Farmerie (Westminster College); Amy Ensley and Jessika Dockery (Wilson College); Zoe Behnke (Ypsilanti Historical Museum/Ann Arbor League of Women Voters).

As always, the librarians at Sherrill Library of Lesley University have been unflagging in their support of my research. I could not have finished this project without the help of Elizabeth Allen, Dianne Brown, Tamar Brown, Robyn Ferraro, Jamie Glass, Micki Harrington, Kathy Holmes, Abigail Mancini, Stephanie Nelson, Philip Siblo-Landsman, Bettiann McKay, Karen Storz, Lee Sullivan, Samantha Quinon, and Constance Vratos.

I also want to thank my Lesley colleagues Christine Evans, Randi Korn, Michael Mercurio, Sonia Perez-Villanueva, Bill Porter, Chi Tran, and Selase Williams for various supports throughout this project. I am indebted to the Lesley University undergraduate research assistants who have worked with me: Victoria Gordon, Sarah Kinkade, Cheynne MacDonald, Kaitlin Nardi, and Leanna Silvestrone. Finally, thanks to Michael Miller, for American studies expertise, discerning insight, and boundless support.
