Opera Singer and Its Protection: Another Look at the Maria Callas Case	253
Julia Ammerman Yebra
Critical Edition of an Opera: A New Look for an Old Lady? The Boundaries of Copyright Protection in the EU Countries	269
Giovanna Carugno
A 'Stolen' Theatre on Rue de la Loi: The Opéra After Thermidor	283
Mark Darlow
What Is Allowed in the Opera: Law as the Borderline of Artistic Experiment	297
Ewa Łętowska and Krzysztof Pawłowski
The Italian Scrittura Teatrale: A Peculiar Case of Unwritten Terms Integrating Contracts	315
Geo Magri
Der Ring des Nibelungen: From a Criminal Law Perspective	333
Peter Lewisch

Part III Law Around Opera

Law, Opera, and the Baroque Mentality Contradictions, Paradoxes, and Dialogues 345
Marcilio Toscano Franca Filho and Mariana Lima Maia

Beethoven’s Ninth and the Quest for a European Identity: A Law and Music Perspective 361
Giorgio Resta

The Current International and Musical Society 377
Gustavo Troccoli Carvalho de Negreiros

Nemorino’s Plagiarism: Copyright and Circulation of Texts in the Golden Age of Italian Opera 391
Filippo Annunziata

About the Editors and Authors

Alessandro Accinni is founding partner of a major Italian law firm. While graduating in law at Università degli Studi di Milano, he studied at the Acting School of Teatro Stabile di Genova and worked as an actor in important Italian theatre productions. He was formerly a partner of prestigious domestic and international law firms based in Italy.

Julia Ammerman Yebra is a PhD student in the Private Law Department at the Faculty of Law of the Universidade de Santiago de Compostela. She is currently focusing her study on personality rights under the supervision of Professors Garcia Rubio and Otero Crespo, in the research group De Conflictu Legum. She is a beneficiary of a research grant FPU (Formación de Profesorado Universitario) of the Spanish Ministry of Education.

Filippo Annunziata is Professor of Financial Markets Law and Company Law at Luigi Bocconi University in Milan and Adjunct Professor of Musicology at the Università degli Studi di Milano, Faculty of Humanistic Sciences (since 2013). He is a member of the following boards, committees and associations: Editorial Committee of ‘Rivista delle società’, Teaching Board of the PhD in Economics Law – Luigi Bocconi University in Milan, Executive Committee of the research centre ‘Paolo Baffi’ – Bocconi University, Editorial Committee of ‘Rivista di diritto societario’, Italian Association of Comparative Law, Association Européenne de Droit Bancaire et Financier – Italian division, Disiano Preite Association for the study of company and commercial law, Court of Honour of ASSORETI, Scientific Committee of the Kluwer-IPSOA Master on Financial Markets.

Francesca Benatti is Associate Professor of Private Comparative Law at Università degli Studi di Padova. She teaches courses in private comparative law and private European law. She has a PhD in Comparative Law at Università degli Studi di Milano. Her main areas of interest are tort law, property law and business ethics.

Louis Bertone is professor and Director of Research (interdisciplinary analysis of the law) at CRECEDI (Paris). He is formerly a professor (law and literature, Anglo-Saxon legal systems) at FACO (Paris), module leader (international law and diplomacy) at the University of Westminster, guest lecturer at the Universities of San Diego and Santa Clara (California) and earlier adjunct professor (property and obligations) at the Universidad de Buenos Aires.

Angelo Pio Buffo is a PhD student at the University of Foggia. He is Teaching Assistant in Philosophy of Law in the same university. He is currently a trainee notary public.

Giovanna Carugno is a PhD student at the Second University of Naples. She graduated in Law and specialised in Music Management and Copyright (LUISS – Guido Carli). She also studied Music Performance and Musicology, receiving various Conservatory master's degrees (piano, harpsichord, ancient music, chamber music). Her main research interests cover intellectual property, cultural heritage law and the relationship between music and law.

