THE RULE OF LAW IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE
This book is dedicated to the memory of Tadeusz Kosciuszko apostle of liberty and the rule of law
Preface

The papers collected in this volume grow out of a series of discussions on the concept of “The Rule of Law” held at meetings of the European American Consortium for Legal Education in Warsaw (2008), the American Society for Legal History in Tempe, Arizona (2007), and the Association of American Law Schools in San Diego, California (2009). The gathering of the European-American Consortium for Legal Education was particularly significant, because it also marked the two-hundredth anniversary of the University of Warsaw Faculty of Law. We would like to thank those who attended these meetings for their insightful remarks and for their inspiration, suggestions and encouragement in better understanding the rule of law from a comparative perspective.

Thanks are also due to the faculty, staff and students of the University of Baltimore Center for International and Comparative Law who prepared this volume for publication, and particularly to Katie Rolfes, Laurie Schnitzer, Barbara Coyle, Kathryn Spanogle, Morad Eghbal, James Maxeiner, Nicholas Allen, Caroline Andes, Michael Beste, Suzanne Conklin, Pratima Lele, Shandon Phan, T.J. Sachse, Toscha Stoner-Silbaugh and Björn Thorstensen. We are also grateful to David Bederman, Michael Hoeflich, Carl Landauer, David Lieberman, Jules Lobel, Ileana Porras, and Brian Tamanaha for their comments of earlier versions of the chapters published here.