Giorgio Fabio Colombo is Associate Professor of Law at the Graduate School of Law, Nagoya University (Japan). He was Visiting Researcher at Ritsumeikan University (Kyoto, Japan), Adjunct Professor of Japanese Law at 'Ca' Foscari' University of Venice (Italy) and Research Fellow of Comparative Law at the University of Pavia (Italy). His research focuses on ADR, arbitration, private comparative law, law and literature, and anthropology of law.

Mark Darlow studied at the University of Kent and the Ecole normale supérieure; he is currently Reader in eighteenth-century French literature and culture at the Cambridge University. He has recently published Staging the French Revolution: Cultural Politics and the Paris Opéra, 1789–1794 (Oxford University Press, 2012) and Dissonance in the Republic of Letters: The 'Querelle des Gluckistes et des Piccinnistes (Legenda, 2013) and is currently writing a book concerning the reception of Molière in eighteenth- and nineteenth-century France.

Paolo di Felice graduated in Law at Università degli Studi in his hometown Milan. He has worked as a tax expert in some of the biggest world financial institutions: Deutsche Bank, Barclays Capital, Credit Suisse. He is currently the CEO of Credit Suisse fiduciary company in Italy. He is also an opera critic for Opéra Magazine and Musica.

Elena Falletti is Full-Tenured Assistant Professor of Comparative Private Law at the School of Law of the University 'Cattaneo – LIUC' Castellanza (VA), Italy. She carried out her PhD in Comparative Law at the Università degli Studi di Milano in 2006. When she was a PhD candidate, she gained a DAAD Stipendium and a Marie Curie Fellowship at the Westfälische Wilhelm-Universität Münster (Germany).

After that, she gained a Post-doctoral Fellowship at the Max Planck Institut für Geistiges Eigentum of Munich (Germany).

Silvia Ferreri is Full Professor of Comparative Law at Turin University (Italy), member of the scientific board of the European network REI, member of the International Academy of Comparative Law and of the Italian branch of the Association H. Capitant des amis de la culture française. She has worked at the European Project of the ‘Acquis group’ for the restatement of principles of European contract law (she was part of the terminology group in the project). She has published in French and English in several international legal periodics.

Cesare Fertonani is Associate Professor of Music History and Methodology of Musical Critique at the University of Milan. He holds a degree in Violin from the Conservatorio of Milan and a degree in Letters from the University of Milan. He is the coordinator of several books and scientific projects on musical critique.

Pietro Gandetto is a musicologist and a practising attorney. He is also an opera reviewer, a critic and a contributor specialised in Verdian repertoire.

Giovanni Iudica is Adjunct Senior Professor of Civil Law and former Dean of the Bocconi School of Law. He taught private law at the Faculty of Business and Economics of the Istituto Universitario di Bergamo (1974–1980), at the Faculty of Law of the University of Parma (1980–1982), then at the University of Pavia (1982–1989). He has been Visiting Professor at the Université de Paris (Paris XII) and at several universities in the US. He was one of the charter members of the Italian Association of Civil Lawyers (Association for Civil Law Studies) and President until 2010. He is now honorary President of this association. He is Vice President of the IAP Giurì (Istituto dell’Autodisciplina Pubblicitaria). He is also President of ISCL (Italian Society of Construction Law) and, in 2013–2014, was President of ESCL (European Society of Construction Law). He is a member of ELI (European Law Institute). He was a member of SGECC (Study Group on a European Civil Code), and he has contributed to the drafting of the DCFR – Draft Common Frame of Reference – Sellier European Law Publishers, 2009.

Przemysław Krzywoszyński is assistant professor, Chair of the History of Political and Legal Doctrines and of Philosophy at the Faculty of Law and Administration (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań, Poland). He is also currently finishing his PhD thesis in Musicology (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań, Poland), entitled ‘The Importance of Giovanni Simon Mayr’s and Vincenzo Bellini’s Work on the Formation of Early-Romantic Italian Opera’.

Ewa Łętowska professor, Dr. H. C., Polish Academy of Sciences, a judge emeritus of the Constitutional Tribunal of Poland. She is a professor of law, multiple doctor honoris causa, member of the Polish Academy of Science, Polish Academy of Learning (Polska Akademia Umiejętności), Académie de Droit Comparé in Paris.

She is the first Polish ombudsman (1989–1991), a retired judge of the Constitutional Tribunal. She is the author of several hundred publications on private and constitutional law and the author of numerous publications, television and radio broadcasts on opera music. She published (in Polish), together with her husband, Janusz Łętowski, the following books: ‘Adventures with Opera’ (Przygoda z opera, Interster 1991), ‘The Eternally Blooming Muse or Again on Opera’ (Muza wiecznie kwitnąca czyli znów o operze, TwojStyl 1995). With Krzysztof Pawłowski, she published ‘On Opera and the Law’ (O operze i o prawie, Wolters Kluwer Polska, 2014), as well as two fairy tales on opera for children: ‘Matylda in Opera. On the Other Side of an Aria’ (Matylda w operze. Po drugiej stronie arii, Opera Narodowa 2015) and ‘Matylda and the Gala of the Century’ (Matylda i gala stulecia, Opera Narodowa 2016).

Peter Lewisch is Professor of Criminal Law at Vienna University and Director of the Center for Economic and Financial Crime and of the Center for the Economic Analysis of the Law. He is also a practising lawyer at Cerha Hempel Spiegelfeld Hlawati Attorneys GmbH. Since his high school years, he has been an extra with the Vienna State Opera. Prof Lewisch is also an amateur singer (bass) and an outspoken fan of the great Plácido Domingo.

Mariana Lima Maia is Fellow Researcher (PIBIC/CNPQ) in the projects ‘Legal Aspects in the Artistic World’ (2014–2015) and ‘Metaphors and Law: The Expansion of the Legal Language’ (2015–2016). She is a degree candidate at the Law School of Universidade Federal da Paraíba – UFPB (Brazil).

Olimpia Giuliana Loddo earned a PhD in Philosophy of Law from the University of Milan in 2012 and cooperates as post-doctoral volunteer research assistant with the Department of Law of the University of Cagliari. She is assistant editor in ‘Argumenta. Italian Journal of Analytic Philosophy’. Her current research interests include general theory of law, social ontology, customary law, philosophy of norms, deontic logic, phenomenology of law. She is the author of several articles published in (national and international) peer-reviewed journals. Essays and translations (from English and German) by Olimpia Giuliana Loddo have also been published in edited collections on phenomenology of law, anthropology of revenge, philosophy of images. She is a co-editor (with Pier Luigi Lecis, Giuseppe Lorini, Vinicio Busacchi and Pietro Salis) of the edited collection ‘Truth, Image and Normativity’. She edited (with Roberto Pusceddu) the book ‘Anancastico in Deontica’ (Anankastic in Deontic) (auth. Giuseppe Lorini). She is the author of the book ‘Ideologie e concetti in azienda. Un’analisi filosofica degli usi aziendali’ (Ideology and Concepts in the Firm. A Philosophical Analysis of Company Customs), ESI (forthcoming).

Mariano Longo is Full Professor of History of Sociology and Qualitative Methods for Social Research at the University of Lecce, Italy. His main recent interest is the use of narratives (including literary narratives) as sociological sources. On the topic, he has published Fiction and Social Reality. Literature and Narrative as Sociological Resource, Ashgate.

Giuseppe Lorini has been Associate Professor of Philosophy of Law at the University of Cagliari (Italy) since 2005. He taught also at the University of Camerino and the University of Pavia. He took his PhD in Analytical Philosophy and General Theory of Law in 1997 at the State University of Milan with a thesis entitled 'Dimensions of the Institutional (Dimensioni dell'istituzionale)'. He was Visiting Professor at the Universidad Internacional de la Andalucía (Spain), the Universidad de Oviedo (Spain), the Uniwersitet Gdański (University of Gdansk) (Poland), the University of Nagoya (Japan). He was Visiting Scholar at the University of California at Berkeley (USA) and the Universidad de Sevilla (Spain). He is a member of the editorial board of the philosophical journal 'Argumenta. Journal of Analytic Philosophy' and a member of the International Advisory Board of the Polish journal 'Ruch Prawniczy, Ekonomiczny I Socjologiczny' ('The Legal, Economical and Sociological Journal').

Geo Magri is Dr. jur., wissenschaftlicher Mitarbeiter, European Legal Studies Institute, Universität Osnabrück (LS Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Christian von Bar). He has long-year experience in academic projects towards the harmonisation of European private law. He is the co-author of studies on behalf of the European Parliament (IMCO) on consumer law and contributor to the EU Consumer Law Acquis Database on behalf of the European Commission (www.eu-consumer-law.org). He is a member of several scientific associations and the Vice President of the International Lawyers' Association of Osnabrück (Internationale Juristenvereinigung Osnabrück e.V.). He Lectures and conferences in Germany, Poland and Italy.

Krzysztof Pawłowski is a philosopher, currently employed with the Office of Highest Administrative Court, Warsaw, Poland.

Giorgio Resta is Full Professor of Comparative Law, University of Roma Tre, Law Department. He is Visiting Professor of Comparative Law at the McGill University, Canada.

Mario Riberi is a Post-doctoral Fellow at the University of Nice Sophia Antipolis and is Assistant Professor in History of Law at the University of Turin and at the University 'Luiss' of Rome.

Maria Teresa Sanza is a practising attorney (enabled to the Supreme Court of Cassation) and PhD candidate at the University of Salerno. Among her publications is 'Le narrazioni della legge. Pratiche linguistiche e comunità interpretativa negli usi del diritto contemporaneo', ESI, 2013.

Masabumi Suzuki is Professor of Intellectual Law at Nagoya University Graduate School of Law (Japan). He is a Council Member of the Copyright Law Association of Japan, the Japan Association of International Economic Law and the Japan Association of Industrial Property Law and a member of the International Literary and Artistic Association of Japan and the American Bar Association.

Marcilio Toscano Franca Filho is a Post-Doctorate at the European University Institute – Calouste Gulbenkian Postdoctoral Fellow (Florence, Italy) and is Doctor of Law at the Universidade de Coimbra (Portugal). He is a professor at the Post Graduation Program in Law at the Legal Sciences Department of Universidade Federal da Paraíba – UFPB (Brazil) and of the Recife Law School at Universidade Federal de Pernambuco – UFPE (Brazil). He is a public prosecutor at the Court of Justice of the State of Paraíba. He is a member of the International Association of Constitutional Law, the International Society of Public Law and the Instituto Hispano-Luso-Americano de Derecho Internacional. Currently, he is President of the Brazilian branch of the International Law Association.

Gustavo Troccoli Carvalho de Negreiros is a student of law at the Federal University of Paraíba. He is Civil Law Monitor (2013.2/2014.1), Criminal Law Monitor (2014.2/2015.1) and Social Security Law Monitor (currently). He has professional experience at the Federal Court – SJPB (2014/2015) and at the Federal Parquet – MPF, specifically at the Regional Electoral Parquet (currently).

Jan Woleński is professor emeritus, Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland; professor, University of Information, Technology and Management, Rzeszów, Poland; member of Polish Academy of Sciences, Polish Academy of Arts and Sciences, Academia Europea, International Institute of Philosophy. As a visiting professor, he lectured at many recognised foreign universities (University of Salzburg, University of Lviv University, Sun-Yat-Sen, Guangzhao, Hebrew University of Jerusalem). He is a winner of many awards. In 2011, he was awarded the Officer's Cross of the Order of the Rebirth of Polish. In 2013, he was the winner of the prestigious Prize of the Foundation for Polish Science in the field of humanities and social sciences. He is a member of many scientific organisations operating in Europe and the world, including Polish Academy of Sciences (Chairman of the Committee on Ethics in Science PAN), Polish Academy of Sciences, Institute International de Philosophie, the American Mathematical Society.

Dai Yokomizo is a professor of law at Nagoya University, Graduate School of Law, Nagoya, Japan, where he has taught since 2008. A graduate of the University of Tokyo Graduate School for Law and Politics (LL.B., LL.M.), Professor Yokomizo's main research and teaching interests include private international law, comparative law and private law theory. He is a member of the Committee on Intellectual Property and Private International Law of International Law Association, associate editor of the Japanese Yearbook of International Law, member of the Advisory Board of the Italian Law Journal and member of the International Committee of Rivista di Diritto Sportivo.